The present primary law will not be tampered with if Gov. West can avail against any possible legislation that may pass. It is not likely, however, that any attempt will be made to do away with its wise provisions. Ben Seiling was elected president of the senate, and Rusk was elected speaker of the House, Monday. These gentlemen are friends of the direct primary, and are ardent supporters of the direct primary, and are ardent supporters of the direct primary, and are ardent supporters of the direct primary.

Gov. West and State Treasurer Kay have decided that the state does not need the assistance of Dr. Plamondon as superintendent of the Pendleton asylum, at $3,000 per year, as it will be two years before a superintendent is needed. Plamondon was appointed by Acting Governor Bowerman upon the alleged purpose of securing Senator Barrett's vote to make Bowerman president of the senate. C. A. Barrett and Plamondon both hail from Athena, Umatilla county.

States having no popular election are now having deadlocks in the legislatures about the question of election of U. S. senators. Some of these days they will all adopt the Oregon plan, and thus shut out the graft that goes with senatorial fights.

NOTICE

Citizens of Hillsboro are hereby advised that the ordinances of this City prohibit spitting on sidewalks, halls, floors and steps of public buildings; fowls running at large, and the construction, alteration and repair of buildings within the fire limits without a permit and that hereafter these ordinances will be strictly enforced. Attention is also called to the fact that dog licenses are due and payable to the Recorder or Marshal and unless paid by February 1, the Marshal will be instructed to impound and kill in accordance with the ordinance. Dogs upon which licenses have been paid must bear collars and the license tag. H. T. Bagley, Mayor.
