An Austrian laborer, aged about 60 years, arrived in Hillsboro on the 9:23 electric Monday night, having arrived in Portland from Vancouver, B. C., that morning. He cashed Canadian currency in the sum of over $260, and two strangers rode on the train with him. They told him they knew where he could get cheap lodgings, and escorted the old fellow up Washington Street, beyond the Masters wood-yard, where one "strong-armed" while the other took a knife and cut his shirt, and robbed the poor old fellow. They then made a run for the ten o'clock car, and went toward Portland.

Louis Krieg and wife, of Philadelphia, O., returned today after a three weeks visit with E. H. Baird and wife. Mr. Baird took them above Timber, Monday, to see the big firs which are the prizewinners of the Oregon timberland. They return East with a great admiration for Oregon.

Wm. Schulmerich, of Farmington, was in town Tuesday, feeling pleased over his Jersey bull, Monmouth Noble, receiving five first prizes at the State fair. This is a distinction won by no other animal in his class.

Mrs. Chas. Yergen, of Laurel, has just returned from Portland where she underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital.
