ORENCO AND HILLSBORO IS VISITED BY PORTLAND

Agent Cooper, of Oregon Electric, Meets Excursion in Rose City

VIEWED THE OREGON NURSERY PLANT

Ten Came to Hillsboro for Visit to Historic County Seat

It is safe to say that Portland's representative business men, comprised of the Realty Associates of the city, never had a more pleasurable visit than that enjoyed last Saturday afternoon, when they visited Orenco and Hillsboro, through the courtesy of an excursion on the Oregon Electric. The visit was planned by Messrs. McDonald & McGill, of the Nursery Company, the Hillsboro Board of Trade, and Messrs. C. H. Jacobs and Magill, of the Garden Tracts. Agent S. Cooper, the local O. E. agent, went to Portland and came out with the travelers. They arrived at Orenco about 2:30 and were taken over the magnificent holdings of the nursery people, and then came on to Hillsboro via the electric and automobiles, and it is safe to say that the gentlemen who are so much of Portland's civic life never witnessed a more beautiful section. Arriving at Hillsboro, the party viewed the city and then went down to the grove on the Hillsboro Garden Tracts, where Mr. Jacobs served refreshments. Mayor H. T. Bagley delivered one of his characteristic addresses, and other speakers were Messrs. C. C. Chapman, C. H. Fleming, Frank L. Purse, Geo. W. Hazen, Phil Bates, A. S. Ellis, C. H. Jacobs, Chas. Fries, Dr. J. P. Tamesie and Dave Houston's cherries spoke for him.

In the evening, at 7:30 a party assembled at the Hotel Washington, as the guests of Dr. J. P. Tamesie, president of the Board of Trade. A seven course dinner was served, and Dr. Tamesie presided as toastmaster. The following were at table, and responses were made by C. C. Chapman, Wilbur F. Rose, G. E. Williams, Frank L. Purse, M. J. Butler, Geo. W. Hazen, N. H. Alexander, W. Mahan, C. H. Jacobs and Mayor H. T. Bagley. Others at table were: Wm. Nelson, S. Cooper, A. C. Shute, D. O. Jacobs and Mr. Magill.

The party from Portland: J. J. Flynn, Frank McCrillis, Chas. Haggle and wife, Thos. Rogers and wife, Miss Emma Whitney, W. B. Dodson, of the Evening Telegram, O. Jensvold, Phil Bates, J. H. Nichols, A. S. Ellis, L. B. Snyder, H. W. Priddyman, F. S. Smart, H. F. Higby, L. Moran, W. E. Thompson, M. J. Butler, E. L. Mills, Henry L. Smith, G. B. Crabtree, A. W. Spalding, H. G. and Ben Reiland, Judge C. L. Lameroux, C. H. Fleming, Samuel R. Norton, R. G. Brand, J. L. Wells, C. S. Fryer, A. V. Calkins, H. D. Storey, Louis Salomon, C. A. Ruff, Chas. Ringler, Frank L. Purse, Thos. Kissane, M. J. Cashel, G. C. Ewen, S. MacDonald, Frank E. Lowrey and wife, W. B. Westlake and wife, Geo. W. Hazen, J. E. Harahan, L. D. Alexander, Frank A. Steele, H. Pretry Line, Thos. Withcombe, D. A. Shindler, Lloyd M. Mills, J. E. Rand, J. A. Jackson, Wilbur F. Rose (Philadelphia), C. C. Chapman, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, John F. Daly, M. W. Waltz, G. E. Williams (Philadelphia) and Francis Line and wife.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received by J. W. Reynard, School Clerk of District No. 105, Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 2, until Tuesday, August 15, 1911, at six o'clock in the evening, and then opened for the construction of a school building. Plans and specifications may be seen at the home of the above school clerk, on and after this date. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and a bond will be required for the faithful performance of the contract when contract is awarded.

J. W. Reynard, Clerk of School District No. 105, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2, Ind. Tel., 52, Scholls line. Dated July 27, 1911. 20-2

The grand jury's report is found in another place in this issue. The inquisitorial body takes another crack at the poor farm, and advises that the authorities make another system of caring for the poor.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market—made in Oregon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a Grand Marca. 12tf

Miss Mabel Glascoe, of Seattle, is in the city for a fortnight's visit with her mother, Mrs. Frances Glascoe.

A little Irishman aged about 60 years, who has been around Hillsboro for several days, is one of the "old boys" who can come back. It took three men to put him in the calaboose, the other day without hurting him. Of course, he could have been clubbed, but this was not desired. The little fellow has abundance of muscle and if Jim Jeffreys could take lessons from the old man in physical culture or had taken lessons—there might have been a different story at that Nevada contest with the yellow peril. Sunday evening the son of Erin mixed with a man in front of the Second Street restaurant and won the championship belt.

"Stop—look—read—The Kinton Band will give a dramatic entertainment, Band Concert and Ice cream social, on Saturday evening, August 5, at the Kinton school house. Everybody invited. Plenty of ice cream and soft drinks for all. 20-21

E. Speitzer, who lived here years ago, and who moved to Portland fifteen years back, was out Monday, greeting his oldtime Hillsboro friends. This is his first trip to Hillsboro since he took up his residence in Portland. He still works a little at his shoemaker trade, and his son and daughter conduct a little store and ice cream parlor, on Twenty Fourth Street, near the ball grounds. "My but how the old town has grown since I was here, and I'm glad to see it, too," said Mr. Speitzer.

Registered Berkshire pigs, four weeks old, for sale. Two male and five female. Choicest stock. Geo. Harrow, Hillsboro, R. 4, near Oak Park. 18-20

C. C. Chapman, with the Portland Chamber of Commerce, made his initial trip to Hillsboro, Saturday afternoon, and he was very much impressed with the wonderful agricultural and horticultural resources. Mr. Chapman has traveled all over the Northwest, and he says that nowhere has he found a better prospect and better conditions.

Taken up—Dehorned cow, probably fresh in fall. Owner prove property and pay charges.—J. A. Vandehey, Cornelius, R. 1, on Harrington place. 19-21

The open season for buck deer begins August 1, and the Nimrods about Hillsboro and Forest Grove are getting ready for the fray. Deer are plentiful in the mountains of Washington County, and one was seen not far from Mountindale the other day. The season is not open for does.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl. 12tf

Agent Cooper reports good ticket sales to Seaside, Clatsop, and other beach resorts. The best train from Hillsboro is the Oregon Electric 7:05 a. m. car, reaching Portland in time to catch the 9:20 a. m. out of that city.

For sale: Fine, young, gentle Jersey cow, fresh about September 15. A good milker.—Jos. Brandenberg, Orenco. 19-21

Engineer Follett has moved into the new residence recently built by Dr. F. A. Bailey, on Oak Street, vacating the home in which he lived, on Baseline, between Second and Third, where his family have lived several years.

William H. Crabtree and Mrs. Annie E. Catching were united in marriage at 1140 Gay Street, Portland, Ore., Rev. Bowersox officiating. The contracting parties are well and favorably known at Forest Grove.

Sam Galbreath, of Tualatin, was a city visitor Monday. Sam was born and reared in Washington County, and comes as near knowing the by-paths and highways as the next man.

For sale: Two brood sows and pigs; one has litter at side, and other soon to litter. Full blood Duroc-Jerseys.—F. W. Delsman, North Hillsboro. 20-22

John H. Stevenson, a Portland attorney, came out Friday, and went on up to spend the Sunday vacation with his father, Judge R. O. Stevenson, at Elk Horn Farm, Gales Creek.

Miss Byrnette Schooling, who is spending her vacation in Oregon away from the heat of California, was out Sunday, the guest of Mrs. H. T. Bagley.

John Lippert, the Buxton carpenter and builder, was in the city Monday, greeting his county seat friends.

Wanted—An experienced girl for general work.—Inquire at City Restaurant. 20

OCTOGENARIAN MALE AND WELL BALANCED

Came to Oregon in 1852, Plains and Barkentine

CARRIED NEWS OF PIERCE'S ELECTION

Reads Two Daily Papers Every Day at Age of Eighty-One

Kenyon Crandall, who has been in Oregon since 1852, celebrated his 81st birthday last Friday, and was the recipient of a handsome gold watch from his relatives as an appreciation of his genuine worth.

He was born in Rennsalaer County, New York, July 21, 1830, and came to Oregon in 1852, crossing the plains in the same wagon train that conveyed Harvey W. Scott to the West.

He left the party at Salt Lake, and went to San Francisco, taking the barkentine Geo. C. Devins, Captain Wiggins, to Portland. He arrived in Portland, Dec. 17, 1852, and walked out to Hillsboro in a blinding snow storm. The vessel on which he came to Portland carried the news of the Pierce election. Prior to leaving the East, Mr. Crandall was sailing the seas, and made a trip into the Adriatic and touched at various Mediterranean points. After reaching Oregon, he hailed to the Sandwich Islands for his health, making the trip in 1854. For a number of years he has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Long. For his years he remains remarkably healthy, and his mind is as strong as the average man of 50. He daily peruses the Oregonian and the San Francisco Examiner, and keeps well abreast of current events. He is a Jacksonian Democrat, and remembers every great political event. His memory on events and people is remarkably clear, and he is a sort of godfather to Hillsboro attorneys, as every little while he makes affidavits for them in the way of locating people who lived here back in the dim vista of the past. In the olden times he ran for assessor and was defeated by but one vote, and Uncle Kenyon swears by all that is holy that he voted for his opponent, or it would have been a tie. He and the late Mr. Scott, in later years, were on pleasant terms, and the veteran editor never missed an opportunity to send his personal regards to the Hillsboro pioneer.

WILL HAVE A TIE CHAIN

Farmers have been wondering what would become of the tie-chain when the city improvements are completed. The Argus has it on good authority that a good tie-place will be put in on Second Street, as well as on Main, around the court house square. These will be conveniences dear to the hearts of the country people, and while there are a number who deprecate teams being tied along the streets, there are many who think that there is not better advertisement than a lot of well-fed horses tethered to public tying places. In any event we are to have the tie-places, and the Argus is one to say "Ah-men."

Born, July 21, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews, of Hillsboro, a daughter. The little girl should be able to take care of herself, as she was born on the anniversary of the Battle of Bull Run.

Elbridge Cheney, of above Banks, is talking of trading off the farm in the hills and moving to Hillsboro to spend the remainder of this day.

Edward Baylee, of West Union, was in the city the last of the week.

G. W. Whitmore, of near Laurel, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Found: Gold brooch, with monogram initials. Inquire at Hillsboro National Bank. 20

Wanted: Women and girls. Steady employment. Inquire at Moore's laundry, Hillsboro, Oregon. 18tf

Arnold F. Moore and Elizabeth Kesler were united in marriage, July 20, 1911, Judge W. D. Smith officiating.

Friday dawned with a cooler atmosphere, and the change was not unwelcome, after the ten days of heat.

N. Cooper, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro, Saturday, the guest of his son, Virgil, of the local water and light system.

Up to last Saturday, 31 ministers have filed papers with County Clerk Bailey qualifying them to perform marriage ceremonies.

J. G. Schmitt, of Elmonica, was in town Saturday. He will soon have a new residence and new barn on his Elmonica property.

Postmaster R. P. Cornelius was in attendance at the funeral of the late Hon. G. W. Marsh, at Centerville, which took place Saturday forenoon, at 10 o'clock.

Money to loan on farm or other property, on approved security. We also sell real estate.—Kuratt Brothers, Main Street, between First and Second. 20tf

Mrs. Julius Weisenbeck, of Reedville, was in the city Saturday. Julius is busy these days operating a baler, and has already been in the field 15 days.

Reedville Blacksmith Shop—General blacksmithing; professional horse-shoer; machine and wagon work. All orders promptly executed.—Peter Christensen. 19-22

Hop prices are up in good shape, and the grower this season should get good round figures for his crop. California is reporting a partial failure, and their misfortune is Oregon's gain.

General Manager C. E. Lytle left for the Tillamook end of the line the last of the week, accompanied by M. M. Mead, who went over to look at some grading contract work at Lake Lytle.

The Federal Judge at St. Louis will not place the Woman's League assets in the hands of the receivership of the balance of Lewis' assets—and this will give the members of the league a chance to suffer little, if any, loss.

We have what you want in vegetable plants—over 200,000 kale plants; 100,000 cabbage plants; 50,000 tomato plants, and most any kind of vegetable plants. Come and see for yourself, at Morton's Greenhouse, Hillsboro. 8-tf

Many people close to the business section are taking advantage of the deposits caused by grading the streets to fill in their yards, thus improving their property at little expense, as the city charges nothing for the earth thrown out. This saves the cost of removing to the city.

Taken up: Gray gelding, about 4 years old, branded U on right hip. Came to place July 14. Owner call, prove property, pay charges and advertising, and take same away.—H. M. Bastford, 1 mile N. E. of Farmington. Independent Phone Road Division, 515, Hillsboro, Route 2. 19-21

The city engineer's office condemned over 100 joints of sewer pipe on the single block surrounding the court house. This will mean a big loss, either to the company furnishing the pipe, or the contractor. Some of the pipe was faulty in construction, and some of the sections were cracked, either in loading, or in transit, or in unloading or delivering. Anyway, they were unfit, and not allowed to be placed in the ditch.

An old Dane who is stopping as the guest of Washington county, down at the county farm, came to the city Monday and proceeded to get too much of the cup that both cheers and inebriates. The old fellow started home, but when he rounded the corner at Main, owing to the condition of the street, he found choppy seas ahead. This discouraged him and he laid down with his bald pate exposed to the sun. Chief Blaser rounded him up and placed him in cold storage until evening, when he was allowed to go back "home."

RECORDER FILES ON CITY LIEN DOCKET

All Assessments, Sewer and Paving, Now Matter of Record

PUBLICATION MADE THIS WEEK

No Annual Payment of Less Than $25 to be Accepted

City Recorder Benton Bowman, assisted by W. N. Barrett Jr., has recorded all the apportionments for the cost of sewerage and paving in the city lien docket, and the publication of the list of charges appears this week in the Argus and Independent. The matter of filing in the docket, and the subsequent clerical work is the greatest amount of duty ever required of the Recorder's office, and every person is to be mailed a notice, aside from that of publication.

No application for the 10 year payment can be made where the assessed value is greater than the valuation in the Washington County Assessor's office, and no annual payment is to be accepted for less than twenty-five dollars. This means that where a piece of property is assessed at more than the regular Assessor's valuation, one must first pay enough cash in to reduce to that sum, and then the ten year procedure can be taken up.

Special ordinances are made for property used for religious purposes, so these institutions may take advantage of the time payments.

Aside from the church property there is but one or two places where the charges of improvement exceed the assessed valuations.

GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT

The grand jury returned its report Monday noon, and adjourned subject to call. Its report reads:

"That we have returned 8 true bills, and one not true bill. We have examined into the conditions of the County Poor Farm, and find the buildings in an unsanitary condition, and the place in unsatisfactory condition. We do not wish to censure either the county court or the person in charge of said poor farm, for the reason that there seems to be some question as to the furnishing of certain materials on said farm, but we do believe that the conditions there should be improved immediately, and do not approve of the way the contract or the keeping of the county poor are now made. We believe that a sufficient sum should be paid by the county for the keep of each inmate, and that said contract should then be fully complied with, and we also recommend that in the future, the county furnish the medical services and the medicine necessary for the inmates of said farm as we do not believe that under the present conditions and contract the most satisfactory results can be obtained. We find in said farm 1 female and 7 males.

We have also examined into the condition of the offices in the county court and find the officers courteous, and the offices apparently well kept, but have not examined the books for any of the offices for the reason that we have learned that they were experted by a competent expert within the past six months.

We have examined the county jail and find it clean and apparently well kept and in good condition.

We have made some investigation regarding the compliance with the law requiring the outside doors and other exits leading into theatres, churches, school buildings, public halls and other buildings used for public purposes, to be so swung and hinged that they will open to the outside, and find that said law is often disregarded, so much so that we do not deem it for the best interest to, at this time, indict all of the violators of said law, but would recommend that the sheriff, of this county, be instructed to make a thorough investigation of the matter and see that said law was enforced, and that he report to the next grand jury the names of the persons who have not complied with the law. (Signed,) J. C. Clark, Elmer Miller, F. C. Burgholzer, J. C. Schulmerich, Arthur N. Cutting, Peter Carlson, Thos. Connell."
