STURDY SCOTCHMAN DIES AT REEDVILLE

Isaac Allen, Well Known in Pioneer Times, Died Last Thursday

CAME TO OREGON IN FIFTY-EIGHT

Was at One Time a Famous Rifle Shot Born in 1830

Isaac Allen, of Reedville, passed away last Thursday evening, after an illness of several months. Allen was born in Warren County, Ohio, in 1830, and was wedded to Asenath Swan, Dec. 11, 1850. In 1852, he and his wife crossed the plains to California, where he engaged in mining until 1858, when they came to Oregon, settling near Reedville. He bought a tract of land from Samuel Soule, who moved to the Willapa Valley, Wash. Mr. Allen became involved in litigation over the title of his purchase, and the suit was in the courts for years before he finally secured a clear deed to the property, which is now very valuable. He was a money maker, and spent money freely. Being successful in the most of his ventures he leaves an estate variously estimated at between $30,000 and $40,000.

Eight children were born to the union, four of whom survive: Isaac A. Allen, California; Jas. Scott Allen, north of Reedville; Mrs. Emma B. Dant, wife of Eugene Dant, and Mrs. Amberson Weisenbach, wife of J. J. Weisenbach, of Reedville. A stepdaughter, Mrs. Anna A. Gibson, also survives. Mrs. Allen died some years ago.

In old days, Allen was well known all over the county, and he enjoyed a great reputation as a rifle shot, winning many of the matches which were a feature of pioneer life. He was the soul of integrity in his business dealings, and his faith in human nature was never shaken, although it was many times severely tried.

The funeral took place Saturday, at 9:30, from the Reedville church, and interment was in the West Union cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to publicly express our heartfelt thanks for the kindness of the people of Hillsboro during our recent bereavement, the deaths of the late Mrs. A. J. Thomas and son, Howard, and we return special thanks to G. G. Brown, and Mrs. Faehy, who ministered to Mrs. Thomas and conveyed her to the hospital, where she passed away.
A. J. Thomas,
Husband and Father,
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Koppe, of Vancouver, Wash., Parents of Mrs. Thomas, Hillsboro, Ore., Jan. 12, 1912.

GETS THE GOVERNOR

Rev. Father Mark Lappen, of St. Matthews Catholic Church, has induced Gov. West to visit Hillsboro, in February, for the purpose of a lecture on the state's prison policy. The talk will be reinforced by slides, showing old and new conditions at the state prison, and the net proceeds of the entertainment will go to the church improvement fund. The lecture will have a big audience, as the Governor is an entertaining lecturer.

FOR SALE

Shoats and pigs, of all ages; 2 cows; will sell or trade a brand new Swenson stump puller; will also sell or trade a board.—Ad dress, Rosedale Farm, Beaverton, R. F. D. 2.

Washington County suffered but very little with the storm and silver thaw, as compared with many of the sections of Oregon. There is but slight damage to the fruit trees, here and there, and the snow came in time to save any injury to the Fall-sown grain. After all, living in the mountain-enclosed basin of the Tualatin has its benefits. Multnomah County's loss is estimated at a quarter of a million, or more.

Jackson Bottom, on the Tualatin, was a fairly good-sized lake by Sunday, the snows from the mountains, with the warm Chinook rain and wind, of the last of the week, having sent the streams booming. Timely warning to youngsters who find it sport to row about the expanse is now in order, for the place is treacherous, and hardly a year passes but it claims some one.

Why pay ten dollars for a map which merely shows Washington County, when you can get one on a larger scale, showing everything from the Willamette River west to the west boundary of the county, size 50x67 inches, for $7.50, or a pocket size, 24x33 inches, for $2.00? Get it of your bookseller, or address T. S. Wilkes & Son, Hillsboro, Oregon.

The Oregon Electric track department is very much out of patience to note that some of its finely finished road bed, near the station in this city, is being more or less disturbed, where the sewer runs underneath, and has sunk. The cement finish and brick stick up like a sore thumb, and much of it will have to be laid.

See our dishes for our customers. When you expend $100 with us you get a fine dining room set of dishes. Call for cards and have the amount of your purchases punched each time you buy. When you buy that amount you get the dishes, or you have a dandy game and fish set.—Emmott Bros

W. E. Arnold, of the Warren Construction Co., was in town the last of the week. His company will start work on the remaining two blocks of paving contract—Washington between Second and Third, and Second, between Washington and Baseline, just as soon as the weather settles for keeps.

If you want remedies that are standard, and always make good, try the Watkins'—the best poultry and stock tonic made. Every bottle or package is a "prize" in itself, as users will testify.—Z. M. Lallue, the Watkins' Remedy man. Letters will reach him at Forest Grove, and his team is always on the road. 44-6

Wm. Geiger Jr. of South of Cornelius, and still residing on the donation settled by his father in the 40's, was in the city Monday. Duck shooting is now getting ripe and Geiger was in to get the necessary papers to license him to "whang" away at some of them.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stove-wood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Tualatin Hotel, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Mrs. A. J. Lowry, of Salem, was in the city the first of the week, the guest of Mrs. F. M. Heidel. It is six years since Mrs. Lowry visited Hillsboro, being a former resident of the county, and she was very much pleased to note the many improvements.

Private advices from the Pendleton and Wala Wala section state that there was a heavy snow up that way a week ago. Fall sown grain is now assured of a good yield—as winter moisture is what is needed up in the Inland Empire.

J. A. Lapointe, of Houston, Tex., is in the city, the guest of John Engeldinger, whom he knew in the good old days at Bayfield, Wisconsin. He is looking around the country with a view of locating.

For sale: A fifteen-sixteenths Jersey bull, a fine animal, and perfectly gentle.—F. R. Kincaid, R. F. D. 3, Hillsboro, Ore., Box 49. Three miles north of North Plains.

Chas. Holcomb, of Bethany, was in the city Saturday. Chas. is now able to run an auto with the best of Portland's chauffeurs, having purchased a Cadillac machine.

For rent: Two furnished bedrooms.—Mrs. Lena Meuchel, Lincoln Street, near P. R. & N. Henry Brock, of South Tualatin, was in the city Monday morning.

SUPT. ALDERMAN WRITES OPEN LETTER

Something Teachers and Pupils Should Read With Interest

SHOULD ENCOURAGE THE YOUNGSTERS

Wants Pupils of County Schools to get into Industry

To the Teachers of Oregon: Knowing that you are willing to cooperate in educational work I ask you to cooperate this year by encouraging all your pupils in the growing of crops, domestic science and poultry raising. Children like to do things and will respond to your encouragement. Your county may hold a fair at which your pupils will be asked to exhibit what they raise or make. The best of these exhibits will be brought to the state fair where liberal prizes will be awarded.

Ask your pupils how many of them would like to have a Shetland pony, a thorough-bred Jersey calf worth $100, a pure-bred pig that would take the prize at any stock show, a pure-bred sheep with wool so thick that they would have to feel around to find its eyes, or a goat with flossy hair that reaches to the ground; or secure a fine Scotch Collie puppie, or win a money prize that will buy just what they want. All these prizes and many more are to be given at the state fair next Fall.

Ask if they know how to grow potatoes, pumpkins, corn, squashes, etc. Ask how many of them like water melons or musk melons. The reason so many boys and girls in Oregon do not grow water melons is because they are afraid the other boys will steal them. If they all grow water melons there will be no one to steal.

Ask them if they know how to feed chickens. If they buy three settings of eggs from one neighbor, and three hens from another, and in March put the two together they will probably raise some prize-winners for the fair. The children of Oregon can double the egg production in three years.

Ask them if they know that the size of the pumpkin does not depend upon the size of the boy or the girl who plants the seed. I know a girl, six years old, who raised corn fourteen feet high. Let us show people that we are the most alive children in the world by 75,000 out of our 125,000 children exhibiting at the county fairs, and 35,000 at the state fair. Last year 14,000 children in Iowa had exhibits at the fairs. Let us beat them two to one.

Yours very truly,—L. R. Alderman, Supt. Public Instruction, Salem, Ore.

ANGUS McLEOD

Angus McLeod, well known in the Vineland section, died January 12, 1912, from an attack of pneumonia. He was born Dec. 20, 1861, and at death was aged 50 years and 21 days. The funeral took place from Pleasant View Church, and interment was in the Vineland cemetery, Sunday. McLeod had lived north of Glencoe for many years, and had many friends in that section.

Angus McLeod was born on Prince Edward Island, Dominion of Canada, and came to Washington County about 30 years ago. His father died in the Alberta, and his mother died in Washington County. Besides three children, he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Catherine Keenon, Vine-lands; Euphemia Livingston, Nebraska City, Neb.; A. B. McLeod, Alberta, Canada; Findley M. McLeod, Gaston, Ore.; Jennie McLeod, Coos Bay; J. H. McLeod, Beaverton, and Mrs. Sarah Blum, Gaston.

BAD ELEMENT SCATTERS

Portland has had a carnival of hold-ups and shooting since the bad weather started, and the chief of police rounded up all the vagrants, and scattered them on the strength of putting them all on the rockpile. Three of the bunch tracked into Hillsboro Saturday night, and they were mighty tough looking citizens. They were told to move on by Chief Blaser, and they hiked out of town. It would be well to keep your doors locked and not carry any money around late of an evening, for the crusade is to be kept up by the Portland officials.

Geo. Darity, of Glencoe, was in town Friday.

A. L. Holcomb, of Bethany, was in town Saturday.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Hillsboro, Feb. 2.

S. G. Rhodes and Tony Gassner were up from Reedville, Monday.

J. E. Dickason and son, of above Mountandale, were in the city Saturday.

Henry Fuegy, of Phillips, was in the city Monday, and called on the Argus.

W. W. Williams, of above Mountandale, was in town the last of the week.

Guy Weisenbach, of below Reedville, was a city visitor the last of the week.

Martin Palmateer, of Reedville, transacted business in the city Friday afternoon.

Don't half do it, make it Liggett's Chocolates or nothing. Get them at The Delta.

Geo. J. Jack, of below Farmington, was a county seat visitor the first of the week.

R. A. Caples of Aloha, was in town Monday morning, filing a bond for that place's new postmaster.

Frank Jackson, of Glencoe, was in the city Saturday afternoon, accompanied by his mother and sister.

Miss Helen Gates departed Friday evening for an extended visit with Mrs. Herman Siegrist, at LaGrande.

Do not forget to ask for a Schiller when you want a good 10 cent smoke—no "cough dust" in the Schiller. 121f

John Sinclair, of West Union, was in the city Saturday. John is running the Salzgeber hopyard as lessee.

John B. Stewart, of South Tualatin, was in this city Saturday, and called on the Argus weekly.

Howard Baird departed for a vacation at Ridgefield, Wash., last Friday, and will "rough it" for a while, with Clarence Hoyt.

D. H. Willers and wife, of Oak Park, were Argus callers Saturday. Mr. Willers has been a reader of the Argus for over seventeen consecutive years.

Wm. Mohr, who quit shoe-making to ranch in the Oak Park section, was in town Saturday. Mr. Mohr started on his 18th year as an Argus reader.

F. C. Orth, county representative of the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Co., who makes trips to all the county patrons, good or bad weather, was in town Saturday.

C. E. Hicks, an oldtime Hillsboro boy, now with the Press, at Forest Grove, was in the city Sunday greeting friends. C. E. was much surprised to witness the fine growth Hillsboro has enjoyed.

Gus Kempfer has returned from a trip to California, going as far South as Long Beach. Gus says the country down there is coming to the front, but he is better than ever satisfied with old Oregon.

For sale or trade: Twelve acres, 2 1/2 miles southeast of Hillsboro; also a house and 2 1/2 acres at McMinnville. Will sell at a bargain, or trade for Hillsboro residence property, close in.—C. F. Bunsen, Hillsboro, Ore.

Regular trains between Portland and Tillamook started the first of the week, the schedule calling for a stop at Main Street, on the coast-bound train. The train carries out a good patronage every trip.

A. J. Thomas, the landlord of the Commercial Hotel, who lost his wife and little son in the terrible fire of last week, arrived in the city Friday, to arrange the close of his business affairs here. He was accompanied by his father-in-law, F. A. Koppe, of Vancouver, Wash.

For sale or exchange: Will sell house and one acre, woodshed, fruit, small orchard, chicken corral, city water, on county road west of Jefferson, near P. R. & N., at a bargain, or will trade for house and one lot, nearer to business center, paying or receiving cash difference.—Wm. Wolf, City. 45-7

Homer Emmott, E. P. and F. E. Cornelius, and the Argus reporter were at Glencoe, Saturday evening, making a visit with the boys of the Glencoe Lodge No. 22—the oldest Pythian Lodge in the county. Officers were installed with Davis as chancellor commander, and the boys enjoyed a big dinner at midnight.

HILLSBORO GETS NEW KEEP FRESH FACTORY

Plant is Being Installed at Tenth & Washington Streets

SITE PURCHASED LAST SATURDAY

Another Industry Secured For Farmers of This Vicinity

A. B. Kirk and R. W. King, associated with the World Keepfresh Co., last Saturday closed a deal for the Rhoades warehouse property on Tenth and Washington Streets, and the architect has been here this week, arranging for the jointure of the two buildings, which will be converted into a factory for the turning out of the Keepfresh products. The stock for the new concern has nearly all been subscribed by Hillsboro people, and the factory marks a new epoch in industry at the county seat.

The two buildings on the quarter block will be connected, and the furnace rooms will be in the center. The site has a switch running in from the Oregon Electric, thus giving fine shipping facilities. The plant will be completed at once, and will be ready for operation as soon as the 1912 crop can supply the product.

Emmott Bros. sold the property and they are also considerably interested in the venture. The Keepfresh product is the latest thing in the preservation of perishable product, and has given a sufficient proof of its worth.

The Hillsboro Development League took the initiative in promoting the concern, and went after it with a vengeance. League members were sent to the demonstration plant at Salem, and returned with a satisfactory report. The Hillsboro plant is to be the chief demonstration point of the company for the present.
