VERBOORT COUPLE'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Hermens Hold Celebration With Children

BORN IN HOLLAND—MARRIED IN U.S.A.

Settled in Verboort in 1883. Have Nine Living Children

Mr. and Mrs. William Hermens celebrated their golden wedding at the home of their son, Antone Hermens, Saturday, June 17, 1911, with all their surviving children about them. Neighbors were there, and a host of their descendants, and the day was a joyful one for the entire family. Father LeMiller celebrated solemn High Mass in the Verboort Catholic Church in the morning, with Father J. R. Buck as deacon, and Rev. John Bernards, of Mt. Angel, as sub-deacon—Rev. Bernards being the eldest grandson of the happy old couple. Rev. Deeny, of Beaverton, preached the wedding sermon. Both bride and groom are still vigorous and hearty. Mr. Hermens was born in Zeeland, Holland, Oct. 2, 1830, and Mrs. Hermens was born in Burebeck, Belgium, May 31, 1839. The husband came to America in 1858, Mrs. Hermens arriving in 1856. They met and were married in DePere, Wis., June 16, 1861. In December, 1883, they came to Oregon, and settled in Verboort. Thirteen children were born to them, and nine survive. They are blessed with 58 grandchildren, all of whom are living. Their children are: Mrs. John Bernard, McMinnville; Antone Hermens, Verboort; Louis Hermens, McMinnville; Cornelius W., McMinnville; Mrs. John Peters, Verboort; Peter M. Hermens, Sublimity; Mrs. John VanDyke, Verboort; Mrs. Peter Krieger, McMinnville, and Sister Juliana, of St. Mary's near Beaverton.

Present from abroad—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vandehey, West Depeere, Wis., Mrs. Vandehey being a sister of Mrs. Hermens, and Jos. Nackers, of Wrights-town, Wis., a nephew of Hermens.

The day was passed in a good old fashioned family reunion.

SPENCER—PALMATEER

Miss Lulu J. Palmateer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Palmateer, of Hillsboro, was united to Captain George C. Spencer, at Ashland, Oregon, June 18, 1911. The bride is well known at Hillsboro, where she has resided for many years, and where she has many friends. The groom is a well known and successful stockman of Ashland, and is interested in a big stock farm close to the Southern Oregon City. For a number of years he has been connected with the Oregon National Guard, and is Captain of his company. They will be at home to their friends, in Ashland, after Sept. 1.

Card of Thanks

The undersigned desire to thank those who so kindly gave us aid and sympathy during our recent bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late J. P. Gardner. His Children and Families. Hillsboro, Ore., June 19, 1911.

Some enthusiastic reporter writes the Argus that Scholls went to Reedville, the other day, and beat the Wheeler nine by a score of 43 to 0. As he didn't send up any affidavit to support the figures the article on the game isn't published. If the figures are correct Wheeler will sit in sackcloth and ashes until the season again opens in 1912. The correspondent intimates that the Scholls team wore a hole two feet deep, scoring at the home plate.

District No. 1, at West Union, has a nice lot of maple trees, around the school yard, and nearly every Spring the boys "tap" the trees in order to get the sap. At the annual meeting yesterday it was voted to stop the tapping, as it injured the trees. An order was also made excluding the ball games from the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodin came in from Glencoe, Monday evening, and departed the same evening for Astoria, where Mr. Goodin represents Glencoe Lodge at the Pythian Grand Lodge, and Mrs. Goodin went as delegate for the Hillsboro Pythian Sisters' Lodge.

John Loftis and wife were in from beyond Glencoe, Monday, Mr. Loftis being enroute to Astoria, to represent the Pythian Lodge at Glencoe, at the Astoria Grand Lodge.

George Hellaire and wife, of Glencoe, were in the county seat Monday.

W. T. Stratton, of Cornelius, was in the city Tuesday.
