

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XVIII HILLSBORO, OREGON, OCTOBER 26, 1911. NO. 33

TIMBER GETS ANOTHER NEW SALOON LICENSE

Petition Contained One Hundred and Forty Signers

NO REMONSTRANCE FILED IN COURT

A. W. Bryant, Defeated Last Month, Gets Application Through

A. W. Bryant, of Timber, was last Saturday granted a license to sell liquor for a period of one year at Timber, the new and pioneer lumber town on the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co.'s line, at the headwaters of the Nehalem. Mr. Bryant had a petition in before the September term of court but Rev. Daniel Staver was present with a remonstrance and his attorney, Mr. Graham, of Forest Grove, succeeded in killing the application by a remonstrance that outnumbered the petition.

This time, however, Mr. Bryant secured 140 signatures to his petition and was very careful to know that every signer was a voter. There was no opposition to the petition, and Mr. Staver was not in court to make the fight. Attorneys Bagley & Hare appeared for Bryant.

The drainage district, from the Verboort section, running up to Lousignont Lake, came up for consideration, and owing to the fact that a deal is on to enlarge the territory to be drained under the law, was postponed until late in October, when it will come up for final hearing.

The court will meet again until in regular session, the first Wednesday in November.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction at his place 6 miles N. E. of Hillsboro, and 1 1/2 miles west of Bethany, at ten a. m., on

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28

Sorel horse, 11 yrs, 1200; sorrel colt, 3 yrs, 1350; one of the finest colts in the county, broke to work; sucking colt, 5 months old, sired by Bachot, dam English Shire, red cow, 4 yrs, fresh in November; black cow, 5 yrs, in milk, good flow; red cow, 5 1/2 yrs, in milk, better 16 mo. fresh in Spring, better calf, 10 head pigs, Advance binder, 7 ft cut, five ft cut McCormack mower, good condition, 10 ft McCormack rake, good condition, Rock Island disc 5 ft, 18 inch, and tongueless truck disc, same size, almost new, with 3-horse gear, 60-tooth lever set drag harrow, 10-hoe Superior grain drill, good condition; hayrack, baled hay rack, 14-inch steel beam J. I. Case plow, almost new, 3-inch Fish Bros. wagon with 4-inch tire, 100-egg Mandy Lee incubator and fireless brooder; several dozen thoroughbred Barred Rock and Brown Leghorn chickens, some fine Barred Rock cockerels, pure bred, for breeding purposes, 18 geese, lot grain sacks, and numerous other articles.

Terms of Sale—Under $10, cash; and over, bankable, note, one year, at 8 per cent.

C. E. Holcomb, Owner.
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer.
H. A. Kuratli, Clerk.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned desire to thank those who so kindly assisted them, and tendered sympathy during their bereavement, the death and obsequies of their mother, the late Mrs. Susan Brown.

HER CHILDREN,
Hillsboro, Ore., Oct. 21, 1911.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public sale at Scholls, near Rowell Bros' Store, at 10 a. m., on FRIDAY, NOV. 3.

Match team mules, 7 & 8 yrs, 2000; mule, 8 yrs, 1100; mare 9 yrs, 1100; bay mare, 2 yrs, 950; Jersey cow, 4 yrs, fresh in May, test 5; 3 1/2 Studebaker wagon; 3 sets work harness, buggy harness, 6 pigs, 2 doz chickens, range, sideboard, 2 dressers, leather couch; organ, kitchen treasure, cupboard, extension table, 4 iron beds, 150 quarts fruit and many other articles.

Lunch at noon
$10 and under, cash; over $10, one year bankable note at 8 per cent interest, 2 per cent off, cash over $10.

G. Moomey, Owner,
B. P. Cornelius, Auctioneer,
Frank Rowell, Clerk.

Dr. Lowe, Nov. 10.

E. E. Yarnell and A. W. Bryant, of Timber, were in the city Saturday, Mr. Bryant appearing before the court with a petition asking for a license to sell liquor at Timber.

CLAUSSENIUS JR., KILLS COMPANION--ACCIDENTAL

Mistakes John Bonser for a Deer and Shoots in Neck

FATALITY TOOK PLACE SUNDAY

Two Were Hunting Near the Wilcox Mill, in Mountains

John Bonser was shot and killed by Herman Claussenius Jr., near the Nelson Wilcox Mill, last Sunday forenoon, Claussenius mistaking Bonser for a deer. Sheriff Hancock and Deputy Applegate accompanied Coroner Brown to the scene of the fatality Sunday evening, and an inquest was held. Claussenius, who is a Portland plumber, told the story of the accidental killing as follows:

We knew each other's methods well and there was no excuse for it.

I went down alone in the automobile Friday, and Saturday morning Bonser and I left their home, a mile below Rocky Point, for the Mullen place, eight miles away. We arrived there about 7 o'clock Saturday morning and hunted all day.

This morning we arose early and had breakfast at 4 o'clock. About 5:30 we started out and hunted on a big clearing. Then we returned and hunted on another section.

We came to a hill and Bonser said he was going around the foot of the ridge, and for me to go over the top. That was the way we beat out game. I started over the top. He told me he was going over to the right, entirely opposite from where he actually went.

Pretty soon I heard a deer jump up between him and myself. The deer ran quartering to the left, down the hill. I ran to one side to the lane through the trees, so I could see it.

Bonser had been wearing a cap, but he had either lost it or thrown it aside. I saw something bob up, which I thought was the tail of the deer, so I fired. I found out afterward it was his head.

When I got down there I found him lying on the ground. Two buckshot had entered his head. I sat him up against a stump, and told him I would get help from Wilcox mill, a mile farther out.

It took me four or five minutes to get to the camp. I wasn't gone more than 20 minutes. We looked for him, but couldn't find him, and thought he had gotten up and had wandered away. But through long-distance, talking with Wilcox mill, I find he was in the same place where I left him. He was found by Norwart Nash, his nephew.

When I went up to Wilcox mill I got Mr. Hendrickson. We spent two hours and a half beating the brush, looking for Bonser. Then we decided we must do something more and do it quick. So he went to get help from Glencoe. I took the machine down the Seapoose road and took back up with me his cousin, Paul Bonser and Norwart Nash.

When we arrived we found seven or eight men there, help that Hendrickson had found. We formed a long line and systematically beat the brush, but even then could not find him. I told Paul Bonser then that I would go at once and get more help. So I went to Homestead and got Bob Bonser, and we were going up but I found Deputy Sheriff Bulger had received a message from Wilcox mill that they had found the body and were waiting for the coroner. So there was nothing else we could do.

Coroner Brown organized a jury, and after hearing all the evidence, which consisted of Claussenius' open statement of the killing—Claussenius was not present—a verdict was returned to the effect that deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by Herman Claussenius Jr. The following served as a jury: Henry Hendrickson, Chas. Nelson, D. E. Hillsberry, J. C. Applegate, Geo. G. Hancock and Andrew Hendrickson.

Ray Emmott returned Saturday from Arizona, and reports his uncle, L. F., as getting along finely, and well pleased with his altitude of 1,300 feet above sea level. "It's some warm, down there," said Ray, Saturday, "and I'm glad to say that in all the country I've seen there has been no place like old Oregon."

Mrs. Frank Gragg and children, of Cornelius, were in the city Saturday.

Wm. Bagley Sr., of Leisyville, commenced hauling in his hop crop, the last of the week.

A. C. Wirtz and daughter, Mrs. Burt Wilkes, were down from Mountindale, Monday.

Deputy Clerk E. C. Luce was confined to his room several days the last of the week.

N. J. C. Christensen, of Laurel, was in the county seat Saturday.

E. T. Turner, the Laurel merchant, was over to Hillsboro Thursday evening.

John VanDyke, of Verboort, was in the city Monday, on legal business.

William Ryan and family, of Reedville, have moved to Hillsboro to reside.

J. C. Miller, of the Arcade district, was in the city Monday, on probate business.

House and lot at Banks for sale. Is paying a good interest on investment.—E. T. Turner, Laurel, Ore. 33-5

Frank Francis, of Oak Park, was in the city Saturday, driving over a section of the paved streets.

W. A. Sahnaw, of Centerville, has sold his general merchandise store, and requests all indebted to him to call and settle at once.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY

(From The Oregonian, October 11, 1861)

The steamer Pacific sailed yesterday. Colonel Nesmith, Senator Oregon, with his family, were passengers. Captain G. W. Staples, long and favorably known here as commander of ocean steamers, was about to make his last trip to San Francisco as commander of the Pacific, having received the commission of Commander in the United States Navy. A National salute of 13 guns was fired in compliment to Senator Nesmith and a Commodore's salute of seven guns in compliment to Captain Staples.

Kenyon Crandall, aged 81 years, in speaking of the above recent reprint of a news item, published October 11, 1861, in the Oregonian, says: "I was personally acquainted with Captain G. W. Staples. I met him first at Genoa, Italy, in 1848, in January, at the time of the Kosuth war. He was first mate of the vessel, The Hollowell, engaged in freighting, carrying lemons and fruit, nuts, etc., between Europe and America. I sailed with him as a sailor from January to June 1, leaving the vessel at Fya, one of the Azore Islands, where I was taken to the hospital, owing to an injury of my hands. Before reaching Fya we touched at Palermo, on the Isle of Sicily, and I distinctly remember that Palermo was full of soldiers. I next saw Capt. Staples in San Francisco in 1852, and he was then in command of the Pacific, a steamer plying between San Francisco and Panama. Staples came aboard the Chas. C. Devins, the sailing vessel on which I came to Oregon, in that year. Staples was shot in Portland, in the early sixties, by Ferd Patterson, a Southerner, in the Cooley saloon, the two having an altercation over the strife between the North and the South.

Staples was a man that feared nothing, but was a fine sailor, and was good to his men who tried to make good, but a terror to those who shirked. He was without question one of the best navigators that ever sailed the Pacific, and was a strong partisan in all in which he had faith. Staples was well known, personally, by the late Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian.

After the above was put in type, the Oregonian of Oct. 21, 1861, had the following, showing how clearly Mr. Crandall remembers the incidents of 50 years ago:

The court met yesterday morning and heard arguments of counsel in the case of State vs. F. Patterson, who is accused of the murder of Captain Staples. Messrs Mitchell and Page appeared for the state and Mr. Logan for the defendant. The court decided to admit the prisoner to bail in the sum of $15,000, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await his trial at the next Circuit Court.

Notice to Apple Tree Planer s

We have for sale for 1911 Fal planting, the following:—

Newtowns, Spitzburgs, Arkansas Blacks, Winter Bananas, Johnathans, Golden Ortle, and other choice varieties—3 to 4 ft, 8c each; from 4 to 6 ft, 12c each. For large orders write for special prices.—I. C. Nealeigh, Sherwood, Ore., R 4; J. T. Nealeigh, Hood River, Ore., Nursery at Scholls, Ore.

Dan Leisy, of South Tualatin, was in Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Thompson, recently from Okla., has leased the Home Style Restaurant, on Main, between Third and Fourth.

FARMERS PLEASED AT USE OF TIE-CHAIN

Ready for Use Last Saturday Morning, Had Good Patronage

CONVENIENCE MISSED MANY MONTHS

Another Chain Will be Installed on Main Street Later on

Farmers visiting the city last Saturday again had recourse to the use of the tie-chains on Second Street, and they were mightily pleased to have the convenience which has been denied them for several months—ever since the sewer operations commenced early in July.

Supt. Church finished the street for use Friday noon, and by the next morning the entire pave was ready for the public, and by eight o'clock Saturday morning teams were being hitched to the rack.

Another place for the accommodation of vehicles coming to the city will be established on Main, between Second and First, along the court house property line.

(From The Oregonian, October 11, 1861)

The steamer Pacific sailed yesterday. Colonel Nesmith, Senator Oregon, with his family, were passengers. Captain G. W. Staples, long and favorably known here as commander of ocean steamers, was about to make his last trip to San Francisco as commander of the Pacific, having received the commission of Commander in the United States Navy. A National salute of 13 guns was fired in compliment to Senator Nesmith and a Commodore's salute of seven guns in compliment to Captain Staples.

Kenyon Crandall, aged 81 years, in speaking of the above recent reprint of a news item, published October 11, 1861, in the Oregonian, says: "I was personally acquainted with Captain G. W. Staples. I met him first at Genoa, Italy, in 1848, in January, at the time of the Kosuth war. He was first mate of the vessel, The Hollowell, engaged in freighting, carrying lemons and fruit, nuts, etc., between Europe and America. I sailed with him as a sailor from January to June 1, leaving the vessel at Fya, one of the Azore Islands, where I was taken to the hospital, owing to an injury of my hands. Before reaching Fya we touched at Palermo, on the Isle of Sicily, and I distinctly remember that Palermo was full of soldiers. I next saw Capt. Staples in San Francisco in 1852, and he was then in command of the Pacific, a steamer plying between San Francisco and Panama. Staples came aboard the Chas. C. Devins, the sailing vessel on which I came to Oregon, in that year. Staples was shot in Portland, in the early sixties, by Ferd Patterson, a Southerner, in the Cooley saloon, the two having an altercation over the strife between the North and the South.

Staples was a man that feared nothing, but was a fine sailor, and was good to his men who tried to make good, but a terror to those who shirked. He was without question one of the best navigators that ever sailed the Pacific, and was a strong partisan in all in which he had faith. Staples was well known, personally, by the late Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian.

After the above was put in type, the Oregonian of Oct. 21, 1861, had the following, showing how clearly Mr. Crandall remembers the incidents of 50 years ago:

The court met yesterday morning and heard arguments of counsel in the case of State vs. F. Patterson, who is accused of the murder of Captain Staples. Messrs Mitchell and Page appeared for the state and Mr. Logan for the defendant. The court decided to admit the prisoner to bail in the sum of $15,000, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await his trial at the next Circuit Court.

Notice to Apple Tree Planer s

We have for sale for 1911 Fal planting, the following:—

Newtowns, Spitzburgs, Arkansas Blacks, Winter Bananas, Johnathans, Golden Ortle, and other choice varieties—3 to 4 ft, 8c each; from 4 to 6 ft, 12c each. For large orders write for special prices.—I. C. Nealeigh, Sherwood, Ore., R 4; J. T. Nealeigh, Hood River, Ore., Nursery at Scholls, Ore.

Dan Leisy, of South Tualatin, was in Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Thompson, recently from Okla., has leased the Home Style Restaurant, on Main, between Third and Fourth.

The Quality Drug Store

The place where you are always sure of drugs of absolute purity and Highest Quality, prepared by competent pharmacists who take pride in the accuracy of their work

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS FOR

Rexall Remedies Candies and Stationery

The Delta Drug Store

HILLSBORO, ORE.

Forest Grove NATIONAL BANK

FOREST GROVE, ORE.

Statement of Condition on Friday, September 1, 1911.

Capital and Surplus $50000

Loans	$269,529.20	Capital	$25,000.00
U.S. Bonds (at par)	25,000.00	Surplus	25,000.00
Other Bonds	67,160.00	Undivided Profits	4,004.55
Banking House	18,000.00	Circulation	25,000.00
Cash and due from Banks and U. S.		Deposits	423,206.55
Treasurer	122,521.90
	$502,211.10		$502,211.10

Reserve 34 Per Cent.

DIRECTORS
Thos. G. Todd John E. Bailey J. W. Fuqua
Wilbur W. McEldowney J. A. Thornburg

SPECIAL PRICES

—ON—

Rugs, Linoleum, Matting, Dressers, Furniture of all kinds

We Lead, the Rest Follow

Chas. O. Roe & Co. Pioneer Furniture Dealers
FOREST GROVE, ORE.

SURE RELIEF

Bring your eye troubles to me. If you have defective vision, if you have eye troubles of any kind, come to me. I will test your eyes and advise you as to their proper care whether you need glasses or not. Everytime you are in doubt you should see me.

Laurel M. Hoyt Jeweler and Optician
Hillsboro, Ore.