Certainly, elect the Mass Meeting Ticket, major to recorder!

Homer C. Atwell, of Forest Grove, was again elected president of the State Horticultural Society at Portland this week. Mr. Atwell has made a study of the subject and ranks high as an educator along orchard lines.

Just arrived—a carload of Hercules stumping powder and Dupont stomp powder. Can furnish any amount at any time, and also carry fuse and caps. M. Turner, Banks, Ore. 36-8

Mrs. Lena Parker Frissel, a former Gaston girl, and daughter of E. H. Parker, died this week.

Taken up: Gray horse, 1150; has bob-tail. Owner pay charges and take same away. Otto Essig, Beaverton, Or. 37-9

Notice to Subscribers

The Rest Room Committee desire to state that the building is at a standstill because the committee refused to accept poor building material. As soon as the weather is favorable in early Spring, building will be resumed, and meantime the members of the Club are busy raising funds for a better and larger structure than at first planned.

Farmers' Band Plays

"Twenty-two Farmers," of the Beaverton Band, gave a Hard Time Social, at Beaverton Hall, Thanksgiving night. A crowd of about 300 gathered and cheered the "Boys On." The music was fine, and in one selection the "Bassoon got there, Ell" on the bass solo. It sounded like the city park lion calling for supper.

Ice cream was served at recess. Big program and the grand march were enjoyed by all.

Messrs. Blosser, McGinnis, Berst, Mellor and Newman were judges. Miss Sophronia Davis, representing a pretty "Spanish Song Girl," and Earl Fisher, representing "Old Zip-Coo," got the prize for best costumes and fancy cake walk.

Here's success to Prof. Hohmann and the boys.
