BANKS WINS GAME FROM CORNELIUS

Latter, However, Sends in a Protest and Claims Forfeit

PROTEST PITCHER'S RIGHT TO PLAY

Allege Baker is not Resident of County, and is Under Salary

Banks and Cornelius played at the grounds near Haines, Sunday, and Banks walked away with the battle by a score of 7 to 3. Cornelius, however, Monday sent in a protest, claiming the game, firstly, because they allege Baker, of Sherwood, is not a resident of Washington county; and secondly, because, they claim, Baker admits he is a salaried player. Just what the directors will do will be decided a little later on. Baker pitched the opening game of the league, in which Banks was defeated by the Grove.

Baker struck out seven; Robinson, five. Baker allowed one man first base on balls.

Score by innings:
Banks—0 4 0 2 0 0 0 0 1—7
Cornelius—0 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 1—3

Banks and Cornelius will play on the Banks grounds next Sunday, May 21.

HILLSBORO HIGH SCHOOL.

The Adelante Society entertained a number of their friends at the Tamiesie Apartments, Hotel Washington, last Friday evening. The evening was spent in various games, several of which recalled the days of Mother Goose rhymes. Ice cream and cake were served as refreshments. Every one enjoyed the evening, and the young ladies received many expressions of thanks for the pleasant time.

Dance at Hillsboro Hall, Saturday evening, May 20.

N. R. West, of Banks, was in the city Tuesday evening.

Geo. W. Kelly, of Buxton, was down to the county seat Tuesday.

A Forest Grove mare, 25 years old, is very proud of her first colt.

C. W. Loudon was over from beyond North Plains, yesterday morning.

J. F. Johnson, of Buxton, was in town Tuesday, and called on the Argus.

Wm. M. Hughes, of beyond Oak Park, was in the county seat Tuesday.

Dr. C. W. Lowe, the optician, was in town yesterday, at the Hotel Washington.

Make garden while the sun shines, but before you plant any seed get the best at Greer's.

W. B. Streeter, of Portland, was out the last of the week, the guest of J. W. Bailey and family.

W. H. Hembree, of Scholls, was up the last of the week, on business with Assessor Crandall.

O. M. Pope and family expect to move to the coast in the near future, having sold their Hillsboro property.

John Timmerman, of above Banks, accompanied by his daughter, Olga, was in the city Tuesday, on legal business.

C. F. Jesse, of near Banks, was a county seat visitor Tuesday. He is thinking of selling off some of his dairy stock before long.

For sale: Cabbage plants, 20 cents per hundred; kale plants, 15 cents per hundred, or $1.00 per thousand.—L. J. Rushlow, Seventh & Oak, Hillsboro. 8-10

J. A. Thornburgh came down from the Grove in his car Tuesday, with a party consisting of Reporter Meresse, J. H. McNamer and Ambers Thornburgh.

The Ruth Trust Co., of Portland, is platting another townsite, on the Purdin place, near Banks, and they expect to sell all kinds of town lots and acreage.

Greer sells more garden seeds in bulk than all the rest of his competitors, because he takes great care in selecting fresh seed and the varieties that his customers want.

Rev. Philip Bauer, President of the Oregon Prisoners' Aid Society, was in the city Tuesday, getting new members for the organization. This society helps discharged prisoners to secure work at honest labor and otherwise makes his lot better after leaving the prison.

Hugh Rogers, of the P. R. & N., has been bulletined out of Buxton, and the railway office at that point closed for the present. Hugh will go to Timber, where he will be the general factotum of the Co. for the immediate future. There will be a great deal of shipping out of Timber, all Summer, as soon as logging operations, on an extensive scale, are started.
