

BEAVERTON - REEDVILLE

Acreage

The largest platting, the most rapid and extensive community development, the most highly fertile soil, and being handled by the largest and oldest acreage firm in Oregon.

Come with us and share the advantage of our experience and financial strength.

These beautiful tracts are only 40 minutes' ride on Fourth street or Oregon Electric line.

Just six miles west of Council Crest, ten miles from Courthouse by wagon road.

No freight or commission to pay; you get consumer's prices for your products.

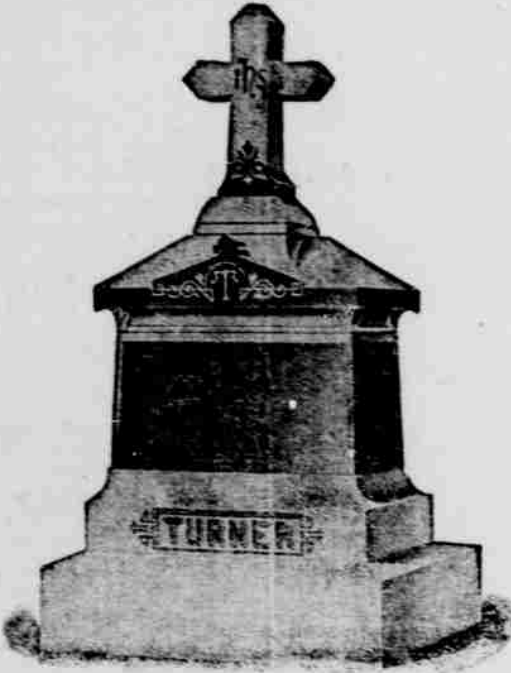

Splendid 4 year old apple orchards demonstrate the soil. We will set a tract of this land to trees of your own selection for $225 per acre upon terms.

Tracts selling from $125 to $300 per acre and upon monthly payments if desired.

Call at our office, 102 Fourth street, and arrange to see these lands.

Jos. Brandenburg, of Orengo, was in the city Monday morning.

Judge Hollis was down from Forest Grove Monday.

Wm. Broden, of Sewell, was in the city Monday morning.

G. Berggren, of North Plains, was an Argus caller, Monday.

J. N. Hoffman, of Forest Grove, was down to the city Monday.

L. L. Langley, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro, Monday, on legal business.

Arthur E. Dailey, mail carrier on one of the routes out of Laurel, was in the city Saturday.

Hon. E. W. Haines, of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday morning.

Frank McEldowney, of Portland, was out Sunday, the guest of his brother, W. H. McEldowney, of Forest Grove.

Cornelius will have a newspaper in the near future, and its editor is to be Virgil Massey, a well known young man of that city.

Geo. Harrow, of Oak Park, has been trying out on Route 4, so as to relieve Fred Olson when that regular carrier wishes to take his vacation.

John Ryan, carrier on Route 3 has been taking a vacation at the ranch at Helvetia, and his sister has been acting as substitute during his rest.

P. I. Lilligard was over from near Laurel, Monday, and says that he will have a fair crop, barring the missing hills, which are more numerous this season than for some time.

M. C. Lincoln departed this week for Kelly's Island, on Lake Erie, Ohio, where he goes to attend the National convention of the Grand Army of the Republic. He expects to be absent several weeks.

Wm. Bagley Sr., of Leisyville, was in the city Monday. He will have the biggest "individual" hop harvest this year of any man in Washington County. The Ray & Co. yards of Witch Hazel, exceed in acreage, however.

S. A. Curry and family and Harley Curry, of Hillsboro, and Miss Sallie Bull, of Orengo, departed this week for a vacation at Newport. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Harley Curry and Miss Bull, to be consummated after their return from Newport, and they will return to Oklahoma after the wedding.

Ben Marsh, of Centerville, and Gar Raymond, of Forest Grove recently returned from a trip to the Nehalem. Ben was in the city Monday and says that one evening the cook at the camp where they were stopping "saw" a deer. Raymond emptied his magazine at the venison and swore he saw it fall, while Ben thought he saw it jump the log. Investigation showed that Raymond had put about fifteen cartridges into a gray stump.

Chas. W. Hochstetler, Professor of the Chair of History and political Science at Huron College, South Dakota, arrived the last of the week, and is the guest of his brother Wm. Hostetler, of Reedville, and his uncle, Chief of Police Blaser, of this city. He is away on his annual vacation, and says that he sees evidence of great improvement here since his last visit, six years ago. He states that there is a short crop in South Dakota, this season, and times are slack all over the East.

The Secretary of the Board of Trade, N. H. Alexander, reports that Thomas Connell, of Glencoe, brought in a beautiful sample of Molds and Rink Wheat; Frederick Johansen, of Farmington, a fine bunch Norwegian Spring Oats; A. Naderer, of the Alder Spring Farm, a fine bundle each of White Winter Wheat and Gray Winter Oats; Peter Gottlieb brought in three samples of fine wheat and a fine bunch of oats. Kindly save a bundle of your grains to be used in the Fall display of Washington County products.

J. D. C. Thomas, a native Hillsboro boy, and for years with the Department of Interior, all over the middle West, arrived in the city the last of week with his wife and two children. He has been appointed U. S. Commissioner at Fort Rock, Ore., and left overland with a wagon and prairie schooner for the Central Oregon District, the first of the week. He expects to be ten days on the road, taking his time on the trip. He will cross over from some Southern Oregon point, and make his headquarters at Fort Rock. That section of Oregon has a great deal of homestead work and Mr. Thomas is familiar with that class of work. The fact that he is admitted to the bar will be a great aid to him in his new work. Mr. Thomas and family spent a day with A. E. McCumsey and family, beyond North Plains, and also a day with Marshal Baker and family, of near Laurel. While in the city they were guests at the J. E. Nichodemus home.
