

SEVENTY DAYS FOR BEATING BOARD BILL

J. Wesley Smith, Youngster, Gets Severe Sentence Last Friday

UNCOED ORENCO BOARDING HOUSE

Was Caught at Salem and Brought Back to Face Charge

J. Wesley Smith, who from his middle name evidently had devoted parents, was the recipient of a seventy day sentence in the county jail, last Friday—60 days imprisonment and $20 fine, which means an additional ten days, because he jumped a board bill at Orenco. Young Smith worked for the Nursery Company and when he drew his pay, skipped out and left his boarding master in the lurch for about $7.50. He went to Salem, where he was supposed to have friends, and the sheriff of Marion County picked him up, and Sheriff Hancock brought the lad down Thursday, and took him before Barnes, Friday. Smith is but 20 years of age, and said that he "needed the money." The excuse did not set well with Judge Barnes, and so Wesley is now a patron of the hotel de Hancock, leading west from the sheriff's office.

Young Cyrus Taylor, aged 16, and who has a varied career as a disciple of the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, was up on a charge of having stolen several dollars from Mrs. A. M. Kennedy, wife of a Beaverton mail carrier. The boy was stopping at the Kennedy home and it is alleged that he took the money before leaving for Elsie, Clatsop County, where he visited a sister, and where he was apprehended.

His bail was fixed at $100 and in default he went to the Bastille, and the grand jury will look into his case on next Monday or Tuesday. He denies the theft and says that he earned about $20 a year ago, and had the coin "laid by." His story is rather weak, and the district attorney's office takes no stock in his assertions.

ANNUAL GIFT

The Hillsboro public school last week sent their annual offering to the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society and Baby Home, of Portland, and the shipment reached them in plenty of time for Thanksgiving. Each year a shipment is made to the unfortunate waifs of the social vortex which brings into existence little ones for whom society must care. Pupils brought in small quantities, but the offerings were numerous, and as a result the following shipment was sent:

Six boxes apples, 2 sacks potatoes, 1 sack onions, 200 quarts canned fruit and vegetables, 2 crates squash, 2 boxes of clothing, cash in the sum of $2.85.

This has also been gift week at the St. Mary's Home, and the Beaverton institution has been the recipient of countless supplies.

Greer keeps a complete and up-to-date line of stand and hanging lamps.

August Wedeking, of Scholls, and who has been working over at the Oak Park section for some time, was in the city Monday.

We are now better than ever prepared to supply our customers. We have a good supply of flooring, rustic, shiplap and finishing lumber and can furnish good house bills on short notice. We also have a good stock of all kinds of common lumber. We have in stock all sizes of tile from 3 to 16 inch that are first quality; also brick and building blocks. Try our building blocks for your fruit or potato house, or foundation for your buildings—better and cheaper than brick or concrete. Parties wanting orders delivered will do well to place them early, while the roads are good, and our teams are not too busy. In the past we find that it is the falling of many people to wait till the roads are almost impassable, and then place their orders for delivery, at a cost of $2000 what it can be done for now. So don't forget, this year, while our stock is complete. Groener & Rowell Company.

James Langworthy, nearly 84 years of age, died at the home of his daughter in Portland, last week, and his remains were brought to Hillsboro, Sunday, for interment in the family plot in the Masonic cemetery. Langworthy was a brother-in-law of the late Noah Jobe, having married a sister of Mrs. Jobe. He bought a piece of land west of the Dairy Creek bridge, in the fifties, and his place was that now owned by Honzaik and Jas. Young. He has been blind for several years. Langworthy was injured in a street car accident in Portland in 1900. He came to Oregon in 1847, and was married in 1851. Since coming to the coast he had lived in Oregon with the exception of three years, spent in the mines of Idaho and California.

State Game Warden Bob Stevenson, of Forest Grove, was in town Saturday. Stevenson has made one of the best officers the state has ever had, and he is in line for reappointment. The Argus hopes that Gov. West will give him another four years of the billet, as he has faithfully handled the office, whether or not the defendant was friend or enemy.

Rev. Vallandigham, of the Christian Church, delivered an address from the pulpit, Sunday evening, touching upon the Pythian fraternity, and its relation to society. His discourse was one of the finest ever heard on the subject in the city, and was enjoyed by a number of Pythians and also a number of the Pythian Sisters.

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long, so get in your order soon.

PENNE-NELSON

Peder S. Penne and Ida E. Nelson, both of this side of Farmington, were united in marriage in this city, Nov. 19, 1910. Judge J. W. Goodin officiating.

The United Railways gives notice that it will start a daily train service from Portland to near Banks, in a few weeks, and a freight train, as well as a passenger coach will be put on the route. Steam power will be used for a time until the tunnel through Cornelius gap mountain is completed. This will probably be some time next Spring, as there is a great deal of work to do on the under-mountain viaduct. North Plains, the new city this side of Glencoe, will at once feel the impetus of business and start to move. The promoters of the new city are doing a great deal of work over that way. An amusing feature of last Sunday's Oregonian was an article telling how the Tualatin Valley is to hear its first locomotive when the "keers" get into North Plains. As a matter of fact the West Side O. & C. built out here but a few years after the East Side line was started, and Washington County people heard the "whistle" of the locomotive just about as quick as Portland people.

Sunday afternoon and night witnessed one of the big gales and rainfalls of the November season, and the wind registered a velocity of 40 miles in this section, while at sea 70 miles was about the limit. Much damage was done to shipping in the way of delays. Locally the rainfall was heavy, and the streams are up. Jackson Lake is now ready for aquatic regattas.

Choice rose plants, shrubbery of all kinds, lily bulbs, etc., for sale at the South Hillsboro Greenhouse. Now is the time to do the fall planting, so get your order in early. Mrs. Agnes Campbell, Independent telephone West 154. 30tf

John Schmidt and Mr. McRill, of Laurel, were over to the city Saturday afternoon.

The Banks Herald issued its initial number last week and appears to cover the field nicely.

You will find a supply of Mazda, Tantalum and Peerless lights at the King Light Co., Main St.

If there is anything in the book line which you have failed to find elsewhere, look through Hoyt's book department.

Dr. Francis J. Bailey and wife were over from Washougal, Sunday, called hither by the death of the late Lou Manning.

The best time to sit for a photo, on a winter's day, is between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m., and Johnson's Studio is the best place.

Fred Hamel, of West Union, and who owns a ranch near Elmonica, was in the city Saturday, and called at the Argus office.

For feed and groceries, see us. We collect rent. Others pay rent. A trial will convince you.—Walch & Company, First Street, near S. P.

John Goodsmidt, of near Phillips, was in Saturday. He will be in the city next Wednesday to get his citizen papers from Judge Campbell.

John Stribich, of Forest Grove, and who has been one of the A1 mechanics of the college city for years, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday evening.

Now on sale—a large stock of children's school shoes; sizes from 8's to 2's; prices ranging from $1.00 to $1.50 per pair.—T. W. Wyatt & Company.

Judge Campbell, of this judicial district, and Court Reporter Runyon, were in town Monday, at circuit court. They will again be in Hillsboro next Monday, for the regular November term.

When the kitchen is properly equipped there is sunshine in the house. Come in and see our Champion and Charter Oak ranges. They are the best.—Emrick & Corwin.

N. Womer, one of the pioneers of the Laurel section, shipped his personal property to Oakville, Wash., the first of the week, and will reside there for some time. He has rented his Laurel ranch.

Taken up: Two cows, one red, dehorned, and has half of left ear cut off; other a Holstein, black and white, dehorned. Owner please call, pay charges and take same away.—J. F. Carstens, Banks, Ore. 36-8

District Attorney E. B. Tongue came home from Oregon City to spend Sunday, after an arduous murder trial at the Falls city, wherein he secured a conviction of murder in the second degree, entailing a life sentence.

G. W. Russell, of Gaston, and who is deputy game warden, came down Sunday, and Monday morning started for Tillamook, conveying Chas. London and two Mullers, of near Vinelands, and another party name unknown, to a Tillamook county justice, on a charge of having used explosives in fishing over the Wilson. The boys disclaim using any dynamite, or any other explosive, and say they will fight the case to the limit. All four deny the charge and it will be one against four. Russell says that he has a good case against them. The party went over via North Yamhill, and the trip must have been very rough.
