COUNTY OFFICIAL SURPRISED

County Assessor Max Crandall was given a birthday surprise, at his handsome home in South Hillsboro, Friday evening. The visitors were members of the Pythian Sisters. Mr. Crandall was given a splendid Pythian charm, Hon. W. N. Barrett making the presentation speech. A campaign was then started, and Mr. and Mrs. Crandall were pitted against each other. Each received seventeen votes, although it was alleged that the pure ballot law was fractured several times. At a late hour light refreshments were served. At midnight the party dispersed after wishing Mr. Crandall many returns of the day. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger, Mrs. S. T. Linklater, Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, Mrs. Burt Wilkes, Mrs. Emma McKinney, Misses Althea Hembree, Margaret Goodin, Marie Long, Irene Becker, Beth Crandall, Messrs. Fred Heidel, L. W. House, Edw. C. Luce, Lafayette Davis, Master Kenneth Crandall, and host and hostess.

L. Creps, of Banks, was down to the city Monday and Tuesday.

Judge Campbell arrived in town Monday morning, and held court in the circuit department.

Capt. and Mrs. Geo. Spencer, of Ashland, are guests of Mrs. Spencer's parents, G. J. Palmer and wife.

Judge Hollis, of Forest Grove, Representative in the last legislature, was in the city the first of the week.

John Siefert, formerly of Centerville, new living on his new place, at Phillips, was over to the city Tuesday.

John Day, of Portland, was up to Hillsboro the first of the week, returning on a business trip to Timber.

James Loudon, of Iowa Hill, was over the city Tuesday. Loudon comes from the section where they raise prize Burbank spuds.

C. F. W. Kulisch, of Portland, formerly of Elmonica, was in the city the first of the week. He is representing a life insurance company.

Speaking of the death of L. M. Whitmore, J. J. Krebs says he knew him when he was in Weiser, Idaho, in 1900. Whitmore was then running a paper at Weiser.

W. B. Cate, who is farming in Linn County, just across the river from Corvallis, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday, greeting his Hillsboro friends of a few years ago, when he ranch-east of town.

The practical work of the Hillsboro Development League is evidenced by the promoting of the Keefresh factory, brought to Hillsboro, within the last 60 days. With a united effort the League can accomplish a great deal for Hillsboro—and the boys are out for progress.

John H. Stevenson, of Portland, son of County Judge Stevenson, has been appointed a member of the vice commission by Mayor Rushlight. Mr. Stevenson is a practicing attorney in the Rose City, and is well known here and at Forest Grove, where he attended Pacific University.

Conductor Watkins came through from Tillamook, Monday, on the passenger, and said that the company is doing all in its power to keep the line open. Numerous small slides have kept the shovel working day and night, but the train each way got through on nearly schedule time. The line is getting a good traffic.

Peter Grossen, of Phillips, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Grossen the other day sold a span of five- and six-year old horses for $600. They were fine animals, and have been on a milk route for some time, having more than earned their cost. It pays to raise good horses—then when you sell you get something for your effort. The team was sold to Wahl Bros., of Forest Grove.

The law requires a fire-proof house for the moving picture machines, and O. Phelps has just the thing for his new quarters, now under construction in the old Shute bank building, recently purchased. His find is the vault left in the building, and this he expects to use to house and operate the machine. It will be sufficiently fire-proof to stand the test of the law—and then some.

Grafted Walnut Trees

As I have made a careful study of the Walnut Industry in California, Oregon and Washington for the last six years and have great confidence in the future of the industry, especially in the Willamette Valley, we are planting 250 acres of our own.

As we are growing and grafting the trees for this tract to insure reliability and uniformity we decided to graft some for sale of the same quality. In offering these trees to the public we believe we are offering the very best that can be produced at any price—Vrooman Franquettes grafted on Royal Hybrids and California Black Root.

Washington County has a bigger area of land suitable for walnut culture than most any other county in the valley, yet very few first-class trees of the late-blooming varieties that are adapted to our climatic conditions are being planted.

Order early, as our supply has never been equal to the demand.

Ferd Groner.
