

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, DECEMBER 7, 1911.

NO. 39

TIMBER SALOON MAN SUED BY CREDITORS

Property Attached by Portland and Hillsboro Firms

NEARLY EIGHT HUNDRED BEHIND

Place is Under Attachment and in Hands of Sheriff Hancock

Chas. G. Lindgren, one of the saloon men of Timber, has been sued by four of his creditors in an amount involving a total of $776. Sheriff Hancock has attached the place and what is left will be sold to satisfy the claims unless Lindgren gets busy and settles. Henry Fleckenstein & Co. sue for $328, for liquors furnished. John Gedlich sues for $84.75, money deposited in August; $118 loaned Sept. 1; and $8.75 for labor performed and unpaid, his attorneys being Schnabel & LaRoche.

Emmott Bros. sue for $228.14, for merchandise furnished. E. B. Tongue filing the suit.

Rothschild Bros., cigar and tobacco dealers, of Portland, sue for a balance due of $234.40. Bagley & Hare filing the papers.

While Timber is a thriving little place, with plenty of a payroll, it appears that the saloon business is not very remunerative.

Lindgren opened the first saloon in the new town. There is another there, conducted by A. W. Bryant.

AUCTION SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction at the Williams' Livery barn at North Yamhill, beginning at ten a. m. on

Terms of sale—Under $10—cash; over, one year's approved bankable note, 8 per cent. 2 per cent. off cash over $10.

Nancy Bacon, Owner.
John Vanderwal, Clerk.

The closed season for crawfish came Dec. 1, although very few knew anything about the statute—for it is a new one. Chief of Police Blaser arrested a Portland man Sunday, who was openly fishing for the succulent delicacy. He said he knew nothing about the new law, and was catching the crustaceans in sight of all passers. He was allowed to go without fine, under the circumstances, and hiked back to Portland in his auto to tell how he was "pinched" for catching something that would pinch. Don't catch any more crawfish this winter, unless you want to mix with the State of Oregon. Gee! Did you ever think how good they are about this time of the year?

Notice to Apple Tree Planters

We have for sale for 1911 Fall planting, the following:

Newtowns, Spitzenburgs, Arkansas Blacks, Winter Bananas, Johnnathans, Golden Ortley, and other choice varieties—3 to 4 ft., 8c each; from 4 to 6 ft., 12c each. For large orders write for special prices.—I. C. Nealeigh, Sherwood, Ore., R 4; J. T. Nealeigh, Hood River, Ore., Nursery at Scholls, Ore.

The cool spell has made prime furs for the animals, and as soon as the waters raise a little there will be many a mink and rat caught along the waters of Dairy and the Tualatin. Chas. Eames, who catches more than any other individual, is patiently awaiting the usual Fall raise in order to get busy with his traps.

Myrtle Crabtree, of Portland, has sued George N. Crabtree for divorce. They were wedded in Albany, August 26, 1903, and there is one child born to the union—a girl, aged 2 years. The mother wants the custody of the daughter.

Washington County has been signally free from murders during 1910 and 1911—but one having been committed. That was the Cornelius box car killing, wherein Tomaso Debenedetto killed Etalio Manzarro, in a quarrel over a card game. The slayer, it will be remembered, pleaded guilty, claiming that he was being over-powered by his victim. Manzarro's money was found in the car, and his murderer was later caught at Spokane. Upon his agreeing to plead guilty the charge was reduced to manslaughter, and he was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary. Rosclair was hanged in September, 1910, but this was nearly 16 months after he killed his wife.

See our dishes for our customers. When you expend $100 with us you get a fine dining room set of dishes. Call for cards and have the amount of your purchases punched each time you buy. When you buy that amount you get the dishes, or you have a dandy game and fish set.—Emmott Bros.

G. Halderman is nursing two broken toes, sustained a few days ago while working at a well at the D. Tschabold place, in Helvetia. They were lifting an 80 foot pipe, attached to a pump, out a well, when the rope slipped, letting the pump down, breaking the bone in the great toe, as well as one in the third. Dr. J. O. Robb attended the injury, and Halderman is getting along nicely, although he will enjoy the household fires for a while.

Begin now. A savings account with the Hillsboro National Bank, a government institution, earns you four per cent. interest. You will be surprised how your money will earn you money—and it is always safe.

Detective Lillis, Portland, who has charge of the detective force of the Oregon Electric Railway, was in town Friday, and called on the Argus. It is not generally known that all railroad companies have special detectives who follow up clues after depredations are committed. As a rule the companies select the best men they can find for these important positions.

Fountain pen found.—A fine fountain pen was found on the street Monday, by J. H. Morton, of Ridgefield, Wash. The finder left it at this office and the loser can have same by proving property and paying for advertisement.

The Wienicke home, on Green Mountain, was a scene of a Thanksgiving party, Nov. 30, in the evening. Dancing, cards and games were the features of the evening. The party dispersed at one in the morning. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. Boylin, Peter and M. Pehl, O. G. Roy and E. Fair, Mrs. B. Fair, Mrs. B. White, Miss I. Fair, Carl and Lizzie Wienicke and others.

Remember that the Hillsboro National Savings Bank is under government supervision, which insures you the best of protection. One dollar opens an account. 4 per cent. paid on savings.

Roy Latham, employed by the Argus years ago, in the composing rooms, was in town Saturday. He is now running the electric light plant at Sheridan, and was taking a trip to Portland. "Things are looking fine in Hillsboro, and I'm glad to the old town is shaking off the relics of old days," Roy remarked to the Argus.

Good paying restaurant, with lodging house in connection, for rent at a bargain. Do not want to sell.—Inquire of Kuratli Bros.

Geo. Bacon, of Yamhill, was down to Hillsboro over Sunday. Geo. has already sold the newly purchased farm above Yamhill, with a good profit on his investment, and is to have a public sale at Yamhill, Tuesday, December 12. He has some good horses to sell, and his sale notice will be well worth reading by those in the market.

For sale or trade: Twelve acres, 2 1/2 miles southeast of Hillsboro; also a house and 2 1/2 acres at McMinnville. Will sell at a bargain, or trade for Hillsboro residence property, close in.—C. F. Bunsen, Hillsboro, Ore.

Aunt Mary Bird, the oldest living native pioneer, was in from North Tualatin Plains, Monday. Mrs. Bird was born in the "Oregon country" in 1839—and has lived here ever since.

The street cleaning apparatus was tried out last Wednesday evening, and worked satisfactorily.

HILLSBORO HIGH BEATS HILL MILITARY ELEVEN

Local Lads Were Too Many for the Classy Visitors

SCORE WAS SIXTEEN TO CIPHER

Game was Attended by Fair Sized Crowd
—No Rowdiness in Play

The hearts of the Hillsboro High School Eleven were warmed by victory on Thanksgiving Day, when they defeated the Second Hill Military Academy team, of Portland, by a score of 16 to 0. The locals put up fine football, and although their opponents were clever, and the eleven had one first Hill man in the team, there was nothing to it but Hillsboro from start to finish. One of Hill's best men was injured in the first quarter in a collision with Long, and was taken from the game.

After the game the boys were given a banquet by Dr. Elmer H. Smith, at his home in North Hillsboro. Many of the boys had been fasting for the day and as the dinner was in the evening they did justice to the festive board. Those playing in the Hillsboro line-up were: Lytle, Long, Daneel, Sigler, Nelson, Deisman, Schroeder, Rollins, Magill, Thompson, Larsen, W. Wilkes, Robt. Imbrie.

The boys are feeling pretty good over the outcome, as they have scored 40 points in all their games, their opponents in all games scoring 34.

Notice of Road District Meeting

Notice is hereby given that a district road meeting is hereby called, to be held at the Hill School House in Road District No. 24, Washington County, Oregon, on the 18th day of December, 1911, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., to determine the extent of improvement to be made on any county road, or roads, or portion thereof, in said road district, and to levy a special tax to defray the expense thereof, not to exceed 10 mills on the dollar, on all real and personal taxable property in said road district.

Dated this 27th day of November, 1911.
J. A. Hoffman,
Supervisor of Road District No. 24,
Washington County, Oregon.
G. M. Grimm, E. D. Walker, C. J. Carstens,
J. Koppin, Chas. Holt, M. J. Cranican, W. K. Nowell, O. G. Carahan, James Ingles,
A. L. Hill, J. W. Pritchard, L. L. Paget.

Why pay ten dollars for a map which merely shows Washington County, when you can get one on a larger scale, showing everything from the Willamette River west to the west boundary of the county, size 50x67 inches, for $7.50, or a pocket size, 24x33 inches, for $2.00? Get it of your bookseller, or address T. S. Wilkes & Son, Hillsboro, Oregon.

J. H. Stanley, former principal of the Hillsboro High School, and now principal at the Highland School, Portland, was out Friday, looking over the town. He was more than surprised to see the progress since he last visited Hillsboro, and says that he fully believes we will double our population within the next five years.

Kuratli Brothers have moved their offices into the Hillsboro National Bank Building, Rooms 1 and 2, upstairs, where they will be pleased to extend every courtesy to their patrons, and welcome their friends. Entrance on Main, door east of the Hillsboro National Bank.

B. W. Robinson and wife, of Fall City, Polk County, visited over Thanksgiving with H. D. Schmeltzer and wife. Mr. Robinson worked for Mr. Schmeltzer a few years back, and enjoyed himself greeting his oldtime friends.

For sale, reasonable—A half block in North Hillsboro, on rock macadam street. Will sell all or any part, with six room house, in good repair. Fruit trees, berries; chicken house.—John Boecker, Hillsboro, Ore. 10t

Father Bucholzer, the well known pastor of St. Matthews, Hillsboro, and who was succeeded by Father Lappan, is now in Portland, stopping at the Christian Brothers' College. He writes that his leg still bothers him very much, and keeps him confined to his room a great deal.

For sale: A few Rhode Island Red cockerels, thoroughbred; finely marked, and of purest strains.—A. O. Johnson, Cornelius, Ore., Route 2. Ind. Tel. Hillsboro-Scholls line. 39-1

W. F. Haase, one of the Argus' patrons for years, was in town Friday, and called on the religious weekly.

L. W. House was a Portland visitor Friday.

Jacob Schmidt, of Laurel, was in the city the last of the week.

Dr. Lowe will be in Hillsboro, on December 22. Geo. Carter, of near Oak Park, was in town Friday.

Born, to W. E. Siltz and wife, Hillsboro, Ore., Nov. 27, 1911, a daughter.

Earl Towne, of Oak Park, was over to the city Saturday, and called on the Argus.

David Harper, of near Beaverton, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

A. O. Johnson, of South Tualatin, was in town Saturday, and called on the Argus.

R. H. Walker, of near Beaverton, was in the city Monday, greeting friends.

Frank Rice, of Portland, was out over Thanksgiving, visiting his son, in North Hillsboro.

No fatalities in Oregon on Thanksgiving—either from football or turkey.

Henry Haase, of South Tualatin, was in Friday. He raised some mighty fine spuds this season.

J. F. Carstens and wife, of Banks, returned home Monday morning, after spending Sunday in Forest Grove, with relatives.

The undersigned wants a general teaming job. Steady and reliable.—G. Otto, Hillsboro, Or., R. 5, Bx 16A, near town. 39

A. E. Peat, former owner of the Varley orchard at Varley, was out from Portland, Friday, and called on the Argus.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis J. Bailey, of Portland, were out Thanksgiving, guests at the home of Dr. F. A. Bailey and family.

Eff Schieffelin and wife, of Centerville, were in town Friday. Schieffelin is running one of the progressive dairies of his section.

G. A. Plieth, of Tigardville, was in the city Saturday, attending a meeting of the county educational board.

L. M. Miller, of Scholls, was in the city Sunday. He reports that the Scholls Literary Society had a great program Saturday evening.

Mail service was installed on the Pacific Railway & Navigation line between Hillsboro and Tillamook, Monday morning. This will give the coast county close touch with the world.

W. B. Peterson, who has the distinction of managing the biggest hopyard in the county, was up from Witch Hazel, Friday afternoon.

Fred Cornelius, who was injured in the Connell store, is again back in the harness, feeling fine. F. E. says there is nothing like having a good hard head.

Strayed: Dark Jersey cow, white tail; few white marks; about to freshen. Reward for information sent to G. B. Doan, Beaverton, Ore., R. 2. 39-1

The first carload of hogs shipped over the Tillamook line was brought in, in the middle of the week, and taken through to the Portland stock yards. Profitable business.

For Sale: Limited number of drake ducks. Pure Indian Runners from best stock. Best layers.—Address Chas. Cowgill, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 1, Box 25. Pacific States Telephone, Glencoe, 259. 38-40

For Sale—Quarter block in Tillamook City, 8-room house; 10-room rooming house; feed barn, built one year ago; in good condition. Will exchange for farm property in the Willamette Valley.—John F. Benton, Tillamook, Ore. 39-1

William Hanson, formerly of Scholls, now in business at Sweet Home, Linn Co., was in town the first of the week. He is conducting a feed business in his new location.

For sale: Full-blood Berkshire sow, 2 years old; 4 shoats, 6 months; 4 small pigs, 7 weeks old. A snap.—J. J. Kelly, at Hare's siding, on S. P., east of Newton. 39-1

Clark Hadley, of Tillamook, and well known to many Hillsboro people, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, Saturday afternoon. He was a native of Wisconsin, and had lived at Tillamook for over 29 years. Hadley was a big whole-souled fellow, and was generally successful in business affairs.

DR. MARION H. PARKER PASSES AT GREENVILLE

Was Native of Indiana, Teacher and Physician by Profession

HEART FAILED EVE OF THANKSGIVING

Came to Oregon With Parents, 1852,
Settled at Portland

Dr. Marion H. Parker, of Greenville, died Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, 1911, at his home, from an attack of heart failure. He had been about as usual that day but as evening came on he complained of feeling badly. About ten o'clock he had a severe attack of heart trouble, and in a few minutes had breathed his last.

Dr. Parker was a son of Dr. Patterson C. Parker, and was born in Indiana, March 26, 1846. In 1852, the family crossed the plains to Oregon, landing at Milwaukie, above Portland, that Fall. The next year the family moved to the Umpqua Valley, where the boy was educated in the public schools. In 1865, he enlisted in Co. A, First Oregon Cavalry Volunteers. After the close of the war he was mustered out at Vancouver, and then resumed school at Umpqua Academy, graduating in 1872.

For eighteen years thereafter he was engaged in teaching and educational work, taking a medical course while teaching. Finishing at Willamette University he went back to the College of Physicians and Surgeons, St. Louis, and graduated from that institution in 1890. Returning to Oregon he settled at Greenville, where for many years he conducted a store and practiced medicine. In 1894 his buildings were burned, but he rebuilt and continued business until death.

Dr. Parker was married to Miss Emma Starr, of Corvallis. Four children were born to the union. The widow and children, Lillian L., Viola Vivian, Gertrude Grace and Grace Gertrude, survive.

Dr. Parker was an Odd Fellow and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was well known in Hillsboro, having taught the public schools here in the eighties. He leaves an estate variously estimated at from $25,000 to $40,000.

FOR RENT

Five room, furnished cottage, to responsible party, without children.—T. R. Imbrie. 39-0

P. J. Sonnen, of Cornelius, was down to the city Monday.

C. Sorenson, of Reedville, was in town Monday, on legal business.

Victor Nord, of below Newton, was a city visitor Monday evening.

Alec Gordon, of beyond North Plains, was a county seat caller, Monday.

Carl Pfahl, of beyond Blooming was one of the city visitors Monday afternoon.

Chas. Walters, the North Plains blacksmith, was in the city the first of the week.

Peter Hebeisen, of Helvetia, was in town Monday, and will read the Argus for a year.

A Vancouver young fellow of 76 years challenges all comers under his age for a fistic encounter. He may be all right in his class, but if the announcement is an advertisement for Clark County's climate it isn't worth while. There are a lot of spry old fellows here in the 80-class who think the Vancouver man is altogether too callow.
