Ona Collier, Plaintiff,
vs.
Fred Collier, Defendant.

To Fred Collier, Defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby notified that the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court on or before the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Friday, the 8th day of December, 1911; and if you fail to answer the plaintiff for want thereof, will take judgment against you for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and the plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable as prayed for in said complaint. This summons is published by order of the Honorable R. O. Stevenson, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, and said order was made and dated on the 24th day of October, 1911, in the absence of the Circuit Judge for Washington County, and the date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 24th day of October, 1911, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Thursday, the 7th day of December, 1911.
Clyde Richardson, Attorney for Plaintiff, 518 Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.

In the matter of the Application of A. J. Roy for the registration of the title to the following described real property lying, being and situate in the County of Washington, and State of Oregon, and particularly described as follows: Being a part of Block 10, of and in Simonson's addition to the town of Hillsboro, Washington county, Oregon, described as beginning at the Northeast corner of said Block 10, and running thence south 111 feet, thence west, parallel with the north line of said block, 108 feet; thence north 111 feet to the north line of said block; thence east 128 feet to the point of beginning. To the heirs of C. M. Carter, and all others whom it may concern: Take Notice that on the 7th day of November, 1911, an application was filed by A. J. Roy in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, for the initial registration of the title to the land above described. Now unless you appear on or before Thursday, the 21st day of December, 1911, and show cause why such application shall not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed, and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the applicant, and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.

A traveling salesman making Hillsboro every two weeks says there is no town in the Willamette Valley outside of Portland that has made greater strides in 1911 than Hillsboro. All of which, as the Deacon would say, "say hearin'."

WILLAMETTE GLEE CLUB

Sixteen bright, jolly college fellows from the oldest educational institution of West-Willamette University, will invade our city on December 22 and bring with them some of the cleverest, snappiest fellows that can be found on the campus to give songs, stunts, and a cracking funny comedy-sketch, which will tickle the ribs of young and old. This organization has been in existence for three years and has not failed to make good in any of the many cities that they have visited in Idaho, Washington and Oregon. They have been under Dean Mendenhall every Wednesday evening for three years and have developed into one of the finest Glee Clubs that has ever made the coast, not excepting some of the $300 attractions working under the Lyceum Bureaus.

In ensemble songs, they are decidedly tuneful; in solo work, they are exceptional classical and worthy; in stunts, they are humorous to a finish, and in their sketch, "The Rajah of India" they afford a veritable scream from start to finish.

There can be nothing more pleasing during this season offered to the people of this city than the concert to be given on December 22, in Crescent Theatre. Sixteen jolly college fellows, bringing with them all the snap, ginger, and frolicsomeness of the campus, with a dash of "Old Days" to many and a glimpse of future days to others.

The Queens of the M. E. Sunday School have guaranteed a large sum of money to bring this Glee Club. They have had much encouragement from the citizens. Interest is high with all who know their coming. It is expected that the Crescent will be packed to the doors for this, the best entertainment Hillsboro has had for years.

Farmington Notes

Mrs. W. J. Ingram and Eva and Riley Ingram spent Thanksgiving in Portland. Miss Aileen Morrison, of Hillsboro, visited Thanksgiving with her parents, J. T. Morrison and wife. Groner & Rowell have moved their donkey from near Roseland Farm to their own property a mile east.

METHODIST BAZAAR

A Bazaar and advertising sale will be held in the M. E. church, on Friday, December 8, from 1 to 10 p. m. The advertising sale is a very unique feature, and will be interesting. A fine chicken dinner will be served in the evening, from 5 o'clock to 7:30 and a good program will be rendered at 7:30. Come and enjoy a good time.

M. C. Lincoln, of Glencoe, will hereafter attend the office of N. H. Alexander, in his real estate office in the Hotel Washington. Mr. Lincoln has a thorough knowledge of Washington County, and will be able to show prospective home-seekers everything worth while.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Karsteter, of Illinois, are guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Risner, of Jolly Plains, accompanied by their two children. They will remain a month, and may locate in Oregon, later.

Our new candy factory is the scene of much activity at this time. We are getting out our Christmas stock. You are welcome to come in and see us work, at any time.—Den of Sweets.

Married: At the home of Clarence Allen, Beaverton, December 2, 1911, Rev. C. B. Rees officiating, William Jackson, of Portland, and Miss Parnecia Allen, of Washington County.

Fred Miltnerberger, who was here a few years ago, is in Hillsboro on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miltnerberger Sr. The visitor is a pressman, and "knows how."

Louis Roy, who learned the blacksmith trade under the late Riley Cave, was in Hillsboro the first of the week. It is 13 years since he was last in Hillsboro, and he was very much surprised to notice its growth and improvements. He went up to Yamhill Sunday, to eat a birthday dinner with his mother.

Wm. Tipton has resigned from carrying the mail on Route 2, and Geo. Harrow is now carrying the Uncle Sam's mail on the route.

Miss Emma Stoffer, daughter of Henry Stoffer and wife, Bethany, was wedded to Ross Palmer, of Portland, in that city Nov. 25, 1911.

Meerschman or Calabash make rather fine Christmas presents for the men-folks.—Den of Sweets.

SCHLEGEL-WILLIAMS

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams, Maindale, Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30, 1911, when their daughter, Lura, was united in marriage to Edward Schlegel, of Banks. Rev. W. J. Weber, pastor of the Hillsboro M. E. Church, officiated, and the ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Mr. Schlegel is a son of John Schlegel, of Banks, and is a highly respected young man. The bride was born and raised in Hillsboro, and is a niece of Imbries.

After the wedding a splendid wedding dinner was served and congratulations tendered. They will reside at Banks.

R. A. Caples, in conjunction with the District Attorney's office, has sued out a complaint asking that J. Y. York be excluded from the office of school director in District No. 107, Aloha, formerly Wheeler. The complaint alleges that he holds the office illegally, and he wants a restraining order from the court to prevent York from acting in official capacity.
