Cyrus Taylor, aged about 17 years, was caught at Elsie, Clatsop County, last week, and landed in the Astoria jail until Sunday, when Sheriff Hancock returned him to Hillsboro and lodged him in the bastile. Young Taylor was living with the Kennedy family, near Beaverton, and it is said that when he left his home he absconded with $35 or $40 in money. Taylor was sent to the Kennedy home from the Boys & Girls Aid Society. When captured, he was visiting relatives, and had a new rifle, a new revolver, and a new watch and chain. He had but 26 cents in money. As he is over the age of Reform School commitmeet he will have to go to the penitentiary, if the theft is
