No matter what the animus, the attendance of federal troops at the boundary line of Mexico will have an adverse effect upon the fortunes of the insurgents. The Diaz government has not been making very great headway against the revolutionists, and America's action in sending soldiers to the frontier may brace up the old fellow.

Gov. West does not seem inclined to call an extra session of the legislature. The loss of data is not considered as vital—and the governor probably has an idea that the "losing" was intentional, in order to force an extra session.

There does not seem to be a very great call for an "advisory" assembly down in Portland these days—and it is about time for Mr. Simon to move if he wants that position of mayor again.

Portland will have a half million people in a few years—and the time is not far distant. Have you ever considered what this will mean to Washington County and Hillsboro?

Everybody sees that Hillsboro is moving ahead, and it is to make even greater strides in the future.

Ralph McDowell, of Oreno, pleaded guilty before Judge Smith, this morning, to assaulting Floy Westfall, son of L. Westfall. The young man said the assault was the result of a little family tiff, and that he would plead guilty rather than have the thing brought into court. He paid a $15 fine and departed for the nursery city.

Ancona eggs, prize-winners for sale. Per setting of 15, $2.00 and $2.50. Reduction of 50 cents on two settings. Incubator lots, $10 per hundred. Noted laying strains.—Mrs. C. E. Dodge, Hillsboro R. 5, east end of Oak Street, on the Newton road.

C. C. Dunn, of Banks, and Mr. Stafford, of Gresham, were in town today. Mr. Dunn has sold his farm to Mr. Stafford, who will soon take possession. Dunn is an oldtime railroad man, and will probably go back to the "rail's click" in the future.

George Clarke, the 15 year old son of F. R. Clarke, of Farmington, sustained a fractured lower jaw last Saturday, the result of being kicked by a pet cock, which he was handling. Dr. Robb attended the sufferer.

Miss Nellie Robinson, of Beaverton, was the guest of Miss Lucile Imbrie, the first of the week. Miss Imbrie recently returned from an extended visit at Heppner.

The rebate days on taxes are ended, and the taxpayer who has not taken advantage of the three per cent. can now have until the first Monday in April to liquidate half payment.

Dean Weller, of Buxton, and who is the 15-year-old foster son of D. O. Weller, was taken to the Industrial School at Salem, Sunday. The lad is classed with the incorrigibles.

Eggs for hatching purposes—Single Comb Rhode Island Reds, $1.00 per setting. Also chicks for sale, from day-old up.—Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, S. Hillsboro.

Marriage license was granted by the county clerk of Multnomah to Dr. W. B. Hare, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare, and Miss Edna Wilson.

Elmer Mays, of Glencoe, and who has been connected with the Mays Bros. mercantile business for a good many years, was in the city Tuesday.

A. Pautmeier, of near Farmington, was in Tuesday. He says that farmers are busy seeding down his way.

Lost—Small sorrel horse, branded J. H. O., connected. Reward.—D. Harper, Beaverton, Ore., Route 3.
