J. H. Kennedy, of Banks, was in town Friday, and called on the Argus. Mr. Kennedy was in for the first time since Hillsboro's paved streets were completed, and he said he rather liked the looks of the old county seat, even if his tax check was a pretty stiff one.

Wm. Mahon departed Sunday for an extended business trip back to Michigan. He will sing the praises of Oregon to all his oldtime friends back in the Wolverine state, and if there isn't an exodus of "Michiganers" out here the coming season the Argus will miss its guess.

J. J. Hartley, Montgomery Turner, Mrs. Martha E. Carstern and Clell Carstern, the company formed to purchase the Mauss ranch, now have the deed to 78.75 acres of the place, and will at once put out 18 acres of hops. J. J. Hartley will run the place, and next year they expect to put out the balance, except the house plot, in the product that has been so profitable to Oregon. R. M. Banks bought the 29.53-acre tract across the road. Mr. and Mrs. Mauss will go to Mt. Angel to live. 1912.

were married at Dyersville, Iowa, March 3, 1862. Rev. Von Fried officiating. Mr. Wismer was born in Canton, Zurich, May 27, 1836, and came to America in 1855. Mrs. Wismer was born in Province Saxon, Germany, Jan. 14, 1842, and came to America in 1855, although she crossed a few months later than her husband. Her maiden name was Fredericka Hickthier, and she is a sister of Chas. Hickthier, of near Cedar Mill. They came to Oregon 39 years ago, purchasing their present home from the late Peter Brugger. At this home they have held continuous residence, and raised a large family. The Wismer place for years has been the scene of a splendid hospitality for young and old, and the happy couple have a large circle of friends in Northeast Washington County. During the day of the wedding festivities fully three hundred people called to tender their congratulations, and many people from Portland were present to present their best offices. Mr. and Mrs. Wismer are held in high esteem by all who have known them, and their visitors were given a hearty welcome. There was an amplitude of refreshments, music, and a program that was full of interest. The children born to the union are: Emma, wife of Henry Hamel; Louise, wife of J. F. Dylsle; Walter J.; Otto; Ida, wife of Dr. Von Grunigen, California; J. J. Carl, Freda and Solomon Wismer, the latter of whom passed away.

E. B. TONGUE

Candidate For Nomination

If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, honestly, vigorously and impartially perform my official duties, without fear or favor, endeavoring to accord to every individual, irrespective of party, politics or personalities, a square deal under the Laws, keeping always uppermost in my mind, the interest of the taxpayers. I will protect the innocent, as well as prosecute the guilty.

During my present term of office, I have secured convictions of more than 95 per cent. of my cases. I have won every criminal case tried before the Supreme Court. I have defeated my opponent, Mr. Norblad, in every case in which we have been opposed to each other.

Every District Attorney before me has been given two terms. Does the record above merit the second term for me? Office Hours:—Any time, day or night, you have official business to transact.

E. B. Tongue.

Grant Mann was down from near Cornelius, Saturday, attending the grange session.

Wm. Cuddy, editor of the Weekly Oregonian, was in from his Milkapsi ranch, Saturday, and visited the Argus office. Wm. is feeling happy over the advent of another grandson, that was born to his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Madsen, at the Cuddy homestead, last week. Cuddy is one of the broad-gauge boys that "knows," and he is a stickler for the proprieties. Since acquiring his Milkapsi home in the country he has started a luxuriant growth of alfalfa on his chin, and says that no "Bill Hanley" face for him. Come again, "Bill," the latch string is always on the outside; the lock is "busted"; and there's a little North California moonshine in the "cupboard."

Hon. Benj. Schofield, of Cornelius, was down to the city Saturday.

A. B. Flint, of Scholls, was in town Saturday. He says that the Winter grain is not damaged at all, and it looks like a bumper crop this year.

A. B. FINDLEY

A. B. Findley, pioneer of 1847, died at his home near Cedar Mill, March 7, 1912, after an extended illness. He was born in Indiana, Jan. 15, 1838, and came to Washington Territory, then Oregon, with his parents, in 1847, settling at Fort Vancouver. Two and one-half years later they moved to Oregon City. As a boy he witnessed the hanging of the Whitman Indians, whom J. L. Meek, as U. S. Marshal, hanged at Oregon City. The family moved to Marion County, and in 1860 he was wedded to Miss Sarah Jane Reeves, a pioneer of 1852, at Bellpas. In 1863 they moved to Union County, and three years later emigrated to the Wallowa, where he was one of the first to take up a homestead. He was in the Wallowa district when the Bannocks made their raid, and also when Chief Joseph was conducting his warfare. Mr. Findley was prominent in the fight put up against Indian depredations, and was held in high esteem by the frontiersmen for his sagacity and wise counsel. He lived in the Innaha Valley, Wallowa, until 1898, when he sold out and came to Washington County, settling near Cedar Mill. His wife and the following children survive him: Mrs. Florence Johnson, wife of Jack Johnson, Wallowa, and H. R. Findley, of Cedar Mill. The funeral took place Sunday. Deceased was a member of the M. E. church; of the state Grange, and for years had been a member of the Oregon Pioneer Association. Mr. Findley knew Dr. McLoughlin personally, and until the last had many anecdotes to tell of that empire builder. Findley was highly esteemed for his many good qualities, and for some terms was master of his grange.
