Jos. Zimmermann, of below Witch Hazel, states that Winter wheat looks better at the present time than it has at the same season, for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jubole, of West Union, were in town Tuesday. Frank will wait until these are rock roads to the Oregon corner before he buys an automobile.

J. H. Davis and A. W. Peters, the latter of whom is visiting near Mountaineer, at the Harvey home, and who lives at North Powder, were in the city Tuesday.

Glaziers came out the first of the week and put in place the big windows in the Hotel Washington lower story. The way they handled glass was a revelation to the layman.

Do not forget the Coffee Club Bazaar Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 17, in building opposite post office. Everything in handsome articles for Christmas presents. Fancy home cooking for sale.

I. C. Neuligh, the Scholls nurseryman and apple man, was in town Tuesday, and called on the Argus. Mr. Neuligh is an old Hood River man, and takes a great deal of pride in apple culture.

G. A. Wehring has another cottage nearly completed on his quarter block on Baseline Street. Wm. Finney and Chas. E. Shurey have been doing the carpenter work. G. A. is talking of putting up another cottage in the Spring.

John Bettis and one of his sons and Chas. White, a former drayman of this city, departed this week for Jefferson, Tenn., to visit home folks. They went via Southern Pacific, and were ticketed out of Hillsboro by Agent Pratt Vickers.

Fred Hamel, of West Union, was in the city Tuesday. He says that he has lost several head of sheep this fall, owing to the ravages of neighborhood dogs, and states that the canines will get into dog-henry on short notice if they are again caught trespassing.

Thos. G. Todd, of Greenleaf Farm, above Forest Grove, and who has one of the fine ranches of that section of the county, was in town Tuesday morning, and incidentally called on the Argus. Mr. Todd was for several years county commissioner and popularized himself with many citizens by his straight forward way of transacting public business.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County

Elizabeth Johnson, Plaintiff,

Charles Johnson, Defendant.

To Charles Johnson, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby commanded to and required to appear in the above entitled court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons in the Hillsboro Argus, the date of its first publication being Thursday, November 3, 1910, and the date of the last publication being December 15, 1910, to wit—on or before Monday, December 19, 1910; and you will please take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for a decree forever dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem necessary and proper.

This summons is served upon you by order of Judge J. W. Goodin, Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated on the 31st day of October, 1910, and which order requires that you appear and answer on or before December 19, 1910.

B. L. SNOW,

Attorney for Plaintiff

Notice to Creditors

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned, have been by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, appointed administrator of the Estate of Matilda Gustafson, deceased, and have qualified as such. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same to me, with proper vouchers, at the law office of W. N. Barrett, in Hillsboro, Oregon, within six months from this date.

Dated this December 6, 1910.
Oscar Gustafson,
Administrator of the Estate of Matilda Gustafson, Deceased.
W. N. Barrett, Attorney for said Estate
