

NATIVE SON MAKES APPEAL ON MEASURES

Is in Favor of Bonding for County Roads

ALSO HAS FEW WORDS ON DIVISION

Touches on Other Measures Coming up for Consideration

Editor Argus: Will you please allow me space in your most valuable paper to come before (the taxpayers and voters of) Washington County on some measures that will be voted on at the coming election, Nov. 8, and show some reasons that are of vital importance to the taxpayers of this county and also all other counties of the State of Oregon?

First on the list of importance is the Bond issue for the purpose of building and maintaining good roads, which in my mind is very simple and easily solved. Why should we support this measure? We, at an election called by Districts some time previous to this, voted a five mill tax for rock road in a number of precincts in this county. Some of the different sections have been completed and some are in course of construction. Whether or not the road is properly built, is not for me to settle, but in either case, if the road is properly built, we may continue on the same lines; if not, time will tell and the proper construction will follow. But to pay for it is the vital question with us; to pay by tax at once is almost impossible. No one would vote a tax so large. But by bonding and getting the roads now, we could pay the interest without feeling it much, and get the use of the roads to help pay the tax. Vote yes for bonds.

Next of importance is against county division by the State at large. The right of the State at large to vote on county divisions in a sense is unconstitutional, as it is, is taxation without representation. The counties interested should have the sole right to vote on annexation as division. Another important measure from an educational standpoint is the County High School. You can do no better than give your children a good education, or at least provide a means whereby they might attain it.

Another measure of much importance to the people of Oregon is the State wide prohibition. This is a question of national importance and should be settled for the best interests of all concerned. It might be better for the people of Oregon to be total abstainers, but passing a law to that effect does not make them so. It has been tried for ages; to reach a man's heart you have to do so through a different channel than the law. The constitution of the first thirteen States says that the majority should rule, and they have ruled, and will continue to do so with the Law, as without it. At one time there was a tax placed on tea, that the people then of the colonies, by a majority of the district interested, though unjust, and they refused to pay the tax. That caused the Revolution and later on the Independent thirteen United States. I do not undertake to say that by passing the State wide Prohibition Law will cause a war, but it will keep up a continuous strife by factions. Each faction, regardless of the majority in districts, will be striving to force this minority opinion upon the will of the majority as long as the manufactory and sale is upheld by the general government.

I undertake to say that every person in his own mind intends to be just and fair with his fellow man. Some of you have been called on to decide the fate of a human being. You decided on the matters of justice. Then this question of prohibition comes down to what is called Home Rule. Each city as a District has the right by this majority vote, to decide the question for themselves; it is the same rule you would mete out were you in the jury box. Why not, then, mete out by the ballot box one and all measures that will come before you on November 8th in like justice.

Yours truly, James H. Sewell.

F. T. Kane was down from the Grove yesterday. John Wilhelmson, of Forest Grove, was in the city Tuesday afternoon. C. Algesheimer, of near Scholls, was up to the city yesterday morning. C. Viohl and wife, of near Jobe's, were in town the first of the week. Two fine fresh cows for sale—one a Holstein.—Mrs. Louisa Zueger, Newton, Ore. 34-6. G. A. Plieth, of Tigard, and J. E. Dickason, of Mountaineale, were in the city yesterday.

C. E. Runyon, who has been court reporter in Washington county, and the Fifth Judicial district, for many years, for the first time in all his years here, learned this Fall what Washington County can do in the matter of raising apples. C. E. is now in the market for a big acreage of hill orchard lands, that can easily be cleaned up and put out to trees.

Sam Sorenson, of near Witch Hazel, recently bought a horse for $125 from a chap who gave his name as A. L. Anderson. Yesterday a Mr. Jones, of Marion County, came down and identified the animal as belonging to him.

Voters, attention—A. C. Alexander, of Forest Grove, was named for county clerk, but his name is not on the ballot. You will get clean, efficient service if you write in his name thus—"X A. C. Alexander."—J. F. Kerr, Sec'y Prohl. Committee

John Nyberg, candidate for commissioner on the Republican ticket, was in the city yesterday, and tells the Argus that he received a telegram announcing the death of his sister in Portland. Mr. Nyberg stated that he would attend the funeral obsequies.

Agent Vickers has sold tickets back to Waucoma, Ia., to Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Johnson, who have been Hood River residents for some time, and who recently came to Hillsboro for medical attendance.

R. A. Withycomb, recently of Portland, and who was manager of the Portland High School paper, was in town yesterday, and is now located on the farm near Farmington.

Born, October 28, 1910, to Elmer Lyda and wife, of Gales Creek, a son. The young man is hale and hearty and will probably be a sawmill man when he grows up.

H. C. Carstens, of Roy, was in the city yesterday afternoon, and dined on the Argus. Mr. Carstens was on his return from a Portland trip.

A. C. Alexander, a former newspaper man of Forest Grove, and who was connected with Mr. Volk, of the News, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

J. B. Walker, of below Beaverton, and who is opposed to cutting off a part of Washington county, was in the city yesterday morning.

EIGHTH GRADE PARTY

The young ladies of the Eighth Grade of the Hillsboro Schools Saturday evening entertained the boys of the same classes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Duncan, in North Hillsboro. The evening was enjoyable with games and conversation. Light refreshments were served. About thirty were present: LaVerne Tipton, Sophia Newman, Elsie Brown, Frances O'Connor, Zola Welch, Nellie Jackson, Eva Kuhn, Violet Pitman, Winifred Pitman, Beth Crandall, Margaret Hancock, and Mabel Piedrichs. Chas. Deichman, Chas. Hancock, Clifford Long, Lynn Ballard, Gansel Morgan, Roy Poole, Frank Rollins, Arthur Pore, Clifton Dodge, Roy Scheidel, Ray Sigler, Raymond Dodge, Milton Harvey, Gerald Bath, Alfred Harrington. Mrs. Josephine Case, the teacher, and Mrs. Duncan acted as hostesses. One of the features of the party was the initiation of the boys into the C. O. G. Club.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Argus: I write you asking space for a few words in favor of D. B. Burkhalter, candidate for county commissioner. Mr. Burkhalter has all the qualifications for a good commissioner. He is a man of affairs, is a practical, self-reliant citizen, and is worthy the vote of any citizen. Although a Republican, I expect to vote for him and can assure all that he is in the highest sense a man worthy of trust. A Reader.

CORONER'S JURY

Coroner E. C. Brown went to Helvetia Saturday, swore a jury, which viewed the ground of the United Railway accident, which resulted in five deaths, last Wednesday evening, and then the coroner's six went to Portland to view the bodies of the dead. Statements of identification of the five dead Greeks were obtained, and the next day the jury held a session at Beaverton, and evidence was taken. It appeared from the evidence taken before the inquest that there was some very careless work effected at the scene of death. Testimony from the railway men showed that if there was anything wrong with the car before it took its fatal plunge, they did not know it. After hearing all the evidence the jury found that the accident and consequent fatalities was the result of negligence on the part of some of the employees. The jury: W. D. Smith, Thos. Emrick, Joseph Downs, Hillsboro; Fred Walton, John Walters and S. M. Tunstall, Phillips.

FATALITY AT THE GROVE CONDENSER

Head of Young Man Nearly Severed From Body

WAS RIDING ON AN ELEVATOR

Gilbert Shaver, Aged 16 Years, Loses Life in Peculiar Manner

Gilbert Shaver, aged sixteen years, and a laborer at the Forest Grove condenser, had his head nearly severed while riding in an elevator, Tuesday afternoon. He was prostrate on the elevator floor, and was looking down over the edge. In raising, his neck was caught between the floor above and the raising floor of the lift. Death was almost instantaneous. The boy was to blame for the accident, if the reports are true concerning the sad accident.

HENRY GARRETT

Henry Garrett, the aged father of J. H. Garrett, of the C. C. Store, died at the Garrett home, October 29, 1910. He was born in Coles County, Ill., September 4, 1830. At an early age, he moved to Marshall County, the same state, where he was married, in 1851, to Hannah Welch, who survives, and who resides in this city. About 23 years ago, he and his wife moved to Oregon. The funeral took place from the family residence, Sunday, and interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

The following children survive him: Levi W. and Mrs. Sarah Rockwell, Pendleton; Mrs. Ella Walker, Warrenton, Ore.; J. H. Garrett, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Myrtle Carnes, of Pilot Rock, Or.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that all Hillsboro city warrants of whatsoever fund are hereby called for payment at my office in the Commercial Bank, principal and interest, and that interest will cease after November 3, 1910. F. J. Sewell, City Treasurer.

THE CAMPAIGN

This week closes the campaign. The usual "yarns" may now be expected, but voters generally pay little attention to the "flyers" sent out at the last minute. Each ticket is making hearty claims, and West admirers allege that he will run very strong in the county on his railroad record. Bowerman people claim the usual big majority. The county judge contest still holds the center of the stage. Mr. Sewell says he is satisfied with the outlook and says he will unquestionably be elected. Judge Goodin and the republican committee maintain that every man on the ticket is safe. Judging from reports from voters from all sections of the county Sewell is making a much stronger run than was at first expected.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS

Hon. C. W. Fulton will speak at the court house, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. Bowerman and Hawley are billed to speak here next Monday, at 1 o'clock p. m. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Abbott returned Monday from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Whitcomb, of Portland. New Holland Milchner herring, $1.10 per keg, at Greer's.

JUDGE LOUIS A. ROOD DIED TUESDAY MORN

Prominent Pioneer, and Man Universally Beloved, Passes

DIED FROM ATTACK OF BRIGHT'S

Was ill but a Week, and Change for Worse was Unexpected

Hon. Louis A. Rood, one of Oregon's noted pioneers, died at his home on First Street in this city, Tuesday morning, Nov. 1, 1910, at eight o'clock, after an illness of but a few days, dissolution being due to Bright's disease. Mr. Rood was born in Norway, January 31, 1837, and at the age of 13 years emigrated to America with his father, his mother having passed away in Scandinavia. The father and the four boys, all very young settled in LaFayette County, Wisconsin, the year of their immigration. Four years later Louis Rood left for California, where he worked in the gold mines. A few years later he came to Oregon and went up into the Idaho district, where he prospected for several years. In 1869, he came to Washington County with the means he had saved from his mining experiences, and bought a tract of land southeast of this city. He was married to Evelyn Stewart, a daughter of the late Thos. Stewart, pioneer of 1845, on March 12, 1871. The widow and the following children survive:

Money to loan on real estate security. We sell farms. Try us. The Webfoot Realty Co. Hillsboro 121f

Catherine Richards, of Portland, wants a divorce from Z. P. Richards, and alleges cruel and inhuman treatment.

J. W. Vandervelden, of Roy, was in Tuesday, and stated that the United have finished their steam-shovel work on that line. Pure White Leghorn cockerels this year's brood for sale.—Mrs. F. Bockmann, Wheeler Station, Beaverton, Oregon, Route 2. 34-6

Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was in town Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ritter says that the boys in his section have been very busy the past few weeks.

Horse for sale—bay, 3 years old; 1400; broke, and sound and true.—Martin Vandehey, at county farm, Newton, one mile Southeast of Hillsboro. 33-5

Wm. E. Tate and Mrs. Ada Hurt were married at the county court parlors in Hillsboro, October 29, 1910, County Judge J. W. Goodin officiating.

John Milne, of North Plains, returned Tuesday morning from a trip to Portland. John remembered the Rest Room Fund with a piece-of-eight. The Ladies of the Methodist church will serve a chicken supper on Friday evening, Nov. 11, in the church parlor. Supper from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. 34-5

Mrs. Jabez Wilkes has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Muscatine, Iowa, and also a trip to Okla. Of course she likes Oregon best of all.

Dwight Pomeroy and wife returned this morning from a two weeks' visit with their daughter up in the Bake Oven, Eastern Oregon country. Dwight says that there's nothing like being "grandpa."

Circuit court—Judge Campbell denied writ of review in the case of the Beaverton School District and the injunction has been dissolved.—Shearer vs. Hoffman, decree for plaintiff, and plaintiff is to pay all claims against property involved.—Richards vs. Richards, decree of divorce.

Robt. From, who has been under Agent Vickers at the S. P. Station, Hillsboro, for many months, has been appointed agent and Western Union operator at Sutherland, Oregon—near Roseburg. D. E. Blackburn succeeds him at this place. "Bob" has many friends here who wish him success.

Monday, Gus Berger, a 16-year old boy and his sister, who reside northeast of Cedar Mill, chased a large black bear with a trap on his foot, several miles. When they had followed Bruin to about 200 yards of the Wm. Layfield place the boy shot the bear. They then went to the house and finding no one but Mrs. Layfield at home, asked her to help pull his bearship to where they could get him loaded on a wagon. Mrs. Layfield helped them get the carcass to the main road, and Gus sent home for a team and wagon. He was taken to the Berger ranch, and dressed. The bear weighed 300 pounds and was the largest ever seen in that section. Young Berger feels very proud over his prowess as a bear slayer, and the little girl, who accompanied him, is now trying her hand at cooking bear steaks.

Farmers in the vicinity of Beaverton, Reedville and Wheeler are notified that the Wheeler warehouse is now open and ready to receive hay, grain and potatoes. Will also buy and sell hay, grain, mill feed, sand, gravel and cement. Give me a call.—D. R. Wheeler, Wheeler, on Southern Pacific. 5

About 120 delegates from the Boys' Clubs of the state, and a number of leaders and speakers, will be in Hillsboro at the Fourth Annual convention, which convenes on November 25 and holds until the 27th, inclusive. An extensive program has been arranged, and the convention committees are busy with plans for the big meeting and expect to canvass for entertainment at an early date. They request the aid of the people of Hillsboro in this work and will appreciate all help tendered. The committee wishes Hillsboro to make the boys feel at home when they arrive, and asks that all work to make the convention a success.

I represent the Spirella corset. Make selections in your home, where accurate measurements can be taken, and you get a corset to meet the requirements of your figure. Send postal card, or phone call for appointment.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Oregon, Fifth and Jackson Sts. Ind. phone. 584. 26-37

"Paved streets are what you want, and then you will have a dandy little town," said a traveler, Monday. "Your business buildings are a credit to the community, but your plank streets remind me of the olden days that are gone." It looks as though Hillsboro can afford to have decent streets—the principal thoroughfares, at least.

Just ask Emrick & Corwin to see one of their new gopher traps. Gets them every time—and there is no chance of shooting yourself or running a spear in your hand.

Mrs. T. W. Wyatt entertained a number of ladies last Friday afternoon at her new home on Main Street, the guest of honor being her sister, Mrs. McCarter, of Vancouver, B. C. Light refreshments were served after an afternoon of conversation and cards.

I have a 3-1-4x1-4 kodak in perfect condition with both film and plate attachments; a complete developing and printing outfit; a portrait lens; and other supplies. Can be had for $15, if taken at once.—Box 293, Hillsboro.

Lilly & Company, in business at Gales City, have sued the Sweeney Construction Co., for something over $1,000 for supplies furnished. They asked for interest on the sum since October, 1909. Hon. W. N. Barrett is counsel for the Lilly Company.

Four men wanted to grub. Will furnish team, stump puller, cable, power, etc., to right party.—D. H. Willers, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 4. Three miles southwest of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Tucker, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Brown, departed for Ashland, Thursday, to join her husband, who has engaged in business in that thriving Southern Oregon city.

For rent: 160 acres with 40 acres in cultivation; 120 acres fine pasture lands with running water; fair buildings; 6 miles southwest of Hillsboro.—Kuratti Bros. 33-5

Alonzo Squires and Miss Pearl Lingenfelter were united in marriage at Cornelius, October 27, 1910, at the home of George Lingenfelter, Rev. R. D. Benham officiating. C. R. Boyd, the machinist, is prepared to do all kinds of machine work and repairing. Can repair anything from a penny whistle to an aeroplane. 32-4 E. Piatt and wife, of Scio, Linn Co., and Geo. Rigwin and wife, of North Yamhill, were this week's guests at the home of William Wolf and wife, of North Hillsboro. Dan Rogers and Edith Kinton were married at Cornelius, Oct. 30, 1910, at the home of George Kinton, Rev. Chas. Hoffenden officiating. Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.
