THESE RECORDS ARE FAMOUS FOR THEIR TONE AND QUALITY

As a home entertainer it has no equal. The best talent in the country is brought right to your fireside to while away the long evenings with comical recitations and songs. An impromptu dance may be gotten up at a moment's notice and here you have the best orchestra of the country to play the dance music. Or you may wish to learn a song and what better instructor can you have than one of the Peerless singers to phrase a song over and over again if need be. The possibilities of this wonderful little machine for instruction and amusement are endless.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTRUMENT

The Cabinet—Made of heavy, solid oak throughout. Corner posts are made with fluted moulding. Nickel Tone Arm—The latest triumph of scientific research, producing the largest volume and purest tone quality, eliminating the metallic scratch so common in ordinary type of machine. EVERY DAY SEES ANTI-SENTIMENT GROW

Looks Like all County Division Schemes Will Fail

STATE EXPECTED TO BEAT EVERY ONE

All Portland Against Annexation Schemes Slicing Counties

Every day sees the state sentiment against cutting up interior counties grow—grow—grow—and when the ballots are counted it is confidently expected that every county division scheme on the ballot will be decisively beaten. People are awakening to the fact that these are matters which should be determined by the county wherein the affected district shall lay. This is the sensible view to take of the entire affair, and voters are looking at things from the standpoint of reason, this campaign.

Portland papers are all against taking in a part of this county, and a part of Clackamas and prominent men are fighting against acquisition. It begins to look as though Multnomah itself will return a three-fourths majority against the measures.

Meantime all Washington County voters, who do not wish to see our territory diminished, will do well to watch the ballot and vote "no" on the division scheme.

VOTE 300 X YES

The Oregon Equal Suffrage Association, which represents nearly 40,000 affiliated adherents in the State, received by official count at the election of 1908 the affirmative votes of nearly 37,000 men. The Association claims that it never has been "defeated" as its opponents allege, because women have never been allowed to vote upon the question at all. Its Executive Committee passed at the October meeting, a unanimous vote of thanks to the less than a dozen wealthy and non-producing women "antis" and their toadying satellites who pose as "the best people" for having published at their own expense in the Voters Pamphlet, the Constitution as it stands at present, side by side with the Suffrage Amendment which speaks for itself. These "antis" are fighting the Amendment because it opens the way wide enough to admit all women to the ballot box, and provides a special clause, providing for their protection as taxpayers if at any time they should desire to vote. They are also worried lest the Supreme Court should declare the Amendment unconstitutional when adopted.

The Amendment provides for the elimination of the word "white" from the State Constitution, and will, when adopted, make it conform to the Constitution of the United States.

The Equal Suffrage Association is taking no part in any of the political strife that rages among different organizations of men. Its adherents offer, as their most urgent demand for its adoption, the self evident fact that the disfranchised labor of wage-earning women comes into ruinous competition with the wages of both men and women, and they respectfully urge every honorable man to remove this obstacle to prosperity and happiness by marking his ballot 300 X Yes.

Thirza Baker, through attorney J. M. Wall, asks for divorce from John Baker. They married in the Dakotas in 1900, and when they came West, she says she brought $2,500 of her own money with her, which they subsequently put in 5 acres in Alderbrook Farm. She wants this property placed in her own name, and asks for the personal property.

Martha Meier sues Henry Meier for divorce, Bagley & Hare acting as her counsel. She alleges they were married in Wyoming in 1887, and that they have been in this county for 16 years. They own over 24 acres in Section One Township Two South Range 1 West, and she asks for one-third of the real estate, which is valued at $6,000; $100 to prosecute the suit, and $30 for support during progress of the cause. She alleges she has but $30 to support herself, and that she earned picking hops. She also asks the custody of 3 minor children.

1. The submission by congress to the several states, of an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation, or transportation of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.
 2. The immediate prohibition of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes in the District of Columbia, in the territories and all places over which the national government has jurisdiction; the repeal of the internal revenue tax on alcoholic liquors and the prohibition of interstate traffic therein.
 3. The election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.
 4. Equitable graduated income and inheritance tax.
 5. The establishment of postal savings banks and the guaranty of deposits in banks.
 6. The regulation of all corporations doing an interstate commerce business.
 7. The creation of a permanent tariff commission.
 8. The strict enforcement of law instead of official tolerance and practical license of the social evil which prevails in many of our cities, with its unpeppable traffic in girls.
 9. Uniform marriage and divorce laws.
 10. An equitable and constitutional employers' liability act.
 11. Court review of postoffice department decisions.
 12. The prohibition of child labor in mines, workshops and factories.
 13. Legislation basing suffrage only upon intelligence and ability to read and write the English language.
 14. The preservation of the mineral and forest resources of the country, and the improvement of the highways and waterways.
- Believing in the righteousness of our cause and the final triumph of our principles, and convinced of the unwillingness of the republican and democratic parties to deal with these issues, we invite to full party fellowship all citizens who are with us agreed.
