WHEELER BALL NINE IS OUT FOR SCALPS

Have Beaten Everything in Their Class, and Want More

CRYING FOR SOME FASTER COMPANY

Have Beaten Scholls, Reedville and Oreoco, and Still Hungry

(Special Correspondence)
The Wheeler Baseball Team!

Ever hear of that aggregation of speedy young men who are teaching the east end of the county what baseball really and truly represents? And who have fattened the phrase "Going Some" to fulsome? The lads in their natty uniforms have played "spider to the fly" to all visitors, and have defeated Reedville, Scholls and Oreoco—and Scholls went against them strong, while Wheeler simply gave them professional stunts in allopathic doses, in a four to three defeat. The Cornelius Oak Grove team was to have played Sunday, and the Wheeler boys fixed up things fine for the visitors—but they failed to show up. Wheeler strawberries, which are to make this section famous, were there in plenty; and their absence was regretted. In the afternoon, however, the Oreoco boys came for a game, and after the first seance, when Wheeler splattered the score board with four perpendicular lines, the game settled down to classy work. In the last half of the sixth Oreoco left the field because of a decision on first base, and their action in leaving the ground is regretted, because the boys were doing nicely, and had strengthened by taking on the reputed tosser for the Forest Grove league team.

Wheeler isn't swelled—our pride is justifiable, and in pitcher "Wolf" we have a tosser who has a basket full of twisters, corkscrews and deceptive twirls, and the opposition has proven Red Riding Hoods. In receiver Perkins we have a man who can hike the ball to second with accuracy, thus causing a woeful lack of base larceny.

Wheeler has a growing community and its ball team is waiting for more victims—but while we will win the games we will also show the visitors a "bully" good time, as Teddy would say.

John Berrie, the civil war veteran, was down from Yamhill, Decoration Day, mingling with the old comrades and enjoying the exercises.

W. F. Simpson and wife, of Portland, were out to Banks the first of the week. Mr. Simpson is connected with the Portland police department.

Born, May 20, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, of Forest Grove, a daughter. And this accounts for that smile J. A. was wearing in the county seat, the other day.

W. A. Finney, wife, and son, Will, departed yesterday, for Ridgefield, Wash., where they will reside on a farm. W. A. has taken a notion that he wants to enjoy the simple life, after spending a life time in town.

William Flippen, formerly of Hillsboro, passed through town Monday. He has a fine claim over on Salmon Creek, and says his timber will cruise over fifteen millions. He recently proved up on the land, and will soon be able to sell for $15,000. He has been living over on his claim some years.

M. C. Steeples and wife, of Centralia, Wash., arrived the first of the week for a two weeks stay, here, Forest Grove, Gales Creek and Portland. They still have their property at Hoquiam, but Mr. Steeples says that times over there are rather dull at present. "When you get paved streets and sewers, Hillsboro will be all right, and one of the classiest little cities of its size on the coast," says Mr. Steeples.
