CHANCE TO START IN HOG BUSINESS

Hill Lines Sends out Circulars to Agents on Roads

PROFITABLE INDUSTRY ENCOURAGED

Agent Cooper Will Report Names of Those Wanting to Invest

Agent Cooper has received a circular from the Hill management, asking that he take names and numbers wanted in case any Washington County farmers want to increase their herds of hogs. Fine, government inspected brood sows are being brought to the Portland stock yards in carload lots, and the following letter accompanying Mr. Cooper's circular, tells its own story, and was written by the Portland Union Stock Yards Company:

"In connection with our policy 'more and better hogs in the Northwest' we have brought from Nebraska several shipments of brood sows, which we have distributed at various points in Eastern Oregon and Washington. These hogs are strictly first-class, high-grade animals, and are bought at fat hog prices in Nebraska from territory certified to by Federal Inspectors, as entirely free from disease. The hogs themselves are inspected by state authorities before being shipped. They are hauled in wagons direct to cleaned and disinfected cars, never being allowed to go through a public stock yard, and are loaded in lots of about fifty to the car, with sufficient feed and water to run them through to destination without unloading. The original cost of the hogs, plus salary and expense of our man in charge, determines the price of the hogs to the buyers here in the West."

ISAAC N. HARRIS

Isaac N. Harris, aged 54 years, died at the home of his son, in North Hillsboro, at 4 o'clock, Saturday evening, June 24, 1911, from an attack of heart failure. He recently came here from Walla Walla, and made his home with his son, William Harris, who works for the Washington-Oregon Corporation—the local water and light system. The evening before his death, Mr. Harris has been to the drug store for medicine to quiet his nerves and it was at first thought he had taken an overdose. This, however, was not the case. The funeral took place Monday. His wife died many years ago.

Why buy inferior Arsenate of Lead for spraying when you can buy pure "Sherwin & Williams" Arsenate of Lead at a less price. Call and investigate. Remember it has an absolute guarantee.—Connell & Co.

On and after April 25, 1911, the Groner & Rowell Co. will have a stock of 3, 4, 5, 6, 10 and 12 inch drain tile, on hand; and on and after May 12, all sizes up to 14 inch. Anyone wanting large size tile, please place your order before May 1, as we only make large sizes during the month of May. It will pay you to place your orders with us, as we burn our tile to a better color than our competitors, as our wood only costs us a trifle. We also have a good stock of rough and dressed lumber, which we invite the public to inspect, before purchasing elsewhere. Our flooring is made from red fir timber and will wear much better than flooring made from the soft yellow fir timber.

Aviation.

The British government has only ten war aeroplanes standing to its credit, but negotiations are in progress for several others.

Shells with a detonating force sufficient to wreck an aeroplane within a hundred yards of where they explode have been invented for the German army.

In France the operators of aeroplanes are held responsible for damage done to persons or property when coming to the earth. In two cases such operators have been found guilty of homicide and punished, although the punishment was not as great as that for other forms of the same crime.

Dress Hints.

Always shrink a new braid before sewing to skirt; otherwise the bottom of the skirt will become puckered the first time of wearing in a shower of rain.

Always begin at the shoulders in fitting a blouse. If the shoulders are fitted in the proper manner you need have no fear about the rest of the bodice.

To clean white plumes make a thin paste from gasoline and flour. Dip plumes and cover with paste. Lay aside to dry, then shake well, and plumes will come out clean and fluffy.

Train and Track.

The government of Jamaica now operates 184 miles of railway. Of these 120 miles were built by American syndicates.

More than one-third of a billion passengers carried in eighteen years and a half and not one killed as the result of a train accident is the claim made by the Long Island railroad.

One hundred and fifty-two miles of the government railway lines in Victoria, Australia, have been relaid during the past three years with American rails, 142 miles of eighty pound rails and ten miles of hundred pound rails.

Bacona, Ore., June 19, 1911.

This week's Argus is the largest paper ever issued from a Hillsboro press, occasioned by the publication of nearly two pages of street paving and sewer assessments. The copy reached the printer at midnight, Monday, and through the kindness of the Oregonian, with its big battery of machines, the 200 pounds or more of linotype was ready for the press by ten o'clock Tuesday night—and the darned thing didn't seem to interfere with the big daily going to press, either! The newsboys were calling their papers shortly after daylight Wednesday morning, just the same as usual, b'gosh!
