ALL TICKETS WERE COUNTED BY COUNCIL

David Houston Declared Elected and Sworn in and Seated

DOWN GAINED BUT ONE VOTE

Attorney E. B. Tongue Objects to Citizens Ticket Being Counted

Fifty people were at the council meeting Saturday night, when the recount of the ballots cast at the city election were recounted to determine who should be entitled to a seat in the trusteeship—David Houston, who led Joseph Downs by six votes, or the latter, who ran on the Mass Meeting Ticket. Attorney E. B. Tongue was before the council in the interests of Mr. Downs, and contended that the ordinance required the recorder to furnish tickets to the election board, and that as the mass meeting ticket was the only one filed within the limit of time, and the Citizens' ticket was not, the Mass Meeting ticket was the only one that should be entertained in the county. William McQuillan and W. G. Hare appeared for the Houston end of the controversy, and argued that the intent of the voter was the thing to be considered, and, also, that the filing of the Citizen ticket on Thursday evening was inside the time limit—and, therefore, it should be counted.

Mayor Bagley put it up to the council at the close of the arguments, and the vote against counting the ticket was cast by Carlile and Heim; and for counting it was cast by Boscow, Hartrampf and Trullinger.

The count then proceeded, and Mr. Downs gained one vote. This left Mr. Houston five votes in the lead, and he was thereupon sworn in along with Councilmen-elect E. I. Kuratli and W. D. Smith.

An interesting feature of the session was the passage at arms between Recorder Benton Bowman and Mr. McQuillan. Mr. Bowman contended that he was within his rights and duty when he refused to print the Citizens' Ticket and place the name of Houston on the ballot.

MARTIN V. BISBEE

Martin V. Bisbee, one of the well known and highly respected citizens of near Forest Grove, died December 9, 1910, aged 76 years. He was born in Auburn, Maine, and from that state moved to Sciope, Michigan. He was wedded to Miss Carressa McHale, at that place, in 1867. Thirty-five years ago they moved to California, and a year later moved to Oregon, locating on the farm on Gales Creek, just above Forest Grove. One son, Delbert, of Portland, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. William Johnson, survive.

We are now better than ever prepared to supply our customers. We have a good supply of flooring, rustic, ship lap and finishing lumber and can furnish good house bills on short notice. We also have a good stock of all kinds of common lumber. We have in stock all sizes of tile from 3 to 16 inch that are first quality; also brick and building blocks. Try our building blocks for your fruit or potato house, or foundation for your buildings—better and cheaper than brick or concrete. Parties wanting orders delivered will do well to place them early, while the roads are good, and our teams are not too busy. In the past we find that it is the failing of many people to wait till the roads are almost impassable, and then place their orders for delivery, at a cost of twice what it can be done for now. So don't forget, this year, while our stock is complete.—Groner & Rowell Company.

The appraisers have filed the inventory of the estate of Lillian J. Burns, a daughter of the late Perrin Steeples, and the valuation is given at $77.34. Nothing has been heard of Mrs. Burns for ten years, and the general supposition among her relatives is that she is dead, as she knew that at some time there would be money due her from the estate of her father. The money in the sum as appraised has been in the hands of the county clerk for several years. The husband, W. H. Burns, who at one time worked for W. V. Wiley, has been dead several years, and the heirs ask that the estate shall be probated so that there can be a distribution, and the estate of the father can be settled. Mrs. Burns was raised here and was well known to Hillsboro people.

James Garfield Warren—alas for distinguished nomenclature—was taken before Judge Barnes, Saturday, where he pleaded guilty to cruelty to animals. The Judge suspended sentence upon his promise to go home and give his poor animals better care.

"Kansas" as he is called, departed on his way for the Chehalis Mountain, with his bottle of cough medicine in one pocket, and a harmless, unloaded revolver at present arms, late in the afternoon, ruminating over his first experience in the city jail. Garfield is the first man from whom it was necessary to cut off his socks on taking his initial bath in the city jail, and it was perhaps his first experience since he fell into the Chehalis river when he was a boy.

Chief McLaughlin, who is always alive to subtle humor, tells the following: "The other day a crowd of Swedes went up the line with me, and in the bunch was the usual comedian—there is always a comedian in every crowd of Swedes—and he told me this unique story, and then laughed as if his sides would split: "Mr. Konductor, one tam a Swedish keeng call Charles Twelve skoll go to var and he hav to thousand man and he skoll fate femf thousand Russian soldiers, tr. Swedish keeng skoll keel four thousand Russian soldier mans and he skoll loos bote tu hundred Swedish fallers and half ofe dose bane horses, by-ying."

Theodore C. McNameer, who first went into the Klondike country in 1897, with the first gold rush, and who is now home for the Winter, was in town the last of the week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Goodin. "Mc" still has some good claims up in the McKay and Emma Creek sections, which are located near the Arctic circle.

Those on the roll of honor at the Columbia Academy school for the month ending Dec. 2nd, are as follows: Ella Luck, May and Merritt Jackson, Alice, Robert, Clarence and Steve Meek, Mabel Westcott, Herman Crocker, Joseph Chalmers, Frank, Emil and Charley Brandau, Anthony and Walter Vanderhey.—H. H. Cochran, Teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wells have gone to San Diego, where they will spend the Winter. Mrs. W. E. Wheeler, their daughter, is now residing at that California point, for the benefit of her health.

Notice to farmers—I will run a chopper at Oreno every other Saturday—commencing December 17. Located at the old blacksmith shop formerly run by J. P. Gardner.—E. E. Schmeltzer.

J. H. Brown, the former liveryman of this, was in town the last of the week with a bunch of horses for sale.

C. D. Weichman, of Scholls, was in the county seat Friday.

John Schmidt was in from Laurel, the last of the week.

YOUNG LAURENZ JUMPS HIS BOND

Lad Arrested for Stealing Horses and Rigs Vamooses

COURT DECLARES BOND FORFEIT

Bondsman Must pay $500 into the County Treasury

Circuit Court adjourned Friday to again convene December 27. The grand jury returned 17 true bills and 2 not true bills and were allowed to go home after reporting their findings. Taylor and Bellinger, the young fellows indicted for burglary of a Buxton store were indicted and their bond was fixed at $250 cash bail, each. Taylor will be tried January 27.

Young Gerritse, who burglarized the Brooks store at Scholls, was given a plea of guilty and a parole, he to report to the Sheriff every 30 days as to his behavior.

When the indictment of Laurenz, who stole a horse and buggy from the Farmers' barn in Hillsboro; and a team from E. G. Hagey, of Sherwood, and who also was under bond to appear at McMinnville on a like charge, failed to appear in court and his bond of $500, signed by J. H. Collier and H. V. Laurenz, was declared forfeited. It is said that the young man recently wrote from Spokane that he was on "his way," but he hasn't shown up as yet.

Dr. Guy Via was indicted and his trial was set for January 28. The charge against him is seduction and the complaining witness is a daughter of the Angelo family, of near Cornelius. Ed. Thomas, indicted for incest, the complaining witness being a daughter, will plead Dec. 27.

Decree of divorce—Kaster vs. Kaster.

D. O. QUICK PASSES AWAY AT GRANTS PASS

Crossed the Plains to Oregon in 1852, Settling Here

WAS LAWYER AND SAWMILL MAN

Was Sent From Washington County to Legislature in Sixties

David O. Quick was born August 27, 1829, in Franklin County, Indiana, and died December 10, 1910, at Grants Pass, Oregon, with cancer of the stomach. His ancestors were people who settled in the colonies prior to the Revolutionary War. In 1856-57 and 58, he read Law in Hillsboro, Ill., and was admitted to the bar in 1858, and practiced his profession in Litchfield, Ill., until 1862, when he crossed the plains to Oregon. His family consisted of his wife and one child. They started in April and arrived in August at Fort Lemhi, Idaho. They were directed wrong by the Mormons for the purpose of getting their wagons. He traded his wagon and set of harness for 50 pounds of flour. His party followed the north fork of Wisdom River to its source, crossing the Rocky Mountains three times, and then struck the Miller River, and followed it to Ritter Root, and followed that to Elk City, Idaho, having packed 900 miles, he walking all the way. He remained in Elk City for two months, while engaged in mining. He then packed to Linn County, Oregon, and from there to Washington County, Oregon, in Nov., 1862, and settled on 200 acres of timber land north of Hillsboro. From 1862 to 1886, he was engaged in sawmilling. He then sold and moved to Polk County, and purchased 120 acres of land near Suver, and engaged in farming and horticulture growing all kinds of nursery stock, and was considered one of the best authorities on horticulture in Oregon.

In 1897, he purchased 200 acres of land 5 miles southwest of Philomath, Benton County, and lived there until 1902, when he moved to Halsey, Linn Co., Oregon. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since childhood and always took an active part in church work.

In politics he was a democrat, until the firing upon Fort Sumpter, when he espoused the cause of the Union with all his heart and joined the ranks of the republican party. In Washington County, he was elected to the State Legislature and served in the session of 1864-5 and had the honor of voting upon the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and in the election of George H. Williams to the U. S. Senate, there being only seven democrats in that body which consisted of about 70 members. In 1864, he was admitted to practice law in the supreme court of Oregon.

He was married the first time to Miss Sarah M. Upsyke, a native of Indiana, in 1852, and to them two children were born: Emerson E., of St. Helens, Ore., the present county treasurer of Columbia county. The other child died, as did his mother, in 1857. In 1859, Mr. Quick was married to Permelia E. Young, of Montgomery Co., Ill., who died in 1900. To this union the following children were born: Mrs. T. A. Fowles, Mountaine; Emmett O. and William D., of Forest Grove; Mrs. A. T. Lewis, of Grants Pass; J. Warren, of Ballston; Frederick Y., of Corvallis; and Mrs. D. P. Trenholm, of Philomath.

In 1902, he was married to Martha J. Anderson, of Halsey, Linn county, who survives him, as do ten grandchildren, one of whom is Miss Bertha Fowles, who left the United States last October, and is a Missionary in the Methodist church at Umtali, Rhodesia, South Africa.
