

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XVIII

HILLSBORO, OREGON, OCTOBER 19, 1911.

NO. 32

ORE. BRIGADE U. R. K. P. ATTACHED WASHINGTON

State Did Not Give Uniform Rank Sufficient Numerical Support

STATE BRIGADE IS DISBANDED

Cities Like Salem, Eugene and Astoria were Not Energetic

Oregon today is without a brigade of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias. This is due to the fact that cities like Salem, Eugene, Medford, Ashland and Astoria were indifferent to the military rank of the order—the only organization that had congressional acknowledgment at Washington, D. C.—and orders came last week, telling the Hillsboro Company that hereafter the company, with all other companies in the state, were under the Washington Brigade. Seattle and Tacoma, together with Spokane, have given this rank a big support, while Portland, with a numerical strength greater than any one of the trio, has been slow to give the rank any encouragement. Brigadier-General L. M. Hoyt, of this city, did all he could to interest the larger cities in Oregon to recruit their companies, but Portland, the leading city of the state, was too busy to "get busy."

This threw the burden of keeping up the rank to the smaller towns, one of which was Hillsboro. The Hillsboro company has been mustered in many years, and has had as high as three hundred men at a time. McMinnville also gave the rank a good support—but the larger places slept, and as a result, Oregon on longer has a brigade.

C. E. Holcomb, Owner.
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.
H. A. Kuratli, Clerk.

J. C. Smith, of Greenville, was in the city Friday, greeting his oldtime friends.

John Gerber, of near Cedar Mill, was in town Friday, and called on the Argus.

J. A. Johnson, the big road supervisor of below Beaverton, was up to the city Friday.

Nels Larsen, of below Road Bridge, was in Friday. He is supervisor of his road district.

D. Woods, of South Tualatin, was in the city Monday. He is thinking of moving into the city.

Stock carrots, in ground, or will deliver; cabbage in any quantity. Also tomatoes.—D. P. Corrieri, Hillsboro, Pacific States Tel. 59. P. O. box 495. 31-3

Mrs. C. E. Lytle and son, Kingsley, and daughter, Miss Marian, returned Sunday evening, after an extended visit with relatives in Pennsylvania and other Eastern points.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Coffee Club at the home of Mrs. J. J. Krebs, Saturday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, for the purpose of sewing for the fancy-work fair, to be given under club auspices, in December.

Dr. D. B. Griffin, of Portland, was the last of the week sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and to serve 30 days on the rockpile, for issuing a re-fill prescription calling for morphia to F. Lyons, of Hillsboro. One of the physicians at the hearing said that the prescription could have procured enough of the dope to kill 35 men.

The Groner & Rowell Co. have a large stock of drain tile, from 3 to 14 inch; also building blocks and brick. It will pay you to place your orders with us, as we burn our tile to a better color than our competitors, as our wood only costs us a trifle. We also have a good stock of rough and dressed lumber, which we invite the public to inspect, before purchasing elsewhere. Our flooring is made from red fir timber and will wear much better than flooring made from the soft yellow fir timber. 5tf

There is a deaf mute on the paving contract that is a wizard to work, and the way he eats up labor stunts is worth while. He can move around faster than a Frenchman, and he is not afraid of exercising his muscle. He holds the rock spreader, and is just fitted for the work, as he can't swear at the team, or teamster, whereas, were he able to indulge in language there would certainly be some sulphuric English poured out every minute or so.

The last chapter of the financial operations of Lafe Pence was closed in front of the court house, Monday morning, when Attorney George R. Bagley bid in 26 acres of land which belonged to the big flume management, years ago, when Pence was spending thousands of dollars putting in a big water ditch to convey aqua pura to Portland. Financial difficulties beset Pence, and he was forced to the wall, owing many people.

Sam B. Stoy, for years in the insurance business, handling the London & Lancashire, for which Vanderwal is local agent, has been appointed to the San Francisco assistant agency. Mr. Stoy is well known all over Washington County, and has sent many a check here in payment of fire losses. He was also interested with Vanderwal in a ranch near Elmonica station.

The curbing on Second Street, between Main and Washington, was a foot out of the way at the south end of the eastmost curb, due to a mistake on setting a pin. About a half block of the curb had to be taken up and re-set at the expense of the engineering department, as the city is not supposed to pay, and does not pay, for mistakes of this character.

Steve Connell, a government detective, was out from Portland, Saturday, picking up the counterfeited pieces found last week. Of the 58 ten-dollar bogus coins but three are not to be found. These are resting quietly in pockets, held as souvenirs. The government was anxious to get all the spurious money, but one might as well hunt for a needle in a haystack.

Elizabeth Wood has sued David Wood for divorce, alleging drunkenness as the chief cause. The complaint alleges they were married in Canada, in 1901, and that the habit of intoxication has become so strong that he can not properly support himself and family. She asks for the custody of the two minor children and $15 per month alimony.

Watkins' remedies are the very best always. Just remember that this is the time to get your stock and poultry tonic. Leave orders with agent, Z. M. LaRue, Forest Grove, or Aug. Tews, Taylor, Schulermerich Block, Hillsboro. 31-3

Emily Thayer has sued Oscar Thayer and wife for possession of 148 acres of land above Gaston, alleging that she has title, and that they withhold it from her. She asks that she be given judgment for $500 and immediate possession of the premises.

For sale or trade: Twelve acres, 2 1/2 miles southeast of Hillsboro; also a house and 24 acres at McMinnville. Will sell at a bargain, or trade for Hillsboro residence property, close in.—C. F. Bunsen, Hillsboro, Ore.

J. W. Marsh, of Centerville, and who landed in Oregon 58 years ago the coming Christmas, was in town Monday afternoon, and called on the religious weekly. Mr. Marsh is now in his 71st year, and he can still get around like a youngster.

For sale: Fine driving and brood mare, well bred and gentle; 1,200; ladies can handle and drive. Also 2-seated surrey, practically new, with harness. Goes reasonably. Address or call, 525 Clay Street, Portland, Ore.

M. Sturm Sr., of above Blooming, was an Argus caller Monday. Mr. Sturm is engaged in drying his prune crop just now, and says the product is going to be high this year.

CHRISTIAN PASTOR GOES TO CALIFORNIA

Rev. Vallandigham Starts for Petaluma, Next Week

ONE OF CITY'S POPULAR MINISTERS

Leaves a Host of Friends Here, Charmed by Personality

Rev. William Vallandigham, pastor of the Christian Church, leaves next week for Petaluma, Cal., and when he leaves Hillsboro the city will lose a Christian gentleman. Mr. Vallandigham has made a host of friends in this vicinity, who regret to see him leave for a new field of labors. He is a capable business man, and may not enter the ministry in California.

The retiring pastor came here from Southern Oregon, and by his earnest work in the church, has built up the membership away beyond expectations and the general average of increase. He has made friends in every walk in life by his genial good nature, his whole-heartedness, and his ever sympathetic characteristics. Wherever he goes Mr. Vallandigham will in Hillsboro ever have a large contingent of friends who will wish for him success, and who will feel a genuine regret that he has concluded to leave Washington County.

ED. WILLIAMS

Ed. Williams, well known in Hillsboro thirty years ago, died at Newberg, the last of the week, interment being in the Laurel cemetery last Sunday. He was aged about fifty years, and was a native of Iowa. He was married to Eva Collins, at Portland, years ago, and the widow and several children survive. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Captain A. M. Collins and wife, of Hillsboro.

Notice to Apple Tree Planters

We have for sale for 1911 Fall planting, the following:

Newtowns, Spitzenburgs, Arkansas Blacks, Winter Bananas, Johnathans, Golden Ortley, and other choice varieties—3 to 4 ft, 8c each; from 4 to 6 ft, 12c each. For large orders write for special prices.—I. C. Nealeigh, Sherwood, Ore., R. 4; J. T. Nealeigh, Hood River, Ore., Nursery at Scholls, Ore.

MRS. ALICE PLYMATE

Mrs. Alice Plymate died near Beaverton, October 11, 1911. She was aged 70 years and ten months, and was a native of Indiana. She had been a widow for three years, and had been at the home of a son-in-law, J. F. Graham, since last December. Aside from a hernia and an occasional touch of heart trouble the woman had been getting along very nicely for one of her age. Sunday evening she ate a hearty dinner.

AUCTION SALE

The undersigned, having rented out the below farm, will sell at public auction at the Col. Cornelius Beaverdam Farm, two miles S. E. of Cornelius, on north side Tualatin River, taking first open road, E. of Cornelius, on Baseline, at ten a. m., on Gray mare, 8 yrs, 1450; bay horse, 1300; team bay mares, 2400; yearling filly, Percheron; riding pony, gentle; cow, 4 years, fresh soon; two-year old heifer; 2 yearling heifers, 40 pigs, 6 to 8 weeks; disc drill for 4-horses, 2-bottom gang plow, disc harrow, 2 14-inch walking plows, 75-tooth harrow, 2 five-shovel cultivators, new Clipper fan mill, harness and numerous other articles. Lunch at Noon.

Terms of sale—Under $10, cash. Over, one year bankable note, 8 per cent.

J. C. Buchanan, Owner.
J. W. Hughes, Auctioneer.
Frank Sholes, Clerk.

J. S. Robinson, of Farmington, was in the city Monday. Mr. Robinson says that there is a big acreage of Fall plowing this year, and that soil is still being turned over for Fall-sown grain.

R. K. Simpson, of Portland, was in town Monday.

Chris. Johnson, of Mason Hill, was in town Monday morning.

Fred Massey and family left Tuesday for the old home in Illinois.

J. S. Myers, of Cornelius, was an Argus caller the last of the week.

E. S. Sprague, with the Washington-Oregon Corporation, was in town the first of the week.

Engineer Al Wagner and Chester Alexander were down from the front the last of the week.

The trustees of the Christian Church have hired Rev. Walker as pastor of the organization for a year.

Herman Glaske, who lives near West Union, was in the city the last of the week, and called on the Argus.

Indian Summer days have been not few within the past fortnight or so—and Nature has been very lavish with her coloring.

R. A. Payne has moved into his new home in the Tongue Addition, west of the Pacific Railway & Navigation track.

Frank Roesler, who recently returned from a trip up to the Canadian line, was in the city Monday, and called on the Argus.

Perry Abbott, in the motor cycle business in Portland, was in the city the first of the week, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Abbott.

Mrs. Rachel Cornelius, Mrs. Sarah VanHorn, Miss Tillie Cornelius, Mrs. Upton and Harry Cornelius, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors, Sunday.

Contractor Shannon, of Forest Grove, has been navigating with a pair of crutches the past fortnight, but was able to discard them the latter part of the week.

Wm. Schmidt, of West Union, was in the city the last of the week. Mr. Schmidt has seven acres in potatoes this year, and is anxiously watching the market reports.

J. A. Vandehey, who has been renting the big H. Harrington farm, near Centerville, for several years, has taken the Spring Hill farm, near Dilley, and will handle it for the next season.

The medical profession came in for a genuine ripping-up-the-back at the Christian Church, Sunday, by a visiting minister. The ears of the profession must have burned if there is anything in telepathy.

LaFrance Circle, Women of Woodcraft, will give a Harvest Dance, at the W. O. W. Hall, near Cedar Mill, Saturday night, Oct. 21. Good supper, good music and good management. Everybody cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bettis arrived from near Creswell, Southern Oregon, the first of the week, and will make their home in Hillsboro. Mr. Bettis traded his Southern Oregon farm to W. E. McCourt for stock in the Connell & Co. store.

Notwithstanding there has been no heavy frost the leaves on the maples in front of the court yard are turning yellow and have been falling for a week. As a rule when the frosts hold off the foliage remains green until as late as November 1.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue and wife are now residing in their handsome new residence in the Tongue Addition, west of the Main Street station of the Tillamook line. Their bungalow is one of the neatest in the city, and is a credit to the county seat.

Former Sheriff Henry P. Ford was out from Portland, Monday morning. Mr. Ford was the sheriff of this county for four years, away back in the nineties. H. P. says he is pleased to see Hillsboro coming to the front, and that it is leading all the small cities of the state in improvement.

Forest Grove is looking fine these days in her new dress of pavement. Business men of that place say that their only wonder now is that they were so long without hard surface streets. A visit to the Grove Saturday found the college city in good spirits, and its business men all enjoying a good patronage.

The attention of Argus readers is called to the public sale of E. E. Lyons, of northeast of town. This is a big sale, and some of the property belonged to the late Arthur Lyons. Read over the list and see if there is not something you may want to purchase. The date of the sale, October 24.

GASTON DOCTOR SUED FOR TEN THOUSAND

Earl Thurber Swears Dr. Jas. A. Baker was Negligent

CASE GREW OUT OF BROKEN ARM

Yamhill County Lad, 19 Years Old, Asks for Damages on Crooked Arm

Earl Thurber, aged 19 years, has sued Dr. James A. Baker, of Gaston, for $10,000 damages for crooked arm. J. M. Thurber, the boy's father, sues as guardian for the young man. It is alleged that on May 3, 1910, young Thurber sustained a fracture of the radius and ulna of the right arm, and that Dr. Baker was employed to reduce the break. Thurber claims the bones did not properly unite and that failure was caused by the negligent manner in which the physician performed the work. His arm is crooked as a result. After the result of the Gaston physician's reduction was unsatisfactory, Thurber went to Portland surgeons and had the old fracture broken and again reduced. He paid them $325; alleges he lost $105 in wages, and adds these amounts to his ten thousand dollar suit.

Jay Bowerman, erstwhile candidate for governor, is one of Thurber's attorneys, and the case will come before the November term of circuit court.
