The Grand Jury report contained a suggestion for more vault room in the county court house, and it was a point well taken. As at present the vaults are crowded to their capacity, and as public business will increase in the not distant future more room is imperative.

Hillsboro's steady improvement in building lines has been a praiseworthy feature the past few years. The improvement of the Wehrung Block and the erection of the American National bank building on Third and Main are harbingers of a better Hillsboro.

Hillsboro's new hotel—the Hotel Washington—will be ready for public service within a few weeks, and the structure is a credit to the city. It supplies a need that has been apparent for many years. There is scarcely a heavy term of circuit court but what the visitor must be hustled from pillar to post that he may have a night's lodging. The Hotel Washington will be a welcome feature in the city's civic life.

Walter Lynn, of above Glenwood, was a city caller Tuesday.

Jos. Donovan, of near Cedar Mill, was in the city Saturday.

Councilman W. D. Smith was confined to his room the first of the week.

T. B. Perkins, of Buxton, was down to the city Tuesday, leaving on Wednesday morning.

Attorney C. J. Schnabel, of Portland, was in the city yesterday attending circuit court.

Money to loan on real estate. Terms reasonable. Apply to Kurrath Bros., Hillsboro, Or. 21tf

John Schaefer and G. Hager, of above Mountaineer, were in the city yesterday.

E. A. Brejle, of near Bloomington, was over to the city Tuesday morning.

F. W. Sagert and Mr. Saffron, of Tualatin, were up to the city Tuesday morning.

Saphia Wolf has sued Billy Wolf, of Beaverton, for divorce. She alleges failure to support, and asks for the custody of a child.

Harold Merryman, studying law in Portland, was out Tuesday, guest of his sister, Mrs. A. B. Bailey.

Chas. Hieckthier, one of the oldtime residents of near Cedar Mill, was in the city Tuesday afternoon, greeting friends.

J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, and who has rounded out a lifetime in the "Oregon country," was in town Tuesday.

E. G. Hagey, the Sherwood liveryman and deputy sheriff, was up to the county seat yesterday morning.

Walter Galloway, deputy surveyor for Benton County, Ore., was down over Christmas, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Galloway.

Isaac Ennes has sold his ranch over Iowa Hill, and he and his family started for Tacoma, Wash., today. Mr. Ennes took some Tacoma property in exchange and calculates to make his home over on the Sound.

Louie Hamel, of West Union, while in the city Saturday, had a friendly scuffle with one of the boys and sustained a broken foot, the fracture taking place in the instep. Dr. A. B. Bailey attended the injured member and Louie will have a twist with crutches for a few weeks.

Mrs. Jos. Livengood, of near Reedville, was in the city yesterday, and recovered a purse which was recently found and advertised in the Argus. Chas. Meacham, of North Hillsboro, picked the purse up on Washington Street and immediately hid himself to the religious weekly to give the find publicity. It contained several dollars.

Gaston press dispatches tell of a two-year-old heifer, named "Beauty," which committed suicide on the Stoppenbach ranch, near that place. It is said that the animal laid down in a small creek with suicidal intent, and then a colt which witnessed the rash act broke his leg in trying to run and summon help. "Stoppy" was once in the wholesale paper business in Portland, and he is going to be made a member of the Portland Press Club at once.
