BERNARD WUNDERLICH KILLED BY DYNAMITE

Was With Crowd at a Charivari,
Friday Night, at Cawrse Place

LIVED BUT AN HOUR AND HALF

Was Conscious After Explosion, and Declared he Would Live

Bernard Wunderlich, aged about 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wunderlich, of near Centerville, was killed by the explosion of a stick of dynamite, near the Joseph Cawrse place, near Leisyville, Friday evening. He and a company of young fellows went to the Cawrse home with the intention of giving John Cawrse and wife a charivari. Shortly after they reached the house, Jos. Cawrse told the young fellows he would permit no dynamite explosions on the premises, as he would not stand for having his windows smashed by the concussion. There are conflicting stories about the case, some contending that at this time one of the sticks of powder had been ignited. At any event young Wunderlich took the explosive and started out into the highway, accompanied by Frank Reh Jr., of Centerville. They went on ahead of the crowd several hundred feet away from the buildings, and Wunderlich then stopped and applied a match to one of the pieces. It is thought that he had previously lighted one, for before he could light the second stick an explosion took place. Wunderlich was thrown to the ground, a part of his clothing torn from him, and the concussion shattered his breast and abdomen. He soon commenced to vomit, and, retaining consciousness, declared to his horror-stricken friends that he would live, and that he soon would be all right again. Dr. Linklater was summoned and reached the unfortunate young man some minutes before he passed away.

Frank Reh, who declares he was within ten feet of Wunderlich when the explosion came, was thrown to the ground, and today bears the marks of the powder, his face being badly spotted, and his eyes terribly bloodshot. Reh states that he and Wunderlich were considerable in advance of the crowd. Fred Reverman was not far from the explosion. Catcher Behrman, of the Cornelius ball nine, was present, and says that it was a miracle that young Reh was not killed outright. After the explosion, Reh rushed back to the crowd, and told them that the giant had exploded and knocked him one way, and Wunderlich the other. Reh had a dozen sticks of giant in his hand when the concussion felled him. The bride and groom were not at home, having gone elsewhere, in order to avoid the noisy demonstration.

Young Wunderlich was a brother of John Wunderlich, who conducts a furniture store at Banks, and was also a brother of the Banks baseball catcher. His family are grief-stricken over the tragedy.

Thos. H. Tongue Jr.,
Executors of the last Will and Testament of Rebecca Tongue, Deceased.
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.

Try the Argus for a year.

Ed. Northrup and sons, of Shady Brook, have the record for getting coyotes, having bagged six of the varmints this Summer. They caught a female the other day which Northrup declares was larger than a hound in height, and he states that she whipped all the dogs in the section. Two or three of the youngsters were offsprings of the old one, and the half dozen will depopulate the sheep killers to a small extent. Northrup says there are many of them in near the Jos. Connell place.

M. M. Mead, who has just finished two and one-half miles of Mountain road for Clatsop County, near Cannon beach, returned to Hillsboro Friday, accompanied by his son, Lee. He has been down there for 10 months, and says he had a splendid winter, with all the clams and fish one could want, and very few days that were so stormy the men could not work. He will go down to Astoria in a few days and settle up with the commissioners' court, and may then locate back in Hillsboro.

For sale: Altman-Taylor, 307 inch cylinder grain separator; this thrasher has been used last season only; weigher and blower complete go with it. Will take $250, cash; or one year bankable note, at 8 per cent.—A. L. Holcomb, Hillsboro, Route 1, Pacific States Telephone Farmers 307.

Albert Asbahr, graduate of O. A. C., is now in California, for an extended visit to experimental stations, and while South he will visit the famous Burbank gardens. He returns to Medford later, and next Fall will take a position with a Pendleton school, in the chair of horticulture and farming. He is now in San Jose, and writes his father, Julius Asbahr, that he is having a pleasant trip.

Good mare for sale: Dapple gray, 6 years, 1300 pounds, with colt at side. Gentle and sound, and fine to work, single or double.—Peter Jossy, Hillsboro, R. 1, near West Union, Pacific States Telephone, Farmers 18x2 Glencoe. 16-8

Paul Landauer and wife, of West Union, were in town Saturday. Mr. Landauer recently purchased 20 acres from the original Whitten place, paying $3,000 therefor. The Electric survey, running from Oreco to the United, runs not far from the tract, and it bids fair to become even more valuable.

We have what you want in vegetable plants—over 200,000 kale plants; 100,000 cabbage plants; 50,000 tomato plants, and most any kind of vegetable plants. Come and see for yourself, at Morton's Greenhouse, Hillsboro. 8-1f

J. J. Krebs departed Friday for Milwaukee, representing two Swiss Societies, one at Portland, and one at Spokane. When Jacob pulled in to Spokane there was a big delegation from the Spokane organization ready to meet him.

Eastbound Yellowstone National Park round trip excursion fares are in effect June 12 to Sept. 12. You had better come in and see Agent Cooper, of the Oregon Electric and Hill lines, about this trip and get literature giving full description. 10-1f

C. Cheyne, of above Gaston, working for Hez Stott, was in town Saturday. He states that Stott has just been discharged from a lengthy attendance at Federal Court, Portland, as a juror.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market—made in Oregon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a Grand Marca. 12-1f

C. A. Peterson, one of Buxton's pioneers, was in town the last of the week. He and J. R. Bailey were witnesses to the Ferd Greener will, in probate court.

Herbert Mattieson, of Gaston, was down to the city Saturday. Herb has been one of the active game wardens under the Stevenson administration.

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

John Pierson, formerly of Reedville, and now residing at Portland, was out to the county seat Saturday, and called on the Argus.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl. 12-1f

CATHERINE HERMENS PASSES AT VERBOORT

Had Celebrated Her Golden Wedding but Few Days Prior

LEAVES HUSBAND AND 9 CHILDREN

Settled in Verboort, North of Cornelius, in 1883

Mrs. Catherine Hermens, wife of Williams Hermens, died at the family home in Verboort, Wednesday afternoon, June 28, 1911, just eleven days after celebrating her golden wedding, with all her children and grandchildren about her. She was born in Burebeck, Belgium, May 31, 1839, and came to America in 1856. She wedded William Hermens at Depere, Wisconsin, June 16, 1861, and in 1883 the family moved to Oregon, being one of the first to make settlement in the colony established by Father Verboort. Thirteen children were born to Mrs. Hermens, nine of whom are living. Fifty-eight grandchildren bless her memory.

The aged husband, who was born in 1830, and who will be 81 years of age in October of this year, with the following children, survive: Mrs. John Bernards, McMinnville; Antone Hermens, the well known Verboort ranchman and horseman; Louis Hermens, McMinnville; Cornelius W. Hermens, McMinnville; Mrs. Jno. Peters, Verboort; Peter M. Hermens, Sublimity; Mrs. John Vanduyke, Verboort; Mrs. Peter Krieger, McMinnville; and Sister Juliana, of St. Mary's, Beaverton. Mrs. Hermens was dearly beloved by a wide circle of friends in her community, and was a splendid type of motherhood.

Her death has its pathetic side, for on June 17th all her children and grandchildren, and many his neighbors and friends were at the Antone Hermens home at the celebration of her fifty years of wedded life.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction at their place, 3-4 of a mile north of Elmonica, on the Albert Kechn place, and about 7 miles east of Hillsboro, at ten a. m., on

Schilling & Prayter,
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.
John Vanderwal, Clerk.

MORE HOLSTEINS

Andrew Bendler, of beyond Leisyville, was in the city Friday. He and Mr. Zetzman recently returned from a trip to Wisconsin, and New York, and while at Tully, in the Empire State, Bendler purchased 9 head of Holsteins, ranging from calves to two year olds, all thoroughbred and registered, while Mr. Zetzman bought seven head. The herd was shipped via the Southern Pacific. Mr. Bendler says that one would be surprised at the immense Holstein shipments, carloads leaving every day. While there a carload was shipped out to Japan; one to California, and several others to Western points. He states that the dairy districts of the East exhibit the best of prosperity, and that the little cities are all clean and well kept. Mr. Bendler is gradually getting together a fine herd of Holsteins, and he thinks they are the A. 1 dairy stock.

George Rieben, of Banks, June graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, of Corvallis, has been appointed to the position of Horticulturist at the Eastern Oregon Experiment station, at Union. Mr. Rieben graduated with high honors, and was very popular at the school. For a number of years he was one of the stars on the baseball team, and the school won many of its notable victories when he was on the pitching staff.

H. C. Pearson, of Iowa Hill, was in the city Saturday.

W. Reynard, of Laurel, was in the county seat the last of the week.

Monmouth Butter at Emmott Bros. Try it—it is the real thing.

Dan Leisy, of South Tualatin, was over to the metropolis, Saturday.

Fred Gordon, of near North Plains, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Rudolph Tschanz, of Helvetia, was down to the city Saturday morning.

Miss Rose Cave, stenographer for Hon. W. N. Barrett, is enjoying a vacation.

C. G. Seth, of Hillside, was down to the county seat, Friday, and called on the Argus.

C. H. Jacobs, of the Garden Tracts, was out from Portland, Sunday, looking over the city.

Elmer Miller, of Shady Brook, and Henry Johnson, of beyond Glencoe, were county seat visitors Monday.

Weaned pigs for sale.—F. M. Crabtree, one mile from Laurel. Independent phone, 2559, Laurel line. 17-9

Lloyd Ingram, who is now "grandpa" for the third time, was in from North Tualatin Plains, Saturday.

Money to loan on real estate security. We sell farms. Try us.—The Webfoot Realty Co., Hillsboro. 12-1f

Alec Gordon, of near Glencoe, was in town Monday. He says that crops are good—but weather bad for haying.

First-class driving horse for sale. Will also work.—Inquire of O. G. Wilkes, at Wilkes Bros. Garage, Hillsboro. 11-1f

General Manager Lytle went over to Tillamook, Saturday, on a tour of inspection at the coast end of the P. R. & N.

Fred Schomburg came in from his Mountindale ranch the last of the week, for a few days vacation with his family.

H. J. Smith, of Roy, was in town Friday, and called on the Argus. He states that crops are looking fine out at Roy.

W. B. Peterson, superintendent of the Ray hopyards, at Witch Hazel, was in Saturday, and reports the vines doing nicely.

Gus Steves, of Virginia Place, and who generally puts in some hard work on the government canal, near Celilo, was an Argus caller, Friday.

Miss Bessie Durham, a niece of Geo. G. Hancock, arrived Monday morning from California, for an extended visit. Her home is in Peoria, Illinois.

F. J. Williams, who has considerable hay in the shock, put up before the rains of last week, stated Monday that it was not perceptibly injured.

Jacob Schmidt and wife, of Laurel, passed through town Saturday, enroute to Bethany, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. John Martz.

Bartlett LaRue, of Woodland, Wash., was here over the Fourth, the guest of D. B. Emrick. Since his last trip to Hillsboro he finds much improvement here.

F. W. Sagert, of Tualatin, was in town Saturday, a guest with A. L. Grebe, of Laurel. Mr. Sagert raises onions, and says that things are looking fine down his way.

For sale at a bargain—2 1/2-horse power upright steam engine and 8 H. P. boiler.—Inquire H. J. Smith, Forest Grove, Ore., Route 2, Pacific States phone, Forest Grove Central, 10x1. 17-9

Russell Morgan, the youngest son of Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, fell from a cherry tree in the C. Blaser yard, Friday, and suffered a dislocated wrist. Dr. W. D. Wood attended the injury.

The Washington County Land Co. has an unique display in its show window in the Hotel Washington Building, showing the purchases made in the Hillsboro Garden Tracts addition to the city.

Chief of Police Blaser directed a junk man to kill one of his horses, which was "cast" at the Batchelar barn, on Main Street, the last of the week. The animal was down and unable to get up, and it was just a question of time when it would have died. A revolver shot ended the equine's career. The owner was a Portland buyer, and neither of his animals gave evidence of proper care.

HILLSBORO BEATEN BY GROVE COLTS

Ragged Game Results in Victory for the Grove Colts

BANKS-CORNELIUS GAME CALLED

Latter Game Cancelled Because of Wunderlich Death

The Cardinals went up to Haines, Sunday, with fire in their eyes, and came back trimmed, the Forest Grove Colts winning by a score of six to three. The game was ragged in spots, and yet full of interest. Bettis pitched for the county seaters, re-inforced the last inning by Gillenwater. Martin twirled for the Colts. At the end of the game Hillsboro had won five games and lost four; while Forest Grove had lost six and won three.

The line-up:

The Banks-Cornelius game was cancelled, owing to the death of Bernard Wunderlich, a brother of one of the Banks' players.

Hereafter the Cornelius Cubs' home grounds will be at the Hillsboro Athletic Park diamond, this having been decided the first of the week. The isolation of the Haines grounds did not make for good financial support when the Cubs played any other nine except Forest Grove, and they felt that a change would be beneficial from the gate-receipts standpoint.

CHICKENS FOR SALE

Three dozen full blood Rhode Island Red hens, at $9 per dozen; also 2 dozen White Leghorn cockerels, full blood, at 50 cents each. A few broilers, also.—Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Hillsboro. 17-20

W. J. Gregg, the hopgrower of Leisyville, was in town Monday, and reports the vines doing splendidly.

Ferd Groner and wife in a few days will start East on their tour, and will use an automobile after they arrive in the Mississippi States.

Lettie G. Tannock, of beyond Glencoe, has filed suit for divorce against Allen G. Tannock, the basis of her complaint being cruel treatment and refusal upon the part of her husband to permit her to visit or be visited by her brothers. She asks for one-third of the realty and $1,500 alimony toward the support of the five minor children. They were married in August, 1895. She alleges in her complaint that her husband went to Scotland, last year, and left her without the necessary funds for the expenses of the family.

While the city is putting in a sewer and pavement it might be well for the mayor and council to think of that old antiquated watering trough, and replace it with a fountain at the intersection of Main and Second. A fund in the Native Sons, amounting to perhaps $175, could doubtless be procured for the purpose, and there is a small sum in the Philippine Soldiers' monument fund, which might also be placed in the "pot," provided its mark were left on the fount. With a little help from the city, and with a little private subscription, a neat fountain and watering place could be built. Besides, it is a necessity. Clerk J. W. Bailey will assist in raising a little of the money, and many others will doubtless fall into line.
