Sunday is "Mothers' Day."

It is fitting that this, of all days, should have your attention. The love of motherhood follows you to affluence or failure; to fruition of early dreams or to fraud; to penance or the penitentiary; to the ways of God or the paths of Godlessness—where beats the heart of the mother is found that love that never falters; that tenderness that touches the heartstrings and never tires—the love that is hallowed above all affections.

Oregon has no reputation for failure—the rains came in time to give promise of splendid production—and this year is to be as big as the years that are gone.

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Campbell this week heard the plea of guilty by John Mertz, charged with illegal sale of liquor. Mertz was fined $200.

Divorce decrees granted: Mary Fitzgerald vs Ray Crawford—annulment because she found Crawford already had a wife when the ceremony was performed; Greenleaf vs Greenleaf; Hertsche vs Hertsche; Turney vs Turney; Hagen vs Hagen; Reinhardt vs Reinhardt; Johansen vs Johansen.

Sealed Proposals

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned until Saturday, May 13, 1911, up to 2:00 p. m., and then opened, for the construction of a 75-foot bridge near the Barrett place, Mountaineer. Plans and specifications may be seen at the clerk's office. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. By order of the Commissioners' Court.

J. W. Sewell, Judge.
Hillsboro, May 4, 1911.

Card of Thanks

The undersigned desires to express her heartfelt thanks to those who so kindly assisted her during her bereavement, the obsequies of her husband, the late G. H. Reisner.

Mrs. Mary Reisner.
Hillsboro, Ore., May 11, 1911.

Geo. Nelson, with whom the Argus reporter worked in 1886, on the N. P., was in the city today, a guest at the C. E. Koontz home.

M. C. Steeples, well known here in the early days, and who makes his annual trip to his old home, is now located at Centerville.

Mrs. Corwin Foote, aged about 40 years, died at the family home, near Centerville, the first of the week, and interment was in the Cornelius cemetery.

CORNELIUS CRIMPS FOREST GROVE COLTS

Walk Away With Game Sunday,
Score, Six to One

CORNELIUS ADDS ANOTHER VICTORY

Dan J. Barrett Umpires Game That Gives Victors 1,000 Per Cent

Cornelius is at the head of the percentage column in the Washington County baseball league—for the midway city trimmed the Colts, of Forest Grove, Sunday, at the Fair Grounds, between Cornelius and the Grove, by a score of six to one. Robinson was on the hillock for Cornelius, and Bettis handled the curves for the Colts. Neither gave any bases on ball, and each man struck out four batters. Cornelius now stands at the head of the percentage column, having won two straight games. This leaves the standing:

|              |       |
|--------------|-------|
| Cornelius    | 1,000 |
| Hillsboro    | 500   |
| Forest Grove | 500   |

MOTHERS' DAY

Gov. West has designated next Sunday, May 13, as "Mothers' Day." Write a letter to your mother, if she is not with you; think of the hours of care and tenderness devoted to you in your childhood; remember the kiss for the bruised spot; the tears of sorrow she kissed from your rebellious cheek; the many little slippers she never gave you, when you deserved them— withheld because she loved you as only a mother can love; remember the nights of vigil over your pillow, when your little frame tossed in illness; her kisses, when you closed your eyes, and when again you opened them; and, in the end, remember how your every action in life has been watched by that dear old mother; how many hopes you have, perhaps, unwittingly blasted—and then sit down and write her a good, old-fashioned letter, pouring out all the love in your miserable carcass—pouring it out to the sweetest, tenderest being in the world—mother!

Rev. Vallandigham notifies the Argus that special services and program will be held in the Christian Church, Sunday evening, in honor of "Mothers' Day." There will be songs, recitations, short addresses to mothers and parents, and altogether, an evening that will touch on heart strings.

CAN T. H. BROWN PLASTER?

I think there was no question about that in Washington County where I left here six years ago, but to the many new residents, and also to let my old friends know that I have been keeping up-to-date, I will tell them that I have plastered a hundred houses in Portland since leaving here: I had the contract and did the work on "The Breakers" Hotel, on the Washington Coast; more of the Lewis & Clark work than any other plastering contractor; all the U. S. Gov't military buildings at Honolulu (30 in number,) the McCandless Building, one of the finest stone business blocks in that city; the consulate building for the Japanese government at that place. Since my return I have worked in Portland, partly contracting, and part of the time in the unions. I worked on the plastering from start to finish on the Masonic Temple, by the day on the Jefferson High School and the Bank at the corner of Third and Oak. So I think I can do your work right—and no one does the same kind of work any cheaper.—Thos. H. Brown, Hillsboro, Phone, Farmers 741.

Bruce McCann, of Gales Creek, pleaded not guilty the other day, before Judge Smith, the charge being that he killed a deer out of season. The trial will be taken up later.

Notice to Creditors

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned, has been duly appointed and sworn to by order of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County heretofore made and entered, as executor of the last Will and Testament of James W. Baker, deceased, and that he has duly qualified as such.

Now, therefore, all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same, together with proper vouchers therefor, to the undersigned at the law office of Bagley & Hare in the Shute Building in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, on or before six months from the date hereof.

Dated this 11th day of May, 1911.
George L. Baker, Executor.
Bagley & Hare, Attorneys for Executor.

Notice to the Public

Notice is hereby given that the dumping of refuse along the county highways is prohibited by law, and anyone violating this statute is amenable to the law by a fine of $50. All persons are hereby notified not to dump debris of any kind on any of the public highways of Washington County.

By order of the Commissioners' Court.
J. W. Sewell, County Judge.
Hillsboro, Ore., May 11, 1911.

Sealed Proposals

Sealed proposals will be received up to June 7, 1911, and then opened for the construction of two bridges for Washington County, as follows:

Bridge on Dille-Spring Hill road, across the Tualatin River.
Bridge near J. W. Hughes place, between Forest Grove and Dille. Plans and specifications may be seen at the clerk's office. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Address bids to J. W. Bagley, County Clerk, Hillsboro, and mark "Bridge Bid" on end of envelope.

J. W. Sewell, County Judge.
By order Commissioners' Court, May 11, 1911.

The Southern Pacific is asking for land prices on Main street, next to the P. R. & N. track, and it is supposed that the company is figuring on establishing a depot there. If this is done, in all probability the local trains now running to the Grove will run out of this city instead of having their terminal at the college city. Dr. Tamiesie is one who has been asked for prices.

Cook wanted—An experienced woman, as cook for Herrick Hall, Pacific University, Forest Grove. Good wages. Inquire by mail or in person of Matron, Herrick Hall, Forest Grove.

Rebecca Dixon has sued Jacob Dixon, administrator of the estate of the late Raymond Dixon, and eight of Raymond Dixon's heirs, all minors, to quiet title to six acres of land near Forest Grove, plaintiff alleging that the heirs claim an interest in the estate. This claim, she alleges, is void, and she wants a decree of circuit court so deciding.

Dr. A. B. Bailey, wife and son, are now in New York, where they will remain until the opening of the hot season, when they will go to London. Dr. A. B. is taking a post graduate course, and is busy at lectures and operating tables.

Walter Zetzman and Ida L. Erdman were united in marriage Wednesday, May 10, 1911, at the home of the groom's father, Geo. Zetzman, near Centerville. Rev. Luecke officiating. They will make their home at Centerville.

Dr. Linklater has lumber delivered for annex to the Wilkes Garage, next door to the Argus office.
