It is said that the big interests, or men connected with them, are aiding the democrats in New Jersey and in other New England States, for the purpose of disciplining the insurgent republicans, Ohio is also to get help from the interests and the conservative democrats are in high glee. Every candidate on the ticket—democratic or otherwise—that gets help from the system, should be beaten. There is no victory in such a campaign. Rather elect a standpatter than a democrat who gets aid from the corporationists.

Hillsboro and Washington County apple growers are coming into their own, and the Meier & Frank store, in Portland, has been displaying a portion of the recent fair exhibit. A little more care with spraying; a little more organization; grubbing out of the old and infested orchards, and Washington County will be on the apple chart with a vengeance.

OCTOBER DAYS

You may glorify of Summer With its sunshine an' its haze When the people all are bikin' Where the coast breeze alius plays— But give me good October. With its Injan Summer sun And its forests red an' yellor. An' crimson, green, an' dun— October with its punkin pies, An' with its apples red— Altho' the year is dyin'— B'Gosh, it aint quite dead! An' if I had to choose between The Summer or the Fall, I'd kinder lean to apple time— By Heck! it beats 'em all. It may be 'cause I'm gettin' old, An' passed beyond my prime, That there's a sort of sympathy 'Twixt me an' Autumn time— But of all the seasons natur' gives, After all is done an' said, I'd pick the Injan Summer days— When all the woods is red! —The Deacon.

Jack Robinson and friend, of near Scholls, went over to the coast range, the first of the week, to get a buck.

Just arrived—the famous W. L. Douglas shoe, formerly handled in the city by Wehrung & Sons. For a $3.50 shoe these cannot be beaten by any shoe the world has worn.—Wyatt & Co.

H. A. Eckstrom and N. Nelson, of Beaverton, have sued out a writ of review of the Beaverton school district, asking the court to set aside the proceedings of the school meeting which voted to expend $7,000 for a school building. The contract has been let to W. F. Dessinger. The plaintiffs allege that "no notice of any character as appears from said proceeding, was ever given as prescribed by statute," and they claim these rights were not protected.

WAIBEL-PRANGER

William Waibel and Miss Mary A. Pranger, both of Hillsboro, were united in marriage at St. Matthews' Church, this city, October 12, 1910. Rev. Father Bucholzer solemnizing the nuptials. They will make their home at Sixth and Oak. The groom is well known here and at Helvetia, and is a brother of Frank Waibel, with the Emmotts. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pranger, of Hillsboro, and who are well known in the Leisville district, where they resided for years. Both are popular young people, and are receiving the congratulations of a host of friends. A big reception was tendered the happy pair last evening.

After many years of mercantile business in Hillsboro the firm of H. Wehrung & Sons closed the doors this morning, everything having been sold out. W. H. Wehrung and associates expect soon to open the Hillsboro National Bank, and the brick will be remodeled for that purpose. Store rooms will be partitioned from the bank quarters, to the south, and the bank will occupy the corner, Main and Second.

Clerk Bailey has issued many marriage licenses the past week: Samuel L. Shaw and Mrs. Emma Stillwell; Clyde Trueblood and Ethel Brock; Edward Hofer and Emma Yungen; Wm. E. Jansen and Rebecca Marsh, the bride to be being a daughter of Hon. G. W. Marsh and wife, Centerville; Bert Doane and Katherine Jackson, Forest Grove; W. R. Cooke and Edna Corl; Albert M. Hoek and Ethel M. Wheeler; R. M. Cleveland and Nel L. Wright.

Related Antiquities.

Striking resemblance has been pointed out between the remarkable ancient ruins at Zimababwe, in Rhodesia, and antiquities in Cornwall, England.

Corundum.

With the exception of the diamond, emery and corundum are the best natural abrasives known. Corundum is pure aluminum oxide, and its hardness is next to that of the diamond. Emery, so far as composition goes, may be considered a mixture of corundum with more or less magnetite or hematite.

Lamp Chimneys.

If a short piece of small rubber tubing is placed on each of the spring posts of a lamp burner they will prevent the chimney falling off as the lamp is carried.

Little, but Strong.

Ants will carry loads forty or fifty times as heavy as themselves. The beetle can move a weight 112 times its own weight.

Density of the Planets.

The following are found to be the densities of the planets, water being 1: Mercury, 5.3; Venus, 5.14; earth, 5.50; moon, 3.34; Mars, 4; Jupiter, 1.35; Saturn, 0.68; Uranus, 1.09; Neptune, 2.29.

Camel Flesh.

The Bedouins eat the flesh of the camel and as a mark of distinction slaughter a camel when a noted guest visits them. Camel flesh is also eaten by Mohammedan peasants and the poorer classes of Mohammedan city people of Jaffa and Gaza. The skins are used as rawhide to sole the shoes worn by peasants.

Pudding and Pye.

A restaurant keeper named Pye prosecuted a man at the London sessions recently for obtaining pudding by fraud.

Hard to Kill.

Fish, flies and caterpillars may be frozen solid and still retain life.
