A Sermon From Nature

Next Sunday morning, October 30, at the First Congregational Church, Evan P. Hughes will speak on "The Falling Leaf." Mr. Hughes spends the greater part of each week among his trees, in intimate communion with nature, listening to her voice; on Sunday he would like to bring to his audience the message he has received. Not musty theological books, not the close air telling of the burning of mid-night oil, but the free, open, clean atmosphere of God's out-of-doors is the environment in which was conceived the address. For that reason a special invitation to attend is cordially extended to the men and women not in the habit of going to church. Good, inspiring music will add to the attractiveness of the service.

UNITED FLAT CAR IN TERRIBLE WRECK

Car was Left on Track and Started of Own Momentum

FIVE REPORTED KILLED OUTRIGHT

Over Twenty are Seriously Injured—Last Night

Last evening, just at the close of day, a flat car, laden with Greek workmen and a woman cook and her two children, shot down the grade near the Rock Creek bridge this side of the tunnel on the United, near Helvetia, and five were killed and some score wounded.

The laborers were placed on the car preparatory to moving camp. The engine left the flat-car on the track, with brakes set, while they switched out a boxcar that was between the flat and the engine.

They had barely left the flat when it began to move. It ran several hundred yards. Three jumped to death, and the crash came near the bottom of the grade.

The dead and wounded were taken to Portland to the hospital. It is thought that several more are so badly injured that they will die.

Dr. Linklater went out to attend to the unfortunate woman.

YOUNG MAN LANDS IN COUNTY JAIL

Stole Heim & Purdin Horse and Hagey Team at Sherwood

GETS BOND IN YAMHILL; RE-ARRESTED

Brought to Hillsboro Yesterday by Sheriff Hancock

A young man passing under the name of R. F. Wade, and who a few weeks ago stole a horse from the Heim & Purdin barn and sold the animal in Vancouver, and who subsequently stole a team from E. G. Hagey, of Sherwood, selling the team in East Portland, was arrested in Portland the last of the week, after selling a livery team which he hired from the Newberg livery.

The man buying the team, which Wade sold for $75, was suspicious, and dated his check a day ahead. Upon inquiry later it was found that the Newberg liveryman was looking for the outfit. Wade was arrested and taken to McMinnville, where he was given a light bond of $200. Sheriff Hancock knew from Wade's description that he was the party wanted for the larceny of the Heim & Purdin horse and the Hagey team. When taken into custody at McMinnville, after being released on bond, he admitted to Hancock that he was the party who disposed of both of the Washington County livery outfits.

Wade, whose real name is Joe Laurenz, and who formerly lived in the Farmington section, is a young man in the twenties, and has had the advantage of careful raising.

Briefs have been filed in probate court setting forth the claims of several alleged heirs to the estate of Patrick McNulty, who died intestate, near Sandpit, several years ago, and left a valuable piece of land, comprising over 100 acres. Judge Campbell today heard the Beaverton school case where in suit was brought to review the action of the board of directors, and to enjoin them from building their new school house, on the grounds that the notices of election were not properly given. Bagley & Hare were for the objectors and S. B. Huston and Oglesby Young were for the school board. Divorces granted: Albeschies vs Albeschies; Jeffs vs Jeffs; Smith vs Smith; Musik vs Musik; Wamboldt vs Wamboldt; Fisher vs Fisher, divorce granted wife and property settled out of court. John and Ellen Wood were allowed to register title to land near Greenview.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the Grand Marca, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

James Churchill, of Gales Creek, doesn't go out to get venison or wild game, for the denizens of the forest come to his ranch. The other day a deer ran into his backyard and becoming tangled in a woven wire fence, broke its neck. James had venison without going after it. A short time back Churchill killed a wildcat that was prowling around his chicken house, and a little later killed a bear that invaded his barnyard.

Just ask Emrick & Corwin to see one of their new gopher traps. Gets them every time—and there is no chance of shooting yourself or running a spear in your hand.
