

CORNELIUS WINS FROM THE CARDINALS

Cubs Played Great Ball, Sunday, With Luck on Their Side

HENDERSON'S DRIVES DO THE WORK

Hillsboro Gets More Hits, but Scores Less Runs—6 to 5

Cornelius won over Hillsboro at the Forest Grove grounds Sunday in the league ball game, by a score of 6 to 5. Freeman pitched for Hillsboro, and gave one less hit than the Cornelius' pitcher, but Henderson's timely hits brought the Cubs into the winnings. He made two two-baggers, and they came when it meant scores to Cornelius.

Cornelius made 5 errors, while Hillsboro was charged with but one—but baseball luck was on the side of Cornelius, and that team still comes to the hustings with no games lost. They have a scrappy little team, and they are always on their toes. The line-up:

PREMIUM NOTICE

People subscribing for the Daily Oregonian and not yet receiving their premium spoons will please call at the Argus office, or write in, so they can be sent out at once.

W. J. Lichty, of below Elmonica, was in the city the first of the week.

J. E. Abbott and wife, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Mr. Abbott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Abbott.

Contractor Potts finished the bridge near the Scotch church Tuesday evening, and the road is now open for travel.

Mrs. R. H. Greer departed Tuesday evening for a month's visit with relatives in North Yakima, Washington.

W. A. Tupper, of Portland, was out to the city Sunday, a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tupper.

A. E. McCumsey, of beyond North Plains, was in the county seat Tuesday afternoon. Al says the sawmill business is going along nicely.

Jacob Schneider, of Leisville, was in town Monday, and feels good to be alive after his narrow escape from being blown up by powder a few days ago.

Mrs. Alex Scott, of near Gaston, was down the last of the week, a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, of near Farmington.

There will be a strawberry festival Wednesday evening, June 14, at Reedville, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Anderson. Everybody is invited to come and have a good social time. Music and games. 13

Mrs. Ethel Morgan Davis, of Portland, was out to her old home, one day last week, the guest of Mrs. John M. Wall. Mrs. Davis and her husband, Dr. R. F. Davis, recently returned from a trip to Europe, where her husband finished a post graduate course in medicine.

Some of the local sports, who occasionally wager an election bet, lost several simoleons on Portland's election, betting on the Simon end. Some always take the Oregonian's pre-election reports for gospel, and invariably drive in wrong. Charlie Loudon came in Monday, and picked up a few dollars, but was unable to get all he wanted to place, his roll of greenbacks being big enough to choke a Jersey heifer. C. W. is having the laugh on the boys—and they are good losers.
