UNITED LOCOMOTIVE IS NEARING GLENCOE

Track is now built to the Jos. Connell Place, Easterty

IN GLENCOE IN A FEW DAYS

Old Town is Expected to Sit up and Take Notice

Glencoe is expected to sit up and take notice in a few days more—for the United Railway construction locomotive reached the Jos. Connell place the first of the week, and as soon as the bridges are built the steel will be laid clear into Glencoe—or to the new town of North Plains, just this side. To the oldtimers out in that section the sight of the engine was a thriller.

The United construction forces are working all along the line as rapidly as men, teams, and supplies, can be hurried to the front. There is a large force of men all along between Glencoe and the crossing at Roy, and some of the work is rather heavy. A few days more on bridges—the piles are already driven—and steel will be laid past North Plains, and Glencoe will be on the map.

Henry Miller, of Witch Hazel, was a city visitor Monday.

Sam Ornduff, of South Tualatin, was in the city Tuesday.

E. A. Wolf, of Reedville, was in town the last of the week.

Miss Laura Tredo, of Forest Grove, visited friends in the city Friday.

E. C. Banks, of Banks, came down Tuesday afternoon, enroute to Portland.

Henry Boge, of Chehalem Mountain, was in the city Monday afternoon.

Born, October 12, 1910, to Daniel Smith and wife, of near Farmington, a son.

W. R. Cooke and Edna Corl were married at Forest Grove, Oct. 12, 1910, Rev. Hiram Gould officiating.

J. H. Dorland, of beyond Glencoe, was in town Tuesday, and was the first to report seeing the United engine on the Connell place.

Bert Doane and Katherine Jackson, of Forest Grove, were married at the college city, October 12, 1910, Rev. Gould officiating.

J. A. Zimmerman, of Roseland Farm, below Witch Hazel, was in the city Monday. Farmers down his way are busy with plowing and seeding.

The steam swing has folded its canvas and shipped away. It ran two or three nights last week to small money and concluded to pull stakes.

Wallace M. Smith and Anna M. Inkley, of near Greenville, were united in marriage at the home of S. C. Inkley, October 14, 1910, Rev. Coleman officiating.

Andrew Jack and C. Blaser, and their two companions from the East, returned the first of the week from a trip over to Garibaldi. They report a good time.

J. C. Lamkin went up to Bald Peak, Chehalem Mountain, Tuesday afternoon, to put up gutters on the Wilhelm Otto residence. This is one of the highest points in the southern part of the county.

The China season opened last Saturday, and hunters from everywhere were hunting everywhere. The birds seem plentiful enough until the sportsmen get afield, when they suddenly become very scarce. Very few have been fortunate enough to kill the limit in a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zilly, who have made Hillsboro their temporary home for some months, have moved to Portland. Mr. Zilly is now in charge of the order department at the Irwin-Hodson establishment, on Glisan, and he has quit the road. His promotion is a deserved one.

J. J. Krebs and wife, J. S. Loring and wife, and Peter Loring attended the Helvetia-Mountaineer Swiss Ass'n. jubilee at Helvetia, last Saturday evening, at the new hall. Jos. says that they had a fine supper and that the cooks up that way can't be beaten anywhere in the world.

The vanguard of wild geese going South arrived last week, but the weather has been delightfully warm and the exodus has checked considerably the last few days. The feeding grounds up the Columbia have as yet reported no very great numbers, and as soon as they come in, in any multitude, the Hillsboro hunters will be there.

"MODEL LICENSE LAW"

is advocated by the oily-tongued paid orators of the Greater Oregon Home Rule Association. They would regulate and control the saloons. They would do away with low dives, the most repulsive feature of the whole iniquitous institution, the "shipping room" from which is launched the finished product of the traffic factory. But they would retain the so-called respectable saloon and grill which by its appearance of respectability becomes so enticing and alluring, and constitutes the "receiving dept." of this great factory. And remember, we, your boys and girls, are the raw material it grinds up. How many have you contributed already? By voting for the Home Rule Bill you authorize the increase in capacity and efficiency of this mill. And, last, but not least, they would have you, Mr. Farmer and County Taxpayer, take care of the finished product of the saloon and have nothing to say about the producing of the article.

"Taxation without representation."
