Loui Manning, who died the last of the week, was one of the really lovable characters of the old school. His word was as good as his bond, and he had the life worth living old-fashioned idea of honesty-a high regard for truth and honor, and a decided aversion for the liar. When Loui Manning passed over, there was real regret in the community.

There is some joy in Wall Street for Teddy could not carry New York. But come to think of it, he never did run very strong in New York state-except when the interests were for him as against Parker, who was for with pain, but it does get on our also close to the systems. But perves to have to pay in advance and Roosevelt will be a vital force in then be unable to get the goods de-American politics after Sunny Jim Sherman shall have been forgotten and the rotten "old guard" in New York shall have sank into oblivion.

DANIEL SCHMELTZER

Daniel Schmeltzer, aged 76 years, gied at the home of his son, Elmer Schmeltzer, Main Street, Hillsboro, Nov. 23, 1910, from an attack of heart failure. He was born in Centre Co., Pennsylvania, Jan, 14, 1833, and when a young man moved to lowa. He was married to Mary Ann Kellow, in Muscatine, Iowa, March 3, 1859, and they came to Oregon in 1882, settling near Scholls. Later they moved to Forest Grove, and then came to Hillsboro. The widow and the following children survive: Elmer E. Schmeltzer, Willis O., and Henry D., all of Hillsboro; Mrs. Adah May Metsker, Tacoma, Wash., Edwin L., of Onoway, Canada, and Mrs. Winnie Barber, of Portland, Oregon. The funeral takes place Friday, from the family esidence, at 1:30, and interment will be in the local cemetery.

Deceased leaves a sister in lowa, and a half-brother in Illinois. Mr. Schmeltzer was universally respected and made many friends during his life in Washington County.
