Acting Governor J. Bowerman and Congressman Hawley were in town last Saturday, and spoke to a fair sized crowd in the court house in the afternoon. Mr. Bowerman confined all of his speech to an attack on Jack Bourne and made a very good impression on those who heard him. Bowerman is known by many in this county and it was thought that he would run stronger here than he did. They went from here to Cornelius, and then to Forest Grove. They did not have the crowd that Senator Chamberlain received, however, although the republican managers could not complain of the size or enthusiasm of the audience.

"Well," said William Schulerich, the other day, "I've always made the run in Washington County against very heavy odds, and I've always run ahead of my party vote. It isn't that I care a cent for the office, as I know I'd be better off without it—but when a man has a political belief, and can afford to make a race, it is his bounden duty to get in the swim, and make a try to help out the people who agree with him on policies." And Schulerich has always made a good run. When he ran for Dairy Commissioner a few years ago he carried the county by a substantial majority.

Rusell fans in Washington County are naturally pleased to know that Portland has won the Pacific Coast pennant, beating Oakland out by twelve points. Aside from this official score of percentage Portland last three games declared to Oakland, and to which Portland was entitled, owing to the playing of Helling in the Beaver team. But to win is the thing.

Donald Kennedy, a timberman, has bought the timber on the P. R. & N. right of way which belongs to the Sweeney construction people. The buyer will have a year to remove the logs, and has paid five thousand dollars down, which is forfeited in case the purchase is not taken off the right of way by Dec. 1, 1911.

Election officers certainly earned their money Tuesday. In many places it was "away next morning" when the count was completed. As a matter of fact, Oregon should either have counting machines or two sets of election officials—one set to see the deposit of the ballots and another to make the count.

Farmers, take notice: For the present and up to December 1, 1910, we will give five per cent. off on our regular retail prices on American field fence and wire. This is the time of year to build fence, and we are making this special to favor our customers.—Connell & Co., Hillsboro. 35-8

A. L. Holcomb, of Bethany, says that farmers could not have had a better Fall this season if they had made an especial order for the weather. "More Fall grain sown this Fall since any year within my memory," says Mr. Holcomb.

Workmen have the front wall, constructed of concrete blocks, erected in front of the U. G. Gardner property, on Third Street, and in a few days the main building will be enclosed. Mr. Gardner will move his old shop to the rear in the Spring.

J. J. Smith, of near Glencoe formerly, and who recently moved to Lebanon, where he bought a ranch, was down this week. He says he likes the upper country first rate—but there is no place like old Washington County.

R. B. Goodin, of Salem, and who is chief accountant at the Oregon State Hospital, was down to Hillsboro, Tuesday, to vote. Mr. Goodin has always held his residence in his home town, where he owns property.

A very pleasant surprise party was given the Misses Bertha and Verna Rehse at their home, Saturday evening, by a number of their friends and relatives. The evening was spent in music and games.

Geo. Darity and Frank Holcomb have returned from their hunting trip down to Myrtle Creek, Southern Oregon, and report a fine time. They visited with Frank Johnson while in the South.

Fifty men who have been working on the United, near Roy, quit work on account of the storm, the first of the week, and came down Monday evening, enroute to Portland.

Mrs. H. L. Christenson, of Newberg, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Duncan, brought over some ripe raspberries from her garden. Pretty good for November.

Mrs. Thomas Humphreys, of Heppner, and who has been in Hillsboro in attendance at the funeral of her father, Judge Rood, returns home the last of the week.

Arthur Bacon, of Arieta, writes that out in this county, the other day, he picked a pint of ripe raspberries in his sister's garden. This is horticulture with a vengeance.
