

PYTHIANS OBSERVE 20TH ANNIVERSARY

Large Number Meet and Fraternize at Pythian Hall

OLD TIMES INTERESTINGLY REVIEWED

R. H. Greer was First Commander and Geo. Schulerich First Vice

Phoenix Lodge No. 34, of Hillsboro, celebrated its 20th anniversary at the Pythian building, Monday night, and there was a large crowd in attendance.

After the speech making, the boys enjoyed a luncheon. The lodge will make this anniversary celebration an event every few years.

WAYNE HOLCOMB

W. W. Holcomb, well known in Northeast Washington County, died at his home at No. 202 New York Street, St. Johns, Oregon, Sunday, Nov. 13, 1910.

Rev. Valandigham, of the Christian Church, will deliver a sermon next Sunday evening, and the subject of his discourse will touch upon the order of Knights of Pythias.

Place your Thanksgiving orders now for brick ice cream. Can be had with an ice center, or anyway it pleases you.

Winfield Elric Foster, aged 30 years, and a subject of the King of Great Britain, has asked the circuit court to grant him citizen papers.

Leedy Grange, No. 339, will give an entertainment and basket social at the Modern Woodmen Hall at Cedar Mill, Saturday evening, November 26, 1910.

The Donald Lumber Co., of near Buxton, had a small fire at their sawmill, one day last week, and the damage was settled for $50.

Pure White Leghorn cockerels this year's brood for sale.

J. E. Reeves, of Cornelius, was down Monday. J. E. raised about fifty tons of cucumbers.

Allen Tamnack, of beyond Glencoe, started this week for a visit with his mother, at Greenock, Scotland.

County court: Road, petition T. S. McDaniel, ordered established; franchise granted Independent Electric Co.

Lost: Spitz dog, small. Reward. Return to Lee Sears, Garage, Third Street, Hillsboro, Oregon.
