VOL. XVIII

HILLSBORO, OREGON, MAY 4, 1911.

NO. 8

SIX AND ONE HALF THOUSAND PER MONTH

Expenses for Running the County of Washington, Oregon

RECEIPTS OF OFFICES CUT THIS DOWN

Roads and Highways the Largest Item of Expense, as Ever

For the months of January, February and March, and a few items for April the county commissioners' court audited expense claims against the county in the sum of $21,968.04. The largest item, as usual, was for roads, $9,518.84, exclusive of bridges, which cost $1,019.26. For the salary of commissioners, judge, livery hire and incidental expenses, the total cost was $573.60. "Current expenses all offices," runs a little over a thousand dollars, and this covers stationery, supplies, incidentals, etc.

The receipts of the clerk's and recorder's offices, however, amount to several hundred dollars each month, and this serves to cut down the expense. The various departments, according to a statement made out by Clerk Bailey, follows:

Roads & highways	$9,518.84
County court & commrs	573.60
Circuit court	2,509.69
Justice court	99.85
Sheriff's office	1,112.20

Health Officer	112.30
Total warrants issued	$21,968.04

JOHN J. WILKINS

John J. Wilkins, of Cornelius, died Saturday, at his home, aged 84 years. He was born in New Jersey, and when a young man moved to Wisconsin, where he enlisted in Co. H, Fifth Wisconsin Infantry, serving one year. In 1865 he moved to Minnesota, where he resided until seven years ago, when he removed to Washington county. He was wedded to Miss C. A. Best, in Wisconsin, the wife dying five years ago. The following children survive the aged veteran: Ernest Wilkins, associated with Mr. Challacombe in the mercantile business, Cornelius; Mrs. L. S. Foster, The Dalles; Charles Wilkins, Portland. The funeral was held Monday, under the auspices of the Forest Grove G. A. R. Post, and interment was in the Cornelius cemetery.

Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

John Nyberg, county commissioner, was up from Tualatin, Monday.

Jacob Dahinden, of above Banks, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

J. C. Smith, of Greenvale, and Emil Duyck, of Mountaine, were in the city Saturday.

J. J. VanKleeck and Mr. Snider, of Kinton, were up to the fruit meeting Saturday afternoon.

H. Halyorsen, of Farmington, and who is making dairying pay, was in the city Monday morning.

John H. Duke and Ida Barkley were married April 29, 1911, at the county court parlors, Judge John W. Sewell officiating.

Mrs. J. W. Sewell and Mrs. E. L. Moore will entertain the Coffee Club, Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Sewell, on Main street.

G. W. Beal, who settled in Washington county in 1847, was down from Seghers, Saturday. He goes to Tacoma to visit a daughter, in the near future.

Albert Tozier, of Dee, Oregon, near the snow white base of Mt. Hood, was over to the old home town, Saturday, accompanied by G. B. Hayes, of San Jose, Cal., who has bought near Eugene, and will soon settle there. Tozier was out in time to meet all the old acquaintances in at the horse show.

Judge Sewell and the commissioners were over to the Newberg country, Friday, and say that there is a wrong impression as to the attitude of the Newberg and Yamhill County people criticizing Washington County for the stretch of road between Newberg and Tigard. They say they realize that Yamhill has many miles of bad roads; but that they want to raise money to fix up that particular stretch of roads for auto purposes, and are willing to raise a big sum by levying a contribution on autos, both in Yamhill and Portland, so they can have a good stretch of road between Newberg, McMinnville, and Multnomah County. They averred they were going to do it, too, and the Washington County Court gave them to understand they would help a few hundred dollars worth, just to show them they were glad to see the movement started.

Jadviga Blaszky, an aged mother, has filed suit through Bagley & Hare, asking for deeds to certain lots in Garden Home, now valuable, or a decree that shall be met and just in lieu thereof. Some years ago she and her husband deeded to Anton and Frank, their sons, the property in question with a written agreement signed by the boys, that they were to care for the two old people as became their station in life. The husband died about a year ago, and the mother now alleges that they have not lived up to their agreement. She also states that they will not allow her to take away her clothing and other necessaries which belong to her.

Camp Meeting at the four corners, four miles south of Hillsboro, beginning May 28, 1911. Meals at a reasonable figure. Holiness, Divine Healing, Second Coming of Christ, and Full and Free Salvation for all will be the subjects. Elder W. P. Kirk and Miss Allen, the blind singer, will be at the meetings. Sunday schools invited to grounds for lesson study at 10 a. m. Persons from a distance wishing to be met at the train by conveyance should notify two days in advance.—Joseph Brock, Hillsboro, Route 2.

James Gibson, of Reedville, was up Saturday. Speaking of schoolhouses, James says that the first school house in Forest Grove was built in 1848, by W. O. Gibson, his father, and himself, at a cost of $35 to the district. The walls were made of small logs, and there was one partition in the structure; wood and mud fireplace; that Miss Tabitha Brown, the first teacher, lived in one end of the building and taught school in the other end.

See our dishes for our customers. When you expend $100 with us you get a fine dining room set of dishes. Call for cards and have the amount of your purchases punched each time you buy. When you buy that amount you get the dishes, or you have a dandy game and fish set.—Emmott Bros.

Joseph Mann, of South Hillsboro, is the possessor of a big White Leghorn egg which is the longest of any of the large eggs exhibited yet this season. The mammoth muscle and brain builder is of weight four ounces, and all that it lacked was a bigger calibre to make it a world beater as a hen product.

Through tickets for Madras, Bend, Metolins and other Eastern Oregon points can be purchased of Agent Cooper, of the Oregon Electric, at Hillsboro. It is not necessary to wait until you get to Portland before buying to points on the Oregon Trunk.

Grant Zumwalt, working on the American National Bank Building, was struck on the head by a ladder, Monday forenoon, and rendered unconscious for a short time. He was soon restored, however, and went to work as though nothing had happened.

See the fine stock of "back combs" at Libby, the jeweler's place. No back numbers—all new and fresh goods, direct from the factory; and Gee Whiz!—see the fine clocks and jewelry of all kinds, which he is almost giving away.

Hon. W. N. Barrett and wife returned the last of the week from Hot Lake, Union county, where they attended the bedside of Mr. Barrett's sister, Mrs. Melville Parrish, of Wilbur, Wash. They report her case as hopeless.

N. P. Oakerman, of Beaverton, was up to the city Monday morning. Mr. Oakerman expressed himself as very much pleased with the way Hillsboro is improving.

BIG R. R. BUILDER GIVEN NIGHT AT PRESS CLUB

John F. Stevens, Head of Hill Lines, Guest of Honor, Thursday

BUILT UNITED INTO THE COUNTY

Was Originally at the Head of the Panama Canal Work

John F. Stevens, doer of big things; in charge of the first work inaugurated on the Panama Canal, and later with the Hill Lines; and who is well known to the people of Washington county, was given a reception at the Portland Press Club quarters, last Thursday night, and the event passes in the history of the organization as one of the heartiest in its history. Mr. Stevens made a delightful guest, as he is unassuming, approachable and entertaining, minus that exclusiveness that at times marks genius. Motion pictures of the work, from the time of its inception under Mr. Stevens' regime, up to within the last two weeks, was one of the features of the entertainment. Mr. Stevens has resigned from the Hill lines, but during his incumbency he has made many friends in the Northwest. After the evening closed Mr. Stevens was given the following tribute of his fellowship by a member of the club:

"Good Bye! John F., Good-Bye!"

"Good-Bye, John F.!" We'll miss your smile, and hearty shake of hand, And think of days in Oregon, when you were in the land, To view the line, up old John Day, and on the West Chutes, too, And then barked back to "hurry up" the "E. R. building crew— And then you'd scortie 'cross the stream to view Vancouver's shore, To hang the sign of "ballast up," repeated 'e'r and 'e'er, To get the line from mountain's crest clear through to Portland town, As smooth as Press Club cocktails when you smiling drink them down! "Good Bye, John F.!" We grieve to see you leave this land of bloom; "Good-Bye, John F.!" Why will you go and leave us all in gloom; "Good-Bye, John F.!" If you must go, we part from you with sigh, But know you will come back again—"Good-Bye, John F., Good-Bye!" If we had lungs like Gattun's blast, and deep as thunder's roar, Our joint acclaim would roll from here down to Balboa's shore— Where first you organized the crew to dig that ditch, or die, Stay longer yet, but we forget—"Good-Bye, John F., Good-Bye!"

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Archbishop Alexander Christie, of the Diocese of Oregon, will soon establish an industrial and training school for young men at St. Mary's, near Beaverton, which will cost $150,000. The entire Levi Anderson estate will be used for the establishment, and it is expected that the school will open with 100 students. As the main building alone is to cost the above sum, it will be seen that with the land and all equipment, the cost of the school, site, and auxiliary buildings will run up to a large sum. The latest methods of farm work will be taught, and there will be advanced courses in training in mechanics and individual trades.

St. Mary's already has an academy and a home for foundlings, with schooling facilities.

An itinerant piano salesman, who in many years of his life has sold, according to his statement, 150 pianos, passed through Hillsboro Friday afternoon, after driving for two days in the country between this place and Portland. He was thoroughly disgusted, saying: "I never before saw so many farm homes possessed of either a high grade organ or a good piano. It appears that every man who is financially able, and has a family growing up, has a good piano in his home. I travelled for two days in the county and found that status almost everywhere, and I haven't made a single sale. From what I've seen—and I've been all over the Northwest—Washington Co. has more pianos to its population than any other district I've visited in 30 years of piano selling." All of which sounded mighty good to the Argus reporter. 38-4f

"Aye!" "Aye!" As one of our old pioneers would say—With nice mild weather, and everything growing in the Oregon country, what do you think of two feet of snow in Dakota, and a howling snow storm in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Dr. Lowe will be in Hillsboro May 17.

W. H. Yost, of Reedville, was an Argus caller Saturday.

Charles George, near Scholls, was an Argus caller Saturday afternoon.

J. S. Wright, the Forest Grove horseman, was down to the hub Saturday.

A. Rigert, of Cooper Mountain, was in Saturday, and called on the Argus.

G. W. Morgan came down from the Vineland hills, Saturday, to "see the ponies."

Andrew Heckmann, road supervisor for Beaverrdam, was in town Saturday, greeting friends.

Henry Hogrefe, of beyond Blooming, and Gerhardt Goetze, of Iowa Hill, were in the city Monday.

T. G. Todd—who raises some good horses, by the way—was down to see the equine display, Saturday.

Money to loan on real estate security. We sell farms. Try us.—The Webfoot Realty Co., Hillsboro. 12tf

Louis Sagert, of Tualatin, and who is one of the rustling threshermen of that section, was in the city Saturday.

For sale: Two brindle heifers, 2 years old; one fresh about May 14. For both, $60.—W. H. Yost, Reedville, Ore. 8-10

John Kamna and family of Farmington, and Henry Kamna, of Blooming, were in to the horse show, Saturday.

Fred Haase, of South Tualatin, was in the city Saturday, seeing what the old county can do in the way of horseshell.

G. H. Wiggs, of Yamhill county, and Louise King, of this county, were united in marriage, April 29, 1911, Judge Sewell officiating.

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

Philip Bates, of the Pacific Northwest, and Mr. Dana, of the Oregon Journal, were in the city Saturday, and called on the Argus reporter.

For sale, very cheap: Bain wagon, $1; and light Bain wagon, $1.—John Peugh, Hillsboro, or see wagons at I. H. Maxwell place, Mountaine.

J. B. and O. G. Wilkes returned from Eugene, Sunday, making the return trip in an automobile. They came through the Sherwood route just for a change of scenery.

We have just received a dandy lot of new rose bushes, and also a fine assortment of trees, berry vines, grapes, etc., for immediate planting. A first class stock.—Morton's Greenhouse.

Judge J. W. Sewell bids fair to establish a record in the matrimonial business—he performed three ceremonies Saturday. If business would keep up that way all the time J. W. could wear a silk hat.

For sale: Horse, 1,300; top buggy and good harness; good work horse, gentle and true, Outfit, $130. Also fine black driving horse, 5 years old.—A. H. Gattis, Quatama Sta., Oregon Electric, Beaverton, R. 4. 8

County Treasurer Jackson last month paid out over $89,000. Included in this was half of the state tax; the April school apportionment; special road taxes; tax of cities; special school taxes, and county expenses.

Single Comb Anconas, Exhibition and Utility. My birds win. 1st cock—1 cockerel, 1 hen, 1st, 2nd and 3rd pullet and 1st pen, at the recent poultry show in Hillsboro. Yours for the best.—H. E. Cameron. 51-10

Oscar Donelson and family returned Friday evening from an extended stay in Nebraska. Oscar says that he is glad to get back to the Beaver state, and that he will be contented to stop in the best section of the world.

Thank Providence Hillsboro is not in the "23" class in the population of Oregon's towns. There are just exactly 23 towns and cities in the state that have a larger population—Hillsboro is the 24th town in the Oregon empire. Selah!

Sunset Magazine for May—"Nile of the West," by S. Glen Andrus. Beautifully illustrated in four colors. "The Spell," a Western novel by the Williams. "Guests of Greater Chinatown" by Charles K. Field, Automobile Section. Now on sale, 15 cents. 7-9

HILLSBORO HORSE SHOW WAS SPLENDID SUCCESS

Fully Five Thousand People in County Seat to See Equines

BEST EXHIBITION IN MANY YEARS

Secretary Mails Cash Prizes to All Winners First and Second

Fully five thousand people attended the Horse Show held here last Saturday under the auspices of the Washington County Horsemen's Association, and witnessed the best exhibition of horseshell from draft horses and colts up to the trotting bred animals. Old-time horsemen agree that it was a splendid show and a revelation of what Washington County does in the way of producing horseshell. The Hillsboro Band opened the big show at 11:00 a. m., and there was a big parade at that hour. At 2:00 in the afternoon there was another parade, and it required two hours for the judges, C. H. Sampson, Corvallis, J. C. Beach, Glencoe, and J. S. Wright, of Forest Grove, to make awards.

Visitors were present from all over the county, and quite a number were out from Portland, Saturday night the Secretary of the organization mailed checks to every cash prize winner, either under the offering of the Association, or horse owners, and by Monday evening every winner had his money. The prize winners:

MRS. TONGUE'S WILL

The last will and testament of the late Rebecca Tongue, mother of the late Representative Thos. H. Tongue, was filed the past week in probate court. She gave the 160 acre farm to her two grandsons, E. B. and Thos. H. Jr., share and share alike; and to Edith T. Reames, Bertha Tongue, Elizabeth Freeman and Florence Munger, the residue of her estate, consisting of cash and personal property, share and share alike, after Mary Lombard, wife of Gay Lombard, is paid $5. The testator remarked in her will that she had as much affection for Mrs. Lombard as for any of her grandchildren, but she felt that she was already well supplied with this world's goods. The request is also made that the two grandsons look after and provide for one James Somerville, a dependent, during his natural life, and that they give him a decent burial at death. Calvin Jack Jr. and S. A. D. Meek were witnesses to the instrument, which was dated May 18, 1910.

Do You Know

That a twenty-five year guaranteed gold-filled case wears better than a solid gold case? Do you know that it stands more hard work and protects the movement better in most cases? Gold-filled cases are to-day made with a skill and perfection that is marvelous. They wear as well as gold as far as appearance goes and wear much better in practical service. I have a large variety of the best cases made and they are protected by an iron-clad warrant
