It is said that the Congregational Church block, at Forest Grove, will have to pay about $8,000 for paving, and this makes the property more or less of a white elephant, as there is no income from rentals. The County of Washington, however, will pay a sum in excess of this, as the entire block on which the court house stands, is charged up with both sewer and paving.

O. W. Epperson and wife, of St. Johns, were out the past week, guests of their daughter, Mrs. Oscar Kelsay. Their son, Mack Epperson, is still running on a locomotive out of Portland, on the O. W. R. & N., as fireman, and will soon get his engineer's promotion.
