A national religious assembly holding in the East is asking for $1,000,000, with which to save 25,000 souls. This is putting the cost at $40 per soul. Forty dollars each would go a long way toward saving bodies in the starve districts of the big cities--if run through the provision channel. Used the other way and more than likely it will be an exchange of $40, in many instances, for a 40 cent soul.

The financial flurry of 1907-8 had no visible effect on the Northwest coast, and there was no cessation of building operations. While the East lay dormant for a year or so the West continued with its railroad building; its empire expansion; its growth in wealth, and all that tends for progressiveness. The present "tightening up" in the East appears to have ignored the Pacific coast, for we are getting new people and new money every train over the mountains.

IN STEPS OF FATHER

Captain Walter Christianson, of San Francisco, visited friends on Iowa Hill and South Tualatin, early this week. Captain Christianson was a resident of the section when a boy, and his father was one of the navigators of the Pacific long before he settled in Washington County. Walter has not been here for many years, and when he attained manhood he followed the sea as matter of heredity. Application to his work soon landed him in the captain's berth, and when his vessel came to Portland last week he improved the opportunity to visit his boyhood home. He was very much surprised to see so much improvement here. He returned to his ship Tuesday and started to sea with a cargo.

For Sale, at a bargain—Four-passenger survey and double harness; survey cost $280 and has run but two hundred miles. Harness cost $45, and is in good shape. Both for $125, or will sell survey for $100.—S. Harkins, Lents, Oregon, 1618 Division St. Take Hawthorne car to Reservoir Sta. Pacific States phone, Tabor 1002.

Claude Allison, well known here, sang a solo at one of the Portland theatres, "amateur night," the first of the week, and was given the first prize. Claude has "blown" the duets for more sheet music, and says he is going to give Caruso a whirl for first place.

Fred Rood, of Rood Bridge, was up to the city yesterday.

Harry Bowman and wife are spending a few weeks in Hillsboro. He took charge of the substation afternoon and evening shift, at Moffatt, the last of the week, vice Mr. Hall, who is enjoying a 30 days layoff. Mr. Bowman came over from the United, where he held a position at the substation near Helvetia. Edwin Bowman, a younger brother, is freight house man at the O. E. depot.

Dr. Murphy, of North Plains, reports that the foreman who lost an arm on the United, the other day, is getting along nicely at one of the Portland hospitals. William Roberts, of Kist, over the Nehalem divide, and who lives in the extreme edge of Washington County, was over to the county seat Tuesday. Mr. Roberts has not been over to the city for a year—since he was on jury service. He says he can see the town moving right along.
