

MASONS AND O. E. S. TO INSTALL OFFICERS 27TH

Annual Observance of St. Johns Day Held Next Tuesday

OLDEST ORDER TO HAVE BIG TIME

Exercises Will be Held in the Evening and Program is Promised

The oldest lodge in Hillsboro—Tuahly Lodge A. F. & A. M., and its auxiliary, will hold joint installation at the Masonic Hall on the evening of Tuesday, December 27, and a good program will be interspersed along with the induction into office. The Masonic fraternity will install as follows: Dr. W. E. Pittenger, W. M.; Ira Barrett, S. W.; W. J. Gregg, J. W.; C. Jack, senior deacon; Thos. Bailey, junior deacon; Dr. W. D. Wood, secretary; Dr. F. A. Bailey, treasurer; S. C. Killen, senior steward; Chester Alexander, junior steward; C. E. Deichman, tyler.

The officers of the Eastern Star: Bell Gregg, W. M.; J. P. Magruder, W. P.; Rose Cave, associate; Mrs. C. E. Deichman, secretary; Mrs. O. E. Crandall, treasurer; Mrs. Minnie Barnes, conductress; Mrs. Josephine Case, associate.

ANNUAL MEETING

The members of the German Fire Insurance of Washington County will hold their annual meeting at the Grange Hall, Hillsboro, on January 9, 1911, at the hour of 11:30 in the morning. The officers say there will be no assessment this meeting as the Board of Directors have determined that there is sufficient means to carry the business onward. Notices have been sent to the entire membership. Fred Berger and Erwin Ritter, both of Bethany, are president and secretary of the institution, respectively.

AUCTION SALE

By order of the County Court the undersigned will sell at the late residence of the late John Marsh, near Centerville, at 10 a. m., on

Terms of Sale—$10 and under, cash; over that sum, 9 months' bankable note, at 6 per cent interest.

Mrs. Frances Marsh, Administratrix of the Estate of John Marsh, Deceased.
G. W. Marsh, Auctioneer.
Antone Hermens, Clerk.

MRS. F. W. NORTON

Mrs. Eva Norton, wife of Frank W. Norton, died at the family home on Sixth Street, between Fir and Railroad, Tuesday, December 20, 1910. Mrs. Norton was born October 21, 1882, in St. Lawrence Co., New York, and came to Oregon in 1892. After coming to Oregon, she was married to F. W. Norton, Feb. 20, 1906, and they have been in this vicinity since last Spring. She leaves the husband and two children, Vance and Glen, aged 4 and 2 years. Of her immediate family the following survive: Her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Sabin, brothers, Claude and Ezra Sabin, sisters, Mrs. Ora Laws, of Darby, Mont., and Mrs. Guy Wilson, of Corvallis, Oregon.

NOTICE

Any dogs caught trespassing or chasing sheep on either the J. A. Imbrie or the Manzey farms will be killed forthwith.

Fred and L. J. Hamel, Dec. 6, 1910. 39-41

Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

Spencer Brown, who is engaged in sawmilling in Portland, is out this week, spending the holidays with his family.

David Kuratli, deputy sheriff, will be the cashier of the new Hillsboro National Bank, now being constructed on the Wehrung corner.

Ask for the Novelty knives and razors—the best and the cheapest. They make dandy Xmas or New Year's gifts—at Corwin & Emrick's. If you see them you will buy. Ask for them. 41-2

G. Hager, G. Yungen, John Mertz and John Zucher, of the Mountaineer-Helvetia Association, are to answer circuit court on a charge of selling liquor without a license. The boys allege as a defense that they are a club and were within their rights.

William Cowanah, who was born at Forest Grove in 1847, was brought in from beyond Glencoe, Tuesday evening, and examined yesterday on a charge of insanity. Dr. Tamiesie made the examination, and the unfortunate man was sent to Salem yesterday evening. Cowanah's brother, well known as "Deuce" was sent to the asylum, Friday last. Some years ago when William was ill he decided the farm over to C. W., the brother, who was declared insane last week. William recovered—he had made the deed expecting to die and C. W. refused to deed the place back, although there was no consideration on the transfer. On Dec. 9, C. W. sold the place to one Boechli for $5,200, receiving $1,000 down and a mortgage for $4,200. It is said that C. W. then became insane over the deal, and beat up William, finally becoming so violent that he was committed. William is intensely nervous and may get on the road to recovery as soon as he has some medical treatment at the State Hospital. Some legal action may be taken to get the place on its legal footing so that the rights of William may be protected in case he recovers.

See our dishes for our customers. When you expend $100 with us you get a fine dining room set of dishes. Call for cards and have the amount of your purchases punched each time you buy. When you buy that amount you get the dishes, or you have a dandy game and fish set.—Emmott Bros.

Coroner E. C. Brown is in receipt of a letter from Ed. Naylor, written from one of the Portland Hospitals, stating that recovery is assured, and that getting out and around is now but a question of time. Mr. Naylor has been wounded two weeks tomorrow evening, and the danger line has been passed several days.

The annual mask ball will be given at Hillsboro Hall on the evening of Saturday, Dec. 31. The usual prizes for the best waltzers and best sustained characters will be given. There is much interest over the prize waltz affair, as there will be contestants from all over Washington County. Toelle's orchestra. 40-2

I wish to exchange part or all of my addition to Hillsboro, for a good ranch. Would pay some cash difference, in a desirable trade. This property is only three blocks from Electric depot, court house, school, etc. Good drainage. Every house can have a well drained basement.—Inquire of F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro, Oregon. 41t

Gottfried Schlaefli, of above Mountaineer, was in the city Tuesday. He tells the Argus that Ulrich Bartschi, who left Mountaineer for Switzerland, last Summer, has returned to the United States, and is now in Kansas, visiting with friends and relatives. Ulrich will no doubt drift back to old Washington County before he settles down to business.

Just ask Emmrick & Corwin to see one of their new gopher traps. Gets them every time—and there is no chance of shooting yourself or running a spear in your hand.

The Oregon Electric Agent, Mr. Cooper, has received a concession of the Craig tickets—the simplest form of ticket now used by all big railway lines, and he can ticket anyone over any road on the rail lines in a very short time. He invites anyone going East to call and see how easy it is to be "ticketed" to any part of the country with the new method.

This is the season of the year when the rural mail carrier gets his hardships, what with bad roads and carrying of countless Christmas packages. The boys have been getting in rather late evenings, these days.

Remember the masquerade dance at the W. O. W. Hall, Glencoe, on Wednesday evening, December 28. Tickets, $1.25, including supper. Spectators, 25 cents. Toelle's orchestra. Four prizes will be given. Everybody cordially invited.

Chas. Hitchcock, of the Scholls section, was up Friday, after medical attendance for his little son.

Read in December Sunset Magazine.—San Francisco.—The Explosive City, Superbly illustrated in four colors. Now on sale—all new stands—15 cents.

Chas. Matthes, of near Laurel, was over to the city Monday morning.

F. W. Pribnow, of above Greenville, was in the city Saturday.

Herman Boge, the Farmington rancher and horseman, was over to the city Monday.

Ardele Rene and Erma Van-Metelbeke, united in marriage by Judge Goodin, December 22, 1910.

Mrs. Mary Dailey went to Portland last week to spend the Winter with a brother.

POULTRYMEN TO HAVE BIG SHOW IN HILLSBORO

Elmer Dixon, of Oregon City, to Judge Birds on Exhibition

EXPECT A THREE DAYS' EXHIBITION

J. F. Saunders, of Bethany, will Superintend the Display of Birds

The officers of the Hillsboro Poultry & Pet Stock Assn. met at the J. Murrow store, last evening and perfected definite plans for their first Poultry Show, which will be held in this city three days in the last week in January. They have engaged Judge Elmer Dixon, of Oregon City, to pass on the exhibits, and as he is one of the foremost judges on the coast, there is every assurance that the best birds will win. J. F. Saunders was selected to superintend the show and he will be assisted by Ray Reasoner. This will insure the best of care for the poultry entered.

The committee out soliciting funds to promote the session have met with fine success, business generally donating with a liberality. Those wishing entry blanks and premium lists may obtain same by dropping a post card to T. P. Goodin, Hillsboro, Ore.

HILLSBORO HIGH SCHOOL.

Christmas vacation is here, and all have left their studies for a short time to enjoy the festivities which this season of the year naturally brings in.

The Literary Society had an interesting program Tuesday afternoon, consisting of piano solos, songs and readings, all of which were well rendered. The quartet, "Picanny Lullaby" deserved particular mention, and the other numbers were very good.

The Ciceronian Debating Society held its first debate Tuesday, the question being "Resolved, that Intercollegiate Football Promotes the Best Interests of Colleges." The affirmative was defended by Abernatha Bull and James Larsen, while the negative consisted of Zenas Olson and Harold Reed. The decision was unanimous for the negative. After the debate, Miss Bolderick, the critic, and Prof. Barnes gave short talks on criticism.

All of the grades held their Christmas exercises Tuesday afternoon. All of the rooms were very prettily decorated with tissue paper hangings and evergreens. Everywhere the Christmas tree was in evidence. The first grades, under Mrs. Brown and Miss Yard, united for a few songs. These teachers have prepared booklets containing the pupils work which they have given to each one as a souvenir. Miss Walker and Miss Curtis held their exercises together. Miss Young of the Third Grade had a neatly decorated room and a short program was given. In the united exercises of the Fourth Grades, Santa presided and all received presents. The snow storm effect in the Fifth Grade, under Miss Jones, and the numerous hangings and decorations deserve special mention and show careful preparation. This Grade entertained the Fifth Grade, under Miss Norman. The Sixth Grade exchanged presents and gave a short program. The feature of the 7th and 8th Grades program was the Indian song. The fireplace in the Eight Grade was also a novelty.

This is one of the best Christmas seasons Hillsboro has seen for some time and everyone entered heartily into the spirit of the season.

If Judge Campbell, of this judicial district, thinks he has anything over one Daniel Cupid as an arbitrator of cases, he is much mistaken. About a year ago, one Alfred M. Ruggles sued Mrs. Emily M. Bullock for $120 for services on a building at the Grove. The case has been hanging for about a year—and finally Dan Cupid, attorney-extraordinary, got busy, and brought the suit to a close. The sequel is here—Married, Dec. 22, 1910. Mr. Alfred Ruggles and Mrs. Emily Bullock, Judge Goodin, of Hillsboro, officiating.

Marriage license has been granted to Carl A. Hoffman, son of J. N. Hoffman, Forest Grove, and Miss Ara A. Heisler, daughter of John Heisler, Gales Creek.

Samuel B. Dickinson and Nellie Randall were united in marriage by Judge Goodin, December 18, 1910, at the county court parlors.

John G. Vincent and Ivy D. Gorsline were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. E. Vincent, near Middleton, Dec. 18, 1910. Rev. Staunand officiating.

Wm. Schmidt, of Bethany, was in the city Thursday, and called on the Argus.

Whitman's are the best. Get them at The Delta. 41-2

Fred Haase, of South Tualatin, was in town yesterday.

Whitman's chocolates—you get them at The Delta. 41-2

Jasper Keffer, of near Glencoe, was in town yesterday evening.

Ira T. Mills, of Banks, was in the city Monday.

Dainty and wholesome means Whitman's chocolates. At The Delta. 41-2

W. F. Haase was in the city Tuesday, from South Tualatin.

Fred B. Clark, of below Farmington, was in the city the first of the week.

Walter Shallberger, of near Cedar Mill, was in town Tuesday afternoon.

Hoyt is going to give some one a Christmas present. Ask him who it will be?

Every piece a masterpiece—Whitman's chocolates and candies. At The Delta. 41-2

Born, to L. C. Garrigus and wife, of near Banks, Dec. 19, 1910, a daughter.

J. S. Steinke, of Minter Bridge, was in the city the first of the week.

John Loftis, of the Arcade district, was in the county seat Monday.

Philip Schneider, of near Cornelius, was over to the county seat Monday.

Peter Gotlieb, of North Hillsboro, was in the city Friday evening.

Walter Lynn came out from Portland, Monday, and went out to the Lynn ranch, near the Arcade school, beyond Glencoe.

A few nice Black Minorca cockerels for sale. Pure bred.—J. N. Miller, City Route 4; one mile south of Oak Park station. 3

Chris Johnson, of Maple Hill, beyond Glencoe, was in the city Monday. Chris is still clearing land up in the settlement.

J. W. Hughes, the South Forest Grove rancher and dairyman and well known auctioneer of the west end of the county, was in town Tuesday.

Found—A parcel on Cedar Mill Portland Cornell road. Owner pay adv. and take same.—F. Klatt, Bethany.

Alex Gordon, of Glencoe, was in town yesterday. He and his family will spend Christmas with relatives in Portland.

Found: Purse, on Washington St., containing small sum money. Owner pay adv. and get same. Inquire at Argus office.

Today is supposed to have been the shortest day of the year, and from now on the daylight period will increase right along.

Herman Rannow, of below Newton, and John Boge, of Farmington, were in town yesterday, getting Christmas supplies.

S. J. Raffety, of Mountaineer, returned Tuesday from Portland with Mrs. Raffety, who has been a month in a Portland hospital.

C. E. Hurst, running the ranch owned by Postmaster Cornelius, beyond Glencoe, was over to the city yesterday, and called on the Argus.

The Christian Church Sunday School will have a Christmas tree and short program at the church, Saturday evening. Everybody invited.

For sale: Team, weighing about 1600 each.—Inquire of John Simpson, 3 miles south of Reedville, P. O. address, Beaverton, R. 3. 40-2

Trojan powder, for blasting stumps, etc., at Emmotts, in any quantity. Try this stumping powder and you will have no other. No freezing and thawing, and no headache.

Albert Bunning, of Cornelius, was in the city Saturday afternoon. Thos. Talbot, one of the oldtimers of Cornelius, was in town Monday evening.

Remember that when cleaning time is at hand I will be busy. Everybody wants a new carpet. Get yours made before the rush.—I. T. Mills, carpet weaver, Banks, Ore., Route 2. 41-3

The Bethany Grange will give an entertainment and Shadow Social, at Grange Hall, Bethany, Saturday evening, January 14. Ladies will please bring luncheon for two. Program at 8:00. Games afterward. No dancing.

S. C. Sherrill, who has been teaching over at Vernonia, came over the first of the week to spend the holidays with his brother, W. E. Sherrill, and family. He says that the walk from Vernonia to the railway is not a pleasant morning's trip these days.

J. T. Powell, who is hostler and moves the engines in the Umattilla yards for the O. R. & N., arrived the first of the week with his family, for a holiday visit with the family of Mrs. Slattery. He says he likes the Umattilla country very well, and that it is always very lively up there for the train service men.

HILLSBORO IS TO HAVE TWO MORE NEW BANKS

Expect to Build in Near Future on Imbrie Corner, Third & Main

MODERN STRUCTURE TO BE ERECTED

The J. W. Shute Bank Will be Taken Over by New Organization

Hillsboro will have two new banks in the future—the American National Bank, operating under the national banking system, and another, the Shute Savings Bank. Both institutions are now under process of organization by A. C. Shute, A. S. Sholes, William Mahon, H. V. Gates, M. McDonald, A. McGill, Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, J. A. Imbrie, Geo. R. Bagley and W. G. Hare, incorporators, and the new banking houses are to succeed to the business of J. W. Shute, Banker, who has successfully followed the banking business in this city for over twenty years. The incorporators above named will own both banking houses, and quarters will be maintained at the present J. W. Shute Bank until a handsome building can be erected on the J. A. Imbrie Block, Third and Main. The new home is to be a modern structure, built especially for a modern banking house—the two banks to occupy the lower floor, and law offices and an abstract company the entire upper floor. The new building will contain commodious vaults on both floors, and a large number of safety deposit boxes will be installed in a separate vault for the convenience of patrons and depositors. A. C. Shute, who has been identified with the J. W. Shute banking house and the old First National, and who has had twenty years experience in the business, will have active management of the banks.

The capital of the American National will be $50,000, and the capital of the Shute Savings Bank will be $30,000. With the wealth and ability of the stockholders as a criterion there can be no doubt of the future of the two banking establishments. It is the purpose of the American National to take care of the all commercial deposits and commercial loans, while the Savings Bank will handle the savings features of the banking business, as well as the mortgage loans. With the banks now in existence, and under process of organization, Hillsboro will be better than ever equipped to take care of the growing banking business of a large section of the West Side, and will have a bank standing second to none in the state according to population and business.

Mr. Sholes is the president and active manager of the Cornelius State Bank; Mr. Mahon has been in the banking business in Michigan all his life; Mr. Gates has long been a business man in this city and has extensive interests in the Northwest; Mr. McDonald and Mr. McGill are president and secretary, respectively, of the Oregon Nursery Co., of Orenco; Dr. J. P. Tamiesie is the well known Hillsboro physician who has just completed the new three-story hotel on Third and Main; J. A. Imbrie, ex-county clerk, is well known all over the county as a substantial business man, and holder of business property in the city; while Geo. R. Bagley and W. G. Hare are the well known attorneys of the law firm of Bagley & Hare. With this financial strength, the future of the new banking houses is assured, and they should expand at a rapid pace and in consonance with the growth of the community.

John Berger, of Bethany, was in the city Monday afternoon. Attorney Waldemar Seton, of Portland, was out Tuesday, on probate business.

Mrs. Harvey, widow of the late Duane Harvey, was in the city from above Mountaineer, Monday afternoon.

Team, wagon and harness for sale at a bargain. Mare and horse, and weigh 1,000 1,100. Good all-round team for farm.—Inquire at Jos. Connell farm, near Glencoe. 40-3

Carrier Tupper, on Route 2, brought in the following letter, addressed to Santa Claus, Tuesday night: "I want you to bring me a ball and a box of peanuts, a box of candy, a doll, blocks, a little chair and a little horse." If that letter isn't answered there will be something doing along Route 2.

Christmas cheer is the thing—but you can't have a good Christmas unless your culinary department is fixed up right. We have a fine lot of green goods, vegetables of all kinds, and every Christmas delicacy. We have the "turk," and the chicken, and all that goes with it. Give us a call.—Emmott Bros.

A pleasant surprise birthday party gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wadsworth, on the evening of December 17, in honor of the host. Mr. Wadsworth was reading his newspaper when to his surprise his home was filled to overflowing with neighbors and friends from far and near. They at once took possession, and J. E. Zimmerman acted as master of ceremonies. It was a jolly crowd and all seemed to enter into the spirit of the evening. The party brought their music with them and dancing was the order of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth leading the cotillions as if they were back in their youth. The house was decorated with flowers. At midnight a splendid collation was served and after refreshments, dancing continued until the "wee sma' hours." The party departed in high glee at 3:00 a. m., leaving host and hostess feeling that the world is a pretty good old place in which to live—and "The Cedars," of beyond Glencoe, is located among friends.

For sale: I will sell my registered bull, Holstein-Friesian, Sir Salma Alameda Dekol No. 48,064, or will trade for good work horse. Is gentle, quiet, and gets 70 per cent., guaranteed. Address L. C. Cooper, Cornelius, Ore., or call at ranch 3 miles south of Cornelius. 40-2

John Gardner, the 13 year old son of Perry Gardner, of Quatama, while playing with some powder, Sunday, suffered some severe burns about the face and eyebrows through an explosion. He had a piece of burning paper on which he was pouring powder from an old powder flask, in order to watch the explosive ignite. The flame followed rather rapidly and reached the powder flask, and there was a dandy little explosion. Dr. Cunningham was called from Orenco, and he patched up the youngster's wounds. He will not "monkey" with a powder can again.

See the fine stock of "back combs," at Libby, the jeweler's place. No back numbers—all new and fresh goods, direct from the factory; and Gee Whizz!—see the fine clocks and jewelry of all kinds, which he is almost giving away. 38-tf

J. W. Cave wishes to state that the Industrial number of the Oregonian will not be published until in February, which is the anniversary of the founding of the Oregonian as a newspaper. He says that the office has notified him that this will be the finest industrial paper ever issued in the Northwest, and those who wish extra copies should leave their orders with him at McCormick's Music Store.

For sale: Six fine Rhode Island roosters, at $1 each.—C. H. Mitchell, South Hillsboro.

Sam Stevens, of North Hillsboro, went over to Tillamook last week to take Harry McLauchlan's engine until the latter returns from his holiday vacation.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the Grand Marca, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

Harry McLauchlan, engineer on the Tillamook end of the P. R. & N., was a Hillsboro arrival the first of the week, and will spend the holidays here and at Portland.

Imperial Hard Wheat Flour, $1.45 per sack, at Connell & Co. Every sack guaranteed. 37-tf

Services at the United Evangelical Church—Sunday school at 10:00 a. m.; Christmas program at 11:00 a. m.; C. E. at 6:30 p. m., and preaching at 7:30 p. m.

Girl wanted for general work. Inquire at City Restaurant, Second Street, Hillsboro, Ore.

Mrs. James Gibson, of Reedville, was up to the city yesterday, getting Christmas gifts for the mayor of Reedville—Jas. Gibson.

Postmaster Cornelius has received a lot of lock boxes, which will be installed in place of the call boxes on the left side of the distribution case.

Mrs. M. Ryan, whose son, Jno. Ryan, carries the mail on Route 3, was in the city from Helvetia, yesterday.

Perry Gardner and W. J. Lichty, of below Quatama, were in town yesterday.

J. W. Cave was confined to his room the first of the week with a severe case of congestion of the lungs.

Those Electric Irons at G. R. Stovers are going, and if you are thinking about getting one, you had better get your order in.

Mrs. M. M. Hughes, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Lucile Imbrie, Sunday.

E. Wenstrom and wife, of the Scholls-Laurel section, were in the city Monday morning.

W. N. Hathorn and wife, of Laurel, were in the city Tuesday afternoon.

To the readers of this, the Den of Sweets wishes a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.
