MRS. W. R. HOYT

Mrs. Mary L. Hoyt, wife of W. R. Hoyt, expired suddenly from heart failure at the wharf on the Columbia River, near Frankfort, Wash., at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, April 13, 1911. She had been visiting with a family by the name of Smalley, and was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Arach. They were about to return to Ridgefield, Wash., via Astoria, when death overtook her.

Her maiden name was Mary L. Venen, and she was born at Conneaut, Ohio, August 12, 1848. She was wedded to Mr. Hoyt, Sept. 8, 1870, at her native town, and the family came to Oregon in 1883, settling at Salem, and afterward residing at Forest Grove. For 12 years they had resided at Hillsboro.

The husband and the following children survive: Russell Hoyt, Tacoma, Wash.; Laurel M. Hoyt, Hillsboro; Mrs. Ella Kirkwood, wife of J. E. Kirkwood, of Missoula, Mont.; Clarence Hoyt, of Ridgefield, Wash.; Mrs. Eula Devereaux, Eugene; Miss Arach, Hillsboro.

Her death was a great surprise, as Mrs. Hoyt was a woman of splendid physique, and had no organic heart affliction.

Circumstances made it imperative that the burial took place in Portland, and interment was made Monday afternoon.

DYKE-GREEN

Walter P. Dyke, of Forest Grove, was united in marriage to Miss May Green, at Seattle, Wash., April 15, 1911. Mr. Dyke resided in Hillsboro several years, and while studying law was local agent here for the McMinnville Fire Relief Ass'n. He has been admitted to the Oregon Bar. The bride formerly resided at Raymond, Wash.

LECTURE TOUR

Wm. Schulmerich, of Farmington, leaves May 1 for a month in British Columbia, where he will lecture on dairying, under the auspices of the provincial organization, not dissimilar to our O. A. C. institution and experiment station.

He will visit all prominent dairy points West of the Rocky Mountains, and also go to the island dairy points along the coast. He will be furnished transportation, hotel expenses, and be paid a salary as well.

R. B. Porter, of near Forest Grove, was in town Friday. Mr. Porter is one of the pioneers in the hop culture in his section.

Mrs. E. A. Hunt, of Portland, visited friends in the city the last of the week.

About 100 attended the boxing match at the Hartrampf rink, last Saturday evening. Chas. Wunderlich, of Centerville, was given the decision over Jack Bowman, in a ten-round bout. Wunderlich was considerably the more clever of the two, and easily outpointed his opponent. Olson, of Banks, won the wrestling match in two straight falls, from Will VanLum. Olson was much the heavier of the two. The exhibition was clean in all respects, and there was no interference from the authorities. Quite a number of fans were down from Forest Grove, Cornelius, Banks and Verboort.

See our dishes for our customers. When you expend $100 with us you get a fine dining room set of dishes. Call for cards and have the amount of your purchases punched each time you buy. When you buy that amount you get the dishes, or you have a dandy game and fish set.—Emmott Bros.

Since the advent of the United into the North Plains and Roy sections, Wells-Fargo's agent, John M. Brown, reports that nearly two hundred dollars worth of express has been shifted to that railway from the Hillsboro office, paid monthly, for shipments of milk and cream into Portland. Practically all the Helvetia and Mountindale shipments now go via the United, and while very little of it remained in Hillsboro, the agent's commission means considerable to the local office.

See the fine stock of "back combs," at Libby, the jeweler's place. No back numbers—all new and fresh goods, direct from the factory; and Gee Whizz!—see the fine clocks and jewelry of all kinds, which he is almost giving away.

J. P. Miller, of York, Neb., and Philip Bohl, of Holdrege, the same state, were guests of H. Harrington, the last of the week. The gentlemen are big landowners back in the Plains state, and have been spending the winter in California and Oregon. They return in a few days. They say they like Oregon, but do not much mind the cold of their adopted state.

From 10 to 90 acres unimproved land in tracts to suit, within walking distance of Hillsboro, price and terms reasonable.—Geo. C. Engelke, at Loui Manning place, 1 1/2 miles north of Hillsboro, Oregon, on Route 1. No agents.

Workmen have already put out several thousand roses and carnations at the Clark Bros.' tract, in Northwest Hillsboro, and lumber is being delivered for the big greenhouses, each 300x80 feet, here will be work for a big crew all Summer, what with building and planting. It will take several carloads of glass for the houses.

For sale: Span mares, weigh between 3200 and 3300; aged 9 years; sound and true, and well matched.—Geo. C. Engelke, at Loui Manning place, 1 1/2 miles north of Hillsboro, Oregon, on Route 1.

E. S. Dixon, of Forest Grove, has been appointed to the chair of Mathematics at the North Dakota Forestry School. Mr. Dixon graduated at the Oregon Agricultural College last June, receiving his diploma in the mining class.

Single Comb Anconas, Exhibition and Utility. My birds win, 1st cock—1 cockerel, 1 hen, 1st, 2nd and 3rd pullet and 1st pen, at the recent poultry show in Hillsboro. Yours for the best.—H. E. Cameron. 51-10

Ed Ellerson, of Beaverton, is now testing cows in the Farmington and South Tualatin sections. From his reports it is found that cows pay if they are the proper kind, and have proper rations.

We have just received a dandy lot of new rose bushes, and also a fine assortment of trees, berry vines, grapes, etc., for immediate planting. A first class stock.—Morton's Greenhouse.

D. W. Bath, of the North Plains Sentinel, sent out his initial number last week. The paper does credit to the section in which it is published, and is in the field to keep things going out that way.

For sale: Gray horse, weight 1200, sound and true. Also set of double work harness, almost as good as new. Both for $150.—Neff Bros., Cornelius, Or. 5-7

Ralph Imbrie was out the first of the week, visiting relatives. He is now interested in the auto-livery business in the metropolis, and says his machine has all that it can do.

TOMASO DEBENEDETTO GETS 15-YEAR SENTENCE

Italian Slayer Pleaded Guilty to Manslaughter, Friday

BOXCAR MURDER SETTLED BY PLEA

Defendant Always Claimed Killing Was Result of Quarrel

Tomaso De Benedetto, the Italian, Friday, pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the case of killing Catalto Manzarro, in a box car, at Cornelius, on the night of January 5, 1911. After the killing the defendant fled and was caught 20 days later, at Spokane, Wash. He was returned to Hillsboro and has been in the county jail, unable to give bond. Owing to the semi-hysterical state of mind, and the fact that De Benedetto has a rather low order of intellect, the state considered it best to allow him to plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter. The prisoner alleges that Manzarro struck the first blow, and of course, there was no other evidence, in support of a purely murder theory.

No jury was drawn, and after the plea of guilty was entered Judge Eakin imposed a sentence of 15 years in the penitentiary at Salem.

Sheriff Hancock delivered De Benedetto to the penitentiary authorities the last of the week.

MRS. EMILY TRULLINGER

Mrs. Emily Trullinger, wife of D. P. Trullinger, died at the family home in North Yamhill, Friday morning, April 14, 1911, after being a sufferer for some years, with Brights disease. Mrs. Trullinger was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zina Wood, pioneers respectively of 1850 and 1852. She was born in this county, on the North Plains, near Glencoe, in 1854. She was married to Mr. Trullinger in the seventies, and the husband and four children survive. Of her immediate family her father, and the following sister and brothers survive: Mrs. Mildred Connell, wife of Joseph Connell, of near Glencoe; Zina Wood Jr., of Hillsboro, and Dr. W. D. Wood, state senator from Washington county.

SOME DAIRY FIGURES

For one month, according to actual figures produced dairymen, Hanley Bros., of North Hillsboro, averaged from their herd of dairy cows the sum of $5 for every dollar expended in mill feed and hay rations. Wm. Schulmerich has one cow that averaged 2.49 lbs. of butter per day on a ration of 6 lbs. oat chop and 5 lbs. of hay—this cow having been fresh since Jan. 15. One 2-year-old heifer, registered Jersey, fresh Oct. 25, averaged 1.57 lbs. butter daily, on 4 lbs. oat chop and 5 lbs. hay; and another 2-year-old, fresh since November 16, netted 1.53 lbs. butter daily. Mr. Schulmerich's entire herd averaged him a return of $4.52 for every dollar spent for rations.

ANNOUNCEMENT

For the convenience of our patrons, beginning March 25, 1911, we've opened a down-town office in Koeber's Confectionery Store, two doors south of post office. The agencies at the Sorenson Barber Shop and the Anderson Barber Shop will be discontinued. We shall continue our delivery service the same as heretofore, calling for and delivering work to any part of the city. Telephone, Independent 207. 3tf Moore's Laundry.

Ed Northrup, of Shady Brook, was in town Friday.

Peter Schmoker, of Helvetia, was down to the city Saturday.

Louis Ennes, of South Tualatin, and Louis Meyers, of Laurel, were in the county seat Monday.

Dave McCamish leaves this week for Dallas, where he will make his home with his son, Bun McCamish.

J. Schmitke, of above Mountindale, was in the city Monday, with a friend, a Mr. Newman, of Ridgefield, Wash.

J. N. Miller, of Oak Park, was in the city Monday. He says that his onions are up and growing nicely, but that the worms are beginning their annual havoc. This means spraying with chemicals.

J. Millar, of Reedville, was up to the city Friday afternoon.

August Irrmler, of Cornelius, was down to the city the last of the week.

Jacob Jacky, of North Plains, was over to the city Monday morning.

Effingham Scheiffelin and wife, of Centerville, were in the city Saturday afternoon.

C. N. Mackrill, of beyond Laurel, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Will Kleir, of near Laurel, was an Argus caller, Saturday afternoon.

G. S. Robinson, of near Farmington, was a county seat visitor Friday.

M. Berger, of Cooper Mountain, was an Argus caller Friday morning.

W. A. Griffith, an old-timer of the Farmington-Laurel section, was in town Friday.

Hon. Ira E. Purdin, of North Forest Grove, was down to the city Friday.

August Boge and son, of Farmington, were in the county seat Friday.

George H. Wolf has gone to Timber, where he expects to remain several months.

Peter Christensen, of beyond North Plains, was in town Saturday morning.

Restaurant and lunch counter, with fixtures, for sale. A good business.—J. H. Williams, Hillsboro, Ore. 5-7

Lester R. Campbell, managing the former Rowell donation farm, at Scholls, was in the county seat Friday.

M. Genzer, of Buxton, passed through town Friday, enroute home from a trip down to the Lebanon country.

For sale: Three sows; will litter May 1.—Geo. L. Tubbs, 2 miles east of Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 2. 4-6

Julius Martinazzi, of Tualatin, and who, by the way, is interested in fruit raising, was up to the city Friday.

A. Bendler, of North Tualatin Plains, was in town Friday. He is intending to sell out all his dairy herd except the thoroughbred Holsteins.

For sale—A two-year old filly, out of the Carstens' Percheron horse.—Oral Gardner, Cornelius, Ore., Route 1. Pacific States Glencoe, 97. 5-7

Gus Kempfer departed the first of the week for British Columbia, and may get as far East as the Alberta. He expects to be absent all Summer.

R. L. Robinson, of Farmington, was in town Friday. Mr. Robinson says that the thermometer went to 28 last Thursday night, and that fruit suffered a good blighting.

Money to loan on real estate security. We sell farms. Try us.—The Webfoot Realty Co., Hillsboro. 12tf

Contractor Jacobs has finished the masonry for the Nelson buildings on Third street, and carpenters will soon have them all enclosed.

F. Bockmann, of Wheeler, was in town Friday. He recently sold five acres off his place, and says there is quite a demand for land down his way, so far as small tracts are concerned.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis J. Bailey, of Portland, were out to the city over Sunday, guests of relatives. Dr. Bailey states that he has the big woolen mill in running order at Washougal.

R. B. Goodin, chief accountant at the Oregon Hospital for the Insane, was down to Hillsboro the last of the week, looking after his interests here. Mr. Goodin was county clerk of this county for two years, and still retains the city as his home.

E. S. Shattuck, of Monmouth, was in the city Monday, enroute home from Portland. His two sons, Lynn and Joseph, have bought 160 acres between Toledo and Yaquina, Lincoln county, and the family will move there in a few days. The Shattucks formerly ranched near West Union.

Thos. D. Hughes, an old-time railway man, and who worked with W. V. Wiley in train service twenty years ago, and more, was out from Albina, Saturday, greeting his many friends in Hillsboro. Mr. Hughes was down in the Mexican country, years ago, and railroaded there, and therefore is watching the present trouble with some interest.

A young fellow by the name of Carney was brought out from Portland Saturday evening on a charge of larceny of a curry comb and brush from Richard Sandford, of Glencoe. The young man is about 30 years of age and was with another party when the police arrested him. The other man made his escape, and from his description he is wanted for the theft of wool from the barn of John Wesley Jackson, of east of Glencoe. When the police made the arrest the man most anxiously wanted took to his heels and "twenty-three" it down the street. Carney was taken before Judge Smith, Monday, and put up $50 bail to appear and answer the charge against him. His attorney stated that he was a man of family, standing well in his neighborhood, and that he could put up any bail fixed by the court.

Through tickets for Madras, Bend, Metolius and other Eastern Oregon points can be purchased of Agent Cooper, of the Oregon Electric, at Hillsboro. It is not necessary to wait until you get to Portland before buying to points on the Oregon Trunk.

Marshal Blaser ran in three Swedes, who came down from the front, the last of the week, and each was fined $3. They were making no trouble, but were simply a little top-heavy. The spokesman, after the fine, said: "Well, Ve bane stop at Muny-cipple hotel over nate, and eet cost us but ter dollar. Das bane purty cheap, tu, and ve skull ha-a gude breakfast. If ve bane where ve could spend pangamore as tree dolar bane gone dis morning."

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received—a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

Victor Callier, of south of Cornelius, conducting a dairy ranch on the old Reimers' place, which he owns, was in the city Monday forenoon, and called on the Argus.
