Hillsboro now has a charter which will permit of street improvement, drainage and sewage, and this should be an epoch in the history of the town.

Not one person in a thousand—perhaps not one in five thousand—will read the president's message. And yet, every big daily must run it at great expense.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to thank those who so kindly aided us in our recent bereavement, the death and interment of our beloved husband, and father, the late Duane Harvey.

Mrs. Sarah Harvey, Mrs. Orpha Hughes, Lyman Peters, Alvia Peters, Cornelius, Route 1, Dec. 8, 1910.

Card of Thanks
The undersigned desires to thank those who so kindly assisted her and tendered sympathy during her bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late John Solgard, her husband.

Mrs. Margaret Solgard, Reedville, Ore., Dec. 8, 1910.

Henry Freitag, of near West Union, was an Argus caller today.

White Mountain Flour—$1.55 at Emmott's.

Mrs. G. J. Palmater is visiting Mrs. Levi Smith, at Forest Grove, for a few days.

Born, to Chas. Matthes and wife, of near Laurel, Dec. 4, 1910, a daughter.

Do not forget that Hoyt is giving away some splendid Christmas presents. Ask him about it.

Mrs. Alongo Sigler is reported as improving from a very severe illness.

John Boeker and wife, of North Hillsboro, were Portland visitors today.

Jack Hess, of near Sherwood, was over to the county seat the middle of the week.

Frank Weisenbeck, of Witch Hazel, was in the county seat this afternoon.

Max Berg, of below Beaverton, was in the city yesterday afternoon, and called on the Argus.

Capitalist Abrams, who has given Pacific University a substantial endowment, is in the city a guest at the J. R. Neil home.

Lost: Notes and legal papers. Left them some place in town or county. Person having them will please notify me.—Josiah Beal, Hillsboro, Ore.

Miss Alice B. Johnson, daughter of Capt. Johnson, of near Laurel, has returned home after an extended visit at Seattle and other Puget Sound cities.

For sale: Bay mare, coming 6 in Spring; broke to saddle, or to drive single or double. Sound, spirited.—Edgar Rehse, Sixth Street, between Fir and Oak.

August Boge, of near Farmington, was in town today. He is nursing a wounded finger, which received a part of the load of shot from a gopher gun, which he was trying to set on Thanksgiving day.

Forest Grove's school census, as taken by the district clerk, is 727, as against Hillsboro's 712. Last year, each district had a total of 657. It is evident, therefore, that Forest Grove's Dr. Large did some "attending" in the college city a few years ago, during the Roosevelt regime.
