Ray Rhodes, who conducted the confectionery on Second Street, opposite the postoffice, departed from Hillsboro between the light of two days, making his get-away on the night of the 27th. Connell & Co. swore out a warrant of arrest under the absconding debtor statute, but the candy kid was gone before service could catch him. He has one child with the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, at Portland. He owed Connell & Co. over $100, and they attached his furniture and fixtures, which will more than likely leave them whole on the deal.

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long—so get in your order soon.

A few thousand dollars in permanent road work will soon give both Hillsboro precincts rock roads clear to outside precinct lines. The taxation that will make but very little difference with the average taxpayer. They can see results, and those who are today traveling over the rock roads leading out from this city would not undo the work for any consideration. A levy each year for two or three years and we shall then have our main roads in the two road districts ready for any old kind of travel. Keep voting for permanent roads.
