BANKS STARTS OUT OF THE CELLAR

Defeated Forest Grove in a Shut-out, Sunday, on Banks' Grounds

COLTS HELD DOWN TO THREE HITS

Pitcher Carstens Does Some of his Old-time Work—Fans Five

Forest Grove went to Banks last Sunday, and met a Waterloo at the hands of the Banks team—Banks winning her first league game this year. It will be remembered that they won from Cornelius some time ago, but the game was thrown out by the league directors. Clell Carstens pitched for Banks, and he struck out five men, and allowed but three hits. He has been suffering from rheumatism for some months, and has had trouble with his arm. The line-up:

Hillsboro, Ore., June 2, 1911.

William Ziegler, of Lousignont Lake, was brought in the last of the week by John Boeker Sr., one of his bondsmen, who went bail that Ziegler would not molest his wife, who, a few weeks ago, had the husband arrested for threats. Wm. went home contrary to his bond and Mr. Boeker feared trouble and asked to be released. As the case is now up to circuit court the bondsmen must wait until Judge Campbell again arrives, which will be in a few days. Ziegler says that his family wanted to move to Southern Oregon, and that he went over to talk about the matter.

The American National Bank building is rounding to completion so far as the masonry is concerned, and it certainly is one of the handsome edifices of the town. The banks will occupy their new quarters within eight or ten weeks at the latest.

"LOVE"

What is love? God is love;
He who reigns above;
All things by Him are,
Earth, sun, moon, and star.

By Love dwells a mortal man
Of every kindred, nation, clan;
Love's the potent power of life,
Always giving its life for life.

Love lives not for self alone,
Till, for others does enthroned;
In service for others does rejoice;
Seeking but the Master's choice.

Love lives for noble things,
Rising up on eagles' wings
Above the baser things of life;
Above the lower, meaner strife.

Love inspires to action great;
Detesting malice, human hate;
Inspires unto a purpose grand
Accomplished by a human hand.

It gives a courage strong and brave;
Unseen does it not behave;
Vaunteth not itself in pride,
Beareth with the true and tried.
