STRANGER TOUCHES BANKS MAN HARD

Sells Him a Fine Mare for One Hundred Fifty Dollars

ANIMAL HAD BEEN STOLEN AT LINCOLN Told a Plausible Story and Refused to Sell Saddle

A stranger passing under the name of E. L. Allen sold R. L. Banks, of Banks, and who runs a meat market, a fine mare, about two weeks ago, receiving $150 for the animal. He had a new saddle with him, and Mr. Banks offered him $25 for it, but he refused to sell, saying it belonged to his boy. Mr. Banks at first had his suspicions, and asked Allen where he came from, and he told him that he lived on the Chehalum Mountain, near Newberg. He told him that he knew the Stiehlers, the Jones family and a Mr. Davis, all of whom were known to Mr. Banks. This allayed all suspicion, and Mr. Banks paid him the money. He then wrote his name on a tag, attached it to the saddle, and had Mr. Banks ship it to Newberg. From Newberg, the thief had the saddle shipped over to Jefferson, Oregon.

The horse had been stolen from Lincoln, Marion County, and belonged to Fred Carruthers, Mr. Carruthers came over the last of the week and satisfied Mr. Banks as to ownership, and took the animal home with him. Sheriff Hancock is on the trail of the horse-thief, and thinks he can get him beyond doubt. Mr. Banks was in town Monday morning, and says he is anxious to see the crook behind the bars.

B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.

HOCKEN WHEELER

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wheeler, Hillsboro, Oregon, Wednesday evening, October 12, 1910, when their youngest daughter Ethel Margaret Wheeler was married to Albert Maxwell Hocken, of Beaverton, Rev. C. B. Rees, pastor of the Beaverton M. E. church, performing the ceremony. Mr. Arthur Clement acted as groomsmen and Miss Ethel Hocken as bridesmaid. The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. There were many useful and ornamental wedding gifts. After the ceremony at 8:00 p. m., light refreshments were served in the way of ice cream and cake with punch. The bridal party caught the 10:30 Electric at Beaverton for Portland. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wheeler, Master Ted Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hocken, Miss Ethel Hocken, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weisenback, Miss Bonnie Weisenback, Mr. Arthur Clement, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hocken, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hocken, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rowe, Mrs. W. H. Root, Master Robert Christensen, Mrs. J. P. Duffy, Miss Nell Duffy, Mrs. W. H. Pearce, Miss Helen Pearce, Mr. Albert H. Pearce, Master Harry Pearce, Miss Dora Buck, Miss Mary Rasmussen, Mr. Roy Sprout.

Dance at W. O. W. Hall, Glencoe, Saturday eve, October 29. Toelle's orchestra. Everybody invited. 32-3

N. W. Chilcott, of East Hillsboro, Saturday, brought to the Argus office some fine strawberries, of good size and flavor, showing what Oregon can do with a fine Autumn like that of 1910.

We are now better than ever prepared to supply our customers. We have a good supply of flooring, rustic, shiplap and finishing lumber and can furnish good home bills on short notice. We also have a good stock of all kinds of common lumber. We have in stock all sizes of tile from 3 to 16 inch that are first quality; also brick and building blocks. Try our building blocks for your fruit or potato house, or foundation for your buildings—better and cheaper than brick or concrete. Parties wanting orders delivered will do well to place them early, while the roads are good, and our teams are not too busy. In the past we find that it is the falling of many people to wait till the roads are almost impassable, and then place their order for delivery, at a cost of twice what it can be done for now. So don't forget, this year, while our stock is complete.—Groner & Rowell Company.

The agent of the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, of Portland, came out the last of the week, and with Marshal Larsen went to the Second Street confectionery, east side of the street, and took charge of a child belonging to the proprietor. The matter was taken before the county judge and the little one turned over to the Society and taken to Portland. The babe was not given sufficient care.

Mrs. E. C. Brown and her sister, Mrs. Tucker, of Los Angeles, departed Monday morning for a week's trip in Washington. They will stop at Toledo to visit an aunt, then go to Tacoma, where Mrs. Brown will visit relatives, while Mrs. Tucker will be the guest of Mrs. C. L. Baker, at Sumner, and their last visit will be with their brother, John Rose, at Everett, Wash.

Why be bothered with two pairs of glasses? Call at Hotel Tualatin, Friday, Oct. 28, to 4 o'clock, and have Dr. Lowe show you the new glasses with which you can see all distances—one solid piece of glass. No lines to strain the eyes or collect dirt; no cement to come apart. Free demonstrations. Call and see them.

Roy Cook and J. E. Reeves, of Cornelius; Harry Goff, of Forest Grove, and Dr. Pittenger, Chester Alexander and County Clerk Bailey, of Hillsboro, were all down to see the last league games of the season, Sunday, and to their sorrow they saw the Beavers beaten two times by the Los Angeles team.

Curtains Laundered—I am prepared to laundry and stretch lace curtains at the following prices: Large size, 50 cents a pair; smaller sizes, two pairs for 75 cents, and three pairs for $1.00.—Mrs. R. C. Baldr, Baseline near Third street, Hillsboro. 31-2

Alex Sweek, of Portland, and who owns a large tract down at Tualatin, was up to the city Friday. Alex says he isn't for any county division, and that he is satisfied to have his property stay in old Washington county.

The style, design, finish, workmanship, material, all contribute to the desired effect Dr. Lowe's glasses produce. Consult him at Forest Grove, Oct. 27; Tualatin Hotel, at Hillsboro, the 28th, to 4 o'clock.

Dr. J. C. Zan and L. F. Thibaut, of Portland, were out Saturday and Sunday, on a hunting expedition, and bagged the limit before noon on the second day.

Horses for sale: Black mare, 7 years, 1200; sorrel mare, 8 years, 1200; iron gray mare, 3 years, 1300; bay mare, 3 years, 1200.—Geo. Lennen, Cornelius, Ore., Route 1, Vineland.

Oliver B. Gates and family are here from Klamath Falls for the Winter. The Gates have sold out all their Klamath holdings. O. B. was in charge of the Klamath Falls plant.

Frank Pranger, who has been interested with Spiering & Sohler, in the Cedar Canyon saw-mill, has sold out, and taken up his residence in this city.

Plumbing and plumbing material. First class work. Call on F. W. Ralls, at Connell & Co. 29-33

Born, to Carl Hinman and wife, of Forest Grove, Oregon, October 15, 1910, a son.

Money to loan on real estate. Terms reasonable. Apply to Kurathi Bros., Hillsboro, Or. 21tf

J. W. York, of near Reedville, was in the city Saturday morning.

John Koch, of near Blooming, was in town the last of the week. Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

SCHOLLS GRANGE A SPLENDID FAIR

Exhibits of Production of Lower Tualatin Surprise to Visitors

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS ADDRESS

Mrs. Clara Waldo, Former Grange Official, Makes Comparisons

The Scholls Grange Fair, which was held last Saturday, was a revelation to the visiting contingent. The apple display was superb and gave evidence of splendid care of orchards. The exhibit of other fruit, vegetables, walnuts, grains, etc., as well as the display along culinary and dairy lines, were a credit to any community, and it was noticed that the art work was not behind city communities.

Mrs. Clara Waldo, a former state grange official, and who recently returned from a trip to Europe, delivered one of her characteristic addresses, and made comparisons between this country and what she saw abroad. She said she found that Oregon was known in Europe for its timber, for its salmon, for its wheat, and for its apples. She urged specialization in all lines attempted. She asked for fidelity in dealing, and stated that she hoped that some day America would be first place in commercial integrity, a place now enjoyed by a pagan nation—China.

Secretary Williamson, of the Board of Horticulture, presented his views on horticulture, and held that in the not distant future, Washington County would be noted as the land of famous orchards.

Ferd Groner presided, and Mr. Jaquith opened the exercises in the afternoon with a cordial address of welcome. Several vocal numbers were presented, among them being a number by N. H. Alexander, of Hillsboro.

Scholls is situated in a most beautiful section, and its lands, both bench and bottom, are among the most fertile in the state. Its farmers and merchants are all prosperous, and the section is dotted with fine homes.

The grange fair is an annual occurrence, and if it shall enlarge it will need larger quarters for the exhibits. The hall was completely filled with exhibits, and the people in charge of the fair gave all visitors a very cordial welcome.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public sale, at his farm, 1 mile south of Kinton school house, and four miles east of Scholls, at 10 a. m.,

SATURDAY, NOV. 5.

Lunch at noon.

Terms of sale—Under $10, cash; $10 and over, one year's time, bankable note, at 8 per cent. Two per cent off for cash over $10.

N. G. McDonald, Owner.
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.

LAI D TO REST

The funeral of Mrs. Raymond Harvey, formerly Miss Marguerite Redmond, took place Friday, and the concurrence of friends who were present testified to the popularity of the young lady. The floral offerings were the finest ever tendered obsequies in the city. Rev. Evan P. Hughes preached the funeral discourse, and every business house in the city was closed during the funeral.

FOR SALE

One hundred tons baled hay, at right prices. For particulars, inquire of Mays Bros., Glencoe, Ore. Both phones. 30-33

C. H. Myers, of Cornelius, was in the city Saturday.

Geo. J. Jack, of near Farmington, was in the city Friday.

H. C. Pearson, of Iowa Hill, was a county seat visitor Friday afternoon.

Dan Ennes, of near Roy, was over to the city last Thursday evening.

J. J. Nusbaumer, of beyond West Union, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Mrs. L. O. Dersham and daughter, of beyond Centerville, were in the city Friday.

Commissioners Butner and McLaran were in town Monday, at a session of the county court.

James Loudon, of Iowa Hill, and Chas. Loudon, of Glencoe, were in the city Monday morning.

Chas. Lamkin went up to the front, Saturday, the guest of Chester Alexander, fireman on the P. R. & N.

Now on sale—Nap-a-Tan, John Sharrod and W. L. Douglas shoes at Wyatt & Co. Store, corner Second and Main.

N. G. McDonald, of below Kinton, was in town Saturday, getting out sale bills for a public auction, dated for November 5.

Earl Towne, on the McCourt place, near Jobe's, was in town the last of the week, suffering from a piece of steel in the eye.

John McCallen, of below Oreno, was in town Friday. He has rented the Sol Jack place, below Farmington, for the ensuing year.

J. Schmitke, of Mountindale, was in Friday, leading a gasoline engine and feed chopper. He may use the engine for irrigating next season.

Public dance at Oreno Hall, Friday night, October 21. Good music and a good time guaranteed. Tickets, 75 cents. Ladies free. Spectators, 25 cents.

After a short visit Geo. Alexander has returned to the Prineville country, where he is associated in contract work on one of the new railroads running into Central Oregon.

Anyone still holding a ticket on Johnson's Studio may apply it as one-fourth the purchase price of a dozen photos any style or size from postcard to 6x8 inclusive till next Nov. 15th.

C. P. Hall, who in the seventies and early eighties was in charge of the Dick Perkins farm, this side of Beaverton, was out Saturday, looking after his cemetery plat. He now resides in Portland.

J. E. Borwick, of Reedville, was in town Friday. He has about concluded to conduct the store at Oreno and may run the store also at Reedville, where he has been in business for some time.

Ed. Wann, Wm. Gifford, Thos. Williams and Geo. Kirkwood returned Friday evening from their Tillamook trip, and report an excellent time. The boys arranged to get back so as to get out the first day of the open season and kill a few birds.

Carpenter C. Larsen has been building a plank road to the rear of the Argus building so that automobiles can be run around and enter the store building to the North via the back door route. A garage will soon be opened in the structure.

Marshal Baker, the Chehalum Mountain thresherman, was over town Friday, and says that a large acreage of Fall-sown grain is going in over in his section. The yield this last year was much better than usual, and he had a fine threshing run.

Hiram Smith, who was on the Sam B. Stoy place, below Oreno, the past season, has moved over to Tillamook with his outfit and will dairy over in the seaside county. While going over one of his horses broke loose and wandered back to the old home.

J. C. Lamkin packed a fine barrel of apples the other day and sent them back to Ridge Farm, Ill., to relatives. The pippins were the pick of the orchards about Hillsboro, and they constituted about the finest shipment ever sent out of this section.

M. C. Steeples and wife, of Hoquiam, were in the city this week, visiting friends. They will spend a week or so here, at Forest Grove and on Gales Creek. Mr. Steeples says that at every annual visit he sees great improvement in Hillsboro and Washington County.

RELIC OF THE PAST IN WAY OF PRIZE LIST

Old Washington County Agricultural Society Premium List

ALL OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS DEAD

Booklet of 1881 Found in old Rummage Search

The other day while a Hillsboro man was looking over some old papers he ran across a booklet printed in 1881, issued by the Washington County Agricultural Society. The Fair dates were set for October 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, and the officers and directors have all passed away. Wm. Reeves was president; the late Congressman T. H. Longue was secretary; and the late Robt. Imbrie was treasurer. The directors were Robt. Imbrie, Isaac Butler, J. Freeman, Wm. Reeves, W. G. Scoggin, T. H. Tongue, B. Cornelius (known as Uncle Ben, and who was killed in 1881 by Jack Powers), H. Wooley and R. S. Perkins.

L. B. Lindsey, who was superintendent of the horse department, is still alive, and also Wm. Chalmers, who was in charge of the cattle. The late John R. Porter, in charge of the fruit exhibit, is also in the land of rest. Mrs. Peter Boscov, who was superintendent of the flower and fancy work exhibit, on which prizes were paid, is still alive and quite well.

J. D. Rowell, of Scholls, who died a number of years ago, was in charge of the dairy, housework and domestic exhibits. R. Cave passed on the mechanical department; J. Freeman on equestrianism; and J. C. Weatherhead was superintendent of the grains, grasses and vegetable displays.

A season ticket cost $2.00, a day ticket, $1.

ABUSE OF THE INITIATIVE

It is a gross abuse of the rights guaranteed by the Initiative and Referendum Amendment to the Oregon Constitution to bring up woman suffrage at every general election. This measure was submitted in 1900 and beaten by a plurality of 2137. In 1906 it was again on the ballot and it was beaten by 10173. In 1908 it was again on the ballot and it was beaten by a majority of 21649. Notwithstanding these repeated defeats, more decisive at each election, the same measure is again on the ballot this year.

The ballot title is misleading and indicates a proposal to give votes to taxpaying women only, but the measure, to be voted on, is the same proposition which the people have so often and so recently condemned. It should be voted down this year by an increased majority, especially because of the fraud undertaken to be perpetrated on the people by the use of a false and misleading title on the ballot.
