

BEAVERTON - REEDVILLE

Acreage

The largest platting, the most rapid and extensive community development, the most highly fertile soil, and being handled by the largest and oldest acreage firm in Oregon.

Come with us and share the advantage of our experience and financial strength.

These beautiful tracts are only 40 minutes' ride on Fourth street or Oregon Electric line.

Just six miles west of Council Crest, ten miles from Courthouse by wagon road.

No freight or commission to pay; you get consumer's prices for your products.

Splendid 4-year old apple orchards demonstrate the soil. We will set a tract of this land to trees of your own selection for $25 per acre and upon terms. 300 acres here subdivided into tracts of 1/2 acre to 20 acres each, completed and traveled road along one or more sides of each tract, no matter how small; rural delivery or mail, free delivery of merchandise, good telephone service, good schools and churches convenient.

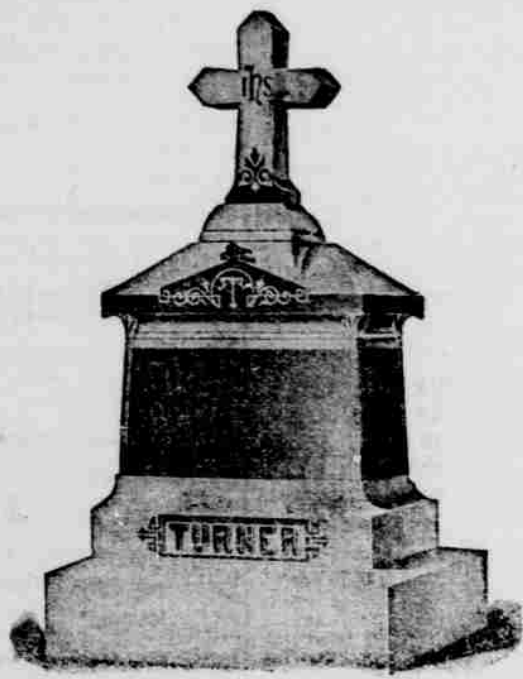

The assured growth of Portland means rapid increase of values on this acreage. Buy now and get advantage of the rise.

Tracts selling from $125 to $300 per acre and upon monthly payments if desired.

Call at our office, 102 Fourth street, and arrange to see these lands.

Herman Koenke, of Oak Park, interested in dairying, was in the county seat Saturday, with his family.

E. H. Jeter, of East Portland, formerly of Gaston, was in the city Monday morning, on circuit court business.

John Engeldinger, who is building his new cottage on Baseline, expects to put in an individual lighting plant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Oliver, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Oliver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Killington, of South Hillsboro.

Jacob Schmidt, of near Laurel, was in Saturday. He recently cut ten loads of hay from a little less than two acres of clover—a pretty good record.

H. W. Miller, the Shady Brook resident of years standing, and now making his home at Forest Grove, was down to the county seat Monday afternoon.

C. O. Roe, of Forest Grove, was down Monday, on business at the court house. C. O. is president of the board of directors of the Washington County baseball league.

George Harms, of near Mountaine, was in the city Monday. He says that here and there he noticed some hay down, getting the benefit of the rainfall the first of the week.

John E. Zimmerman, of beyond Glencoe, was in town Saturday, greeting his many county seat friends. John went up in his section when there was all kinds of a wilderness, and he is now beginning to see lots of daylight in the timber.

Mrs. T. C. Wadsworth, of near Wheeler, was in town the last of the week, the guest of her father, Dr. J. E. Adkins. T. C. is one of the busy farmers, these days, and he is making his tract in the Beaverton-Reedville Acreage bloom like a rose.

W. A. Spence, the well known Gaston farmer, and formerly connected with the big milling company of that place, was down from the Wapato country, Monday, on circuit court business, releasing judgments procured by him in settlement of business affairs.

Andrew Heckmann was in from Bethany, Saturday, and brought in two eggs which carry the belt for size against anything exhibited here this season. Both were from yearling pullets, one from an Andalusian and one a Rhode Island Red. The two would weigh over 8 ounces.

The District Attorney at Santa Rosa, Cal., writes Sheriff Hancock that on March 23 one L. R. Chisholm killed a J. D. Powell, near that place. He writes that he thinks they originally came from this section of Oregon. Any one knowing either of the men will confer a favor by locating their people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Doohar departed last week for Rice Lake, Wis., their old home, for an extended visit. They went East via the Oregon Electric and Hill lines, and expect to be absent all Summer. Mr. Doohar was formerly a lumberman in the big Wisconsin timber district, before that industry was shot to pieces a few years ago.

Sunday night a gentle rain broke ever this section of Oregon, and by Monday morning it was coming down, without a breath of wind, falling on the just and unjust alike. J. W. Connell says: "This is worth a million dollars to Washington County, alone. Even should we lose a little hay, or have it damaged slightly, we will still be gainers."

Herman Bishop, the Mountaine sawmill man, was in the city Saturday. He reports that Sam Sipp had a runaway the other day, resulting in a crushed foot, the wagon wheel having passed over the extremity. The loss was not confined to personal bruises, for Sam lost a valuable horse, one of the animals having broken a leg, necessitating shooting it. The animal was worth $250—and Sam probably would not have taken that much in gold for it.

Summons

In the Circuit Court for the State of Oregon for the County of Washington, Clara Schulz, plaintiff, vs. John Schulz, defendant.

To John Schulz, the above-named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 12th day of June, 1911, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from the first publication of this summons. If you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to wit: For a decree of divorce forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment exercised by the defendant upon the plaintiff herein.

This summons is published once a week for six successive weeks by order of the Honorable J. U. Campbell, Judge of the above entitled court, dated April 28, 1911, directing the publication thereof.

Date of first publication May 4, 1911.

Date of last publication June 8, 1911.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

Lewis W. Hibberd, Plaintiff, vs. Elsie E. Hibberd, Defendant.

To Elsie E. Hibberd, Defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, to wit: on or about Saturday, the 15th day of July, 1911, and if you fail to answer the plaintiff for a decree declaring the marriage entered into between you and the plaintiff at Eastern Illinois, on the 18th day of December, 1897, to be null and void from the beginning, and releasing William Hibberd, a boy aged 10 years, to the legitimate issue of said plaintiff and defendant to all interests and further decreeing plaintiff the care, custody and control of said child, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and just.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable J. W. Sewell, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, and said order was made and dated on the 25th day of May, 1911, in the absence of the circuit judge from Washington County, and the date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 1st day of June, 1911, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Thursday, the 12th day of July, 1911.
