NO. 30

PIONEER OF FORTY-FIVE PASSES IN PORTLAND

Well-Known Aunt Angeline Catching, Leaving 52 Descendants

CAME THROUGH THE MEAK CUT-OFF

Sterling Woman in Every Respect Daughter Resides Here

Another pioneer has disappeared from the fast-fading ranks of the Oregon old-timers. Mrs. Angeline F. Catching, aged 85, who crossed the plains from Missouri in 1845 and settled with her husband, William W. Catching, long since deceased, on a donation claim of 640 acres near Forest Grove, Or., died Friday, Sept. 30, 1910, at 185 Sixteenth street, Portland.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Catching was in apparently the best of health. Week ago Sunday she became ill and languished steadily till death relieved her sufferings. Her demise was due almost entirely to old age.

Mrs. Catching, whose maiden name was Yates, was born in Kentucky in 1825. When 14 years of age she married William W. Catching and in 1845 the family left St. Joseph, Mo., with an ox-train of 600 wagons bound for the then territory of Oregon. The trip occupied exactly six months, from May 20 to November 20.

Portland, at the time of Mrs. Catching's arrival in the state, was a hamlet of six log cabins, Oregon City and Vancouver, Wash., both mere frontier villages, were the principal trading posts in this section, while The Dalles, then Fort Dalles, was the most important place further east.

Mrs. Catching's living descendants number 52, of whom one, Chester Edwill Clark, son of Chester Clark, of Portland, was a great-great-grandson. She was the mother of 13 children, of whom five are living. They are: Mrs. R. C. Baldr, of Hillsboro; R. F. Catching, of Wardner, Idaho; Mrs. A. C. Levens, of Portland; W. A. Catching and Chas. H. Catching, of Missoula, Mont.

Mrs. Catching became a member of the Oregon Pioneers' Association in the year of its formation and until her death never missed attending the annual rally.

The funeral took place Sunday, the body having been taken to Forest Grove on the Oregon Electric.

JOHN REDMOND

John Redmond, a brother of C. W. Redmond, of Hillsboro, died at his home near McMinnville, Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1910, aged 72 years, one month and 28 days. He was born in Ontario, Canada, Aug. 26, 1839, and at the age of 23 came to Oregon via New York and San Francisco. In 1867 he returned to Canada, where he remained 5 years and then returned to Oregon. He settled near McMinnville, and bought 340 acres, and has ever since carried on farming and stockraising, his herds of blooded sheep and cattle being of the best. He was a prominent Mason, and the funeral Friday was in charge of the Masonic body.

His surviving children: W. J. Redmond, Oak Point, Wash.; John P. Mrs. Etta Wheeler, Mrs. Stella Michelbrook, and Wesley, Min and Leroy, of McMinnville, Matthew, of Lebanon, Wash., and Daniel, of San Francisco, Cal.

MRS. O. S. JOHNSON

Mrs. O. S. Johnson, of Shady Brook, died October 1, 1910, from heart failure. Her maiden name was Marguerite Frank, and prior to her marriage she resided near Holbrook. Her parents are both dead. She was born in Nebraska, and was aged 21 years, 11 months and 29 days. She was married to Mr. Johnson, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson, Oct. 27, 1909. Mr. Johnson was making preparations to move to Palmer, Ore., the husband already having gone to work up there. Mrs. Johnson was to have joined him Monday.

FOR SALE

One hundred tons baled hay, at right prices. For particulars, inquire of Mays Bros., Glencoe, Ore. Both phones. 30-33

Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

Leonore Loxley, who taught in the second grade in the Hillsboro schools, last year, has sued the district for $25 and interest on the same, since June 4, 1910. She sets up in her complaint that she had a nine months contract with the city at $50 per month, and when she arrived here Sept. 27 there was no room prepared for her, and that she was delayed for 14 days. At the date of June 4 she quit, claiming that she was entitled to $25 for the time which she lost. Miss Cecilia Groer finished out the June work. The Board would not pay her for the service which was unperformed because of lateness in the contract work being finished on the new addition. The case will doubtless come up at the November term of circuit court. Miss Loxley also asks for interest on the amount claimed from June 4 to date of the expected decree.

We are now better than ever prepared to supply our customers. We have a good supply of flooring, rustic, shiplap and finishing lumber and can furnish good house bills on short notice. We also have a good stock of all kinds of common lumber. We have in stock all sizes of tile from 3 to 16 inch that are first quality; also brick and building blocks. Try our building blocks for your fruit or potato house, or foundation for your building—better and cheaper than brick or concrete. Parties wanting orders delivered will do well to place them early, while the roads are good, and our teams are not to busy. In the past we find that it is the falling of many people to wait till the roads are almost impassable, and then place their orders for delivery, at a cost of twice what it can be done for now. So don't forget, this year, while our stock is complete.—Greener & Rowell Company.

Emmett Quick, of Forest Grove, was sent up to the Davis & Hannan right of way camp, on the P. R. & N., above Timber, the last of the week, to bring in a crazy man, who was making all kinds of trouble for the outfit. When Quick arrived the fellow had cooled down, and he was allowed to remain. He had been down to Portland and looking on juniper juice when it was particularly colored, and was consequently a little out of his head. He is all right now, and is working like a "nigger at an election."

D. W. Bath was down from Goldendale, Wash., over Sunday, to spend the day with his family. Mr. Bath and son, Irving, both of whom are well known in Hillsboro, where they were handling the destinies of the Independent, have bought the Goldendale Sentinel plant, building and all, and will settle down to the newspaper business in that enterprising city. They have a good field and will do well in their new venture.

H. Taylor Hill, on whose place near Mountindale the four pairs Reeves pheasants have been turned out, was in Saturday and took the game birds out for liberation. Mr. Hill says he regretted very much that the pheasants could not be placed on exhibition at the street carnival, but they were packed and shipped in such a manner that he feared trouble in getting them back in the crate.

For the best pictures that artistic skill, combined with chemical science can produce, call at Johnson's Studio. Twenty three years continuous service behind the camera. Gold medal awarded at St. Paul, Minn., in 1900.—Heidel Building, upstairs, over Baird's store. 29-30

Mrs. Carl Bunsen and child returned Friday from an extended visit with her parents, at Galesville, Ill. She was accompanied home by her brother, Earl Tappen, who will make an extended stay in Oregon.

Horses for sale: Black mare, 7 years, 1200; sorrel mare, 8 years, 1200; iron gray mare, 3 years, 1300; bay mare, 3 years, 1200.—Geo. Lennen, Cornelius, Ore., Route 1, Vinelands.

Oscar Gustafsen, of below Reedville, was in town Monday, on probate business, settling the estate of his late father, John Gustafsen, before County Judge Goodin.

H. G. King, of Forest Grove, and who was the assembly candidate for county treasurer, was down to the city Monday.

Plumbing and plumbing material. First class work. Call on F. W. Ralls, at Connell & Co. store. 29-33

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck were in the city from Dilley, Saturday. Paul says the fall was a "pippin."

THE WASHINGTON TO OPEN BY HOLIDAYS

Will be Finest Hostelry on West Side of Willamette

WILLIAM GIFFORD TO TAKE CHARGE

Will Have 56 Modern Rooms for Transient Travelers

Dr. Tamiesie has closed a lease with William Gifford, of Portland, and who was for five years with the Portland Hotel, and Mr. Gifford will take charge of The Washington, the new three-story hotel, before the holiday season opens. This new hostelry will be the finest on the West side of the Willamette river, and is the finest public building in Washington County.

It will have 56 guest rooms, six baths, with four lavatories on the two upper floors. Besides this the building has apartments, one of which will be used as a home by Dr. Tamiesie.

Dr. Tamiesie, who has shown his faith in Hillsboro by the largest building investment yet made in the city, hopes to have the building ready for the public by the holidays. He has given Mr. Gifford excellent terms, and an effort will be made to have the institution a financial success from the start. Mr. Gifford is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wann, former Hillsboro residents, and Mrs. Gifford is a sister of Ed. and Andrew Wann, of Hillsboro.

NO TRESPASS

Hunting, or otherwise trespassing, on the premises of the undersigned, near West Union, will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

Frank Harberg, the West Union stock buyer and butcher, was in the city the last of the week, mixing with the big crowd.

Herman Rannow, of near Farmington, was over to the city Saturday, and remembered the Argus in his calling list.

LAST PAYMENT TAX HAS ROLLED IN

Sheriff's Office Busy Last of the Week and Monday

COFFERS ENRICHED BY BIG SUM

Tax Collection Reduced to a Minimum, and Few Delinquent

Sheriff Geo. Hancock and Deputy Dave Kuratli, assisted by J. B. Wilkes, were very busy last week, and up until Monday night, collecting the last payment from those who had paid half of their taxes last Spring. The three street carnival days were very busy ones at the collection center, for many took advantage of the gala days to call and settle up with the county.

Several thousand dollars rolled in, as the time for payment expired Monday evening. It is stated that the delinquencies are few and far between. It is surprising to note how many have lost their receipts and were in ignorance as to whether they had paid all, or half, or none, and it kept the force busy looking after this one point, to say nothing of collections. Hundreds upon hundreds always take advantage of the half payment and the talk over the state of changing the law of collection has almost entirely subsided.

Many, who are able, pay only half because they argue that the money is not needed for all the tax until the Winter months set in, and they aver that money is worth more than six per cent, to them for the purpose of moving crops.

POULTRY MEN ORGANIZE

A number of the poultry men organized last Saturday, with A. E. Cameron as temporary secretary. Messrs. Cameron and F. J. Saunders wish all poultry raisers to meet at the Second Street Feed store, on October 15, at 2:00 p. m., for the purpose of electing permanent officers and adopting specific plans of organization.

NOTICE

Whereas, my wife has left my bed and board without just provocation, I hereby notify all persons against extending her any credit on my account from and after the date hereof.

29-31 John Huback, Hillsboro, Ore., Sept. 29, 1910.

Mr. Wilson, a brother of W. H. Wilson, the Gales Creek horseman, was kicked by a horse, early Monday morning, near the Oak Grove ranch, owned by Geo. R. Bagley, and the unfortunate man suffered a fracture of the knee cap, which the attending physician, Dr. Tamiesie, states will give him a great deal of trouble. He was taken to the Oak Grove ranch to be treated, and was taken home later in the week. The horse succeeded in kicking the cart to splinters before he was stopped.

William Curry and wife and two sons, Arlie and Verne, departed Tuesday morning for a Winter's stay at their old home in Custer County, Okla., and they expect to return next Spring. Mr. Curry goes for the benefit of his health.

George Zetzman, of North Plains, was in Monday. He says he and his neighbors are about to get into telephonic communication with the outside world.

Perry Gardner, of Quatama, on the Oregon Electric, was in the city Monday.
