

BEAVERTON - REEDVILLE

Acreage

The largest planting, the most rapid and extensive community development, the most highly fertile soil, and being handled by the largest and oldest acreage firm in Oregon.

These beautiful tracts are only 45 minutes' ride on Fourth-street or Oregon Electric line.

Just six miles west of Council Crest, ten miles from Gunthousen by wagon road.

No freight or commission to pay; you get consumer's prices for your products.

Splendid 2 year old apple orchards demonstrate the soil. We will set a tract of this land to trees of your own selection for $225 per acre and upon terms.

Tracts selling from $125 to $300 per acre and upon monthly payments if desired.

Call at our office, 102 Fourth street, and arrange to see these lands.

Reinforced concrete culverts have passed the experimental stage. Every consumer has become a booster for them after trial inspection of our plants and methods is freely invited.

Concrete culverts are permanent improvements. Our system is the best on the market today. Now is just the beginning of the concrete age.

Why not keep up with the procession of human progress. One trial will convince you that our system of Reinforced concrete culvert construction has come to stay.

Urge the use of Reinforced Concrete Culverts in your district. They will positively last always.

Argus and Journal, $2.25.

Mrs. Herman Salzwedel, of Cornelius, was a county seat visitor last Thursday afternoon.

N. R. West, of near Buxton, was down to the county seat Thursday and Friday.

The laundry delivery team indulged in a runaway, Friday morning, badly demolishing the rig.

Mrs. Chas. Borr, of above Banks, was in the city the last of the week, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Wilkes.

Klineman Brothers are getting ready to build another set of brick kilns, and expect to have some more building material ready in a few weeks.

Ten cents each for 10 papers of the Argus, date of April 4, 1912, will be paid at this office. The issue has been exhausted, and 10 copies are wanted. Bring them in and get the money.—L. A. Long.

A. J. Killin, one of the old-timers of the Thatcher section, was in the city Saturday. He says that the Thatcher neighborhood is building rock roads to beat the band, and that by Fall he expects to have a good macadam all the way from his place to the county seat and then some.

I saw cordwood, piles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stove-wood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Tualatin Hotel, Hillsboro, Oregon.

The L. of F. Needlecraft spent a very pleasant afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ward, of South Tualatin, May 9, 1912. Those present were: Mrs. Metzler, Mrs. H. Boge, Mrs. H. Haase, Mrs. H. Pearson, Miss Gladys Pearson, Mrs. Whitsell, Miss Lillian Whitsell, Mrs. G. Geaton, Mrs. W. Haase, Mrs. J. Purvus and Mrs. C. Sleeper.

For Sale—A horse mule colt, 8 months old, big for age. Will make a fine animal.—H. Rasmussen, on Merrill place, between Reedville and Farmington. Address, Beaverton, Oregon, R. 4.

J. W. Sherwood, State Commander of the Knights of Maccabees, well known here, at Forest Grove and at Greenville, was in town Saturday, arranging to make a campaign to build up the local Maccabee Tent. The local tent was inaugurated in 1895, and there are still seven or eight of the boys carrying the insurance feature. Mr. Sherwood hopes to make the county seat organization a strong one, and his deputy organizer will devote a great deal of time to effect the purpose.

THE CAT CAME BACK

"Sam," the black cat belonging to J. C. Lamkin, which was killed by Mark Butler, "came back" after a time in the grave. Mark knocked Sam in the head and buried him in two foot of rich, alluvial deposit, back of the tin-shop. There Sam sprouted and grew, and two or three days after the execution he came to the surface, a much bedraggled Thomas cat. Dogs which had been vanquished by him ran away from that part of town like they were possessed, and while Butler and James were holding a consolation party one morning Sam walked in to the place, covered with dirt and a reproachful look, while Mark turned pale. Sam saw his pursuer and dignifiedly walked out, while Mark solemnly said: "Well, I'll be darned. Jim, I'll never kill that cat again." Sam still lives in his remaining eight lives, and no one can get close to him—close enough to get a hand-hold, anyway.

The Deacon's Philosophy

Ambiduum's mighty pleasin' An' it helps a feller 'long, An' sorta' keeps him humpin' Like an ol' campfiretin' song, But it very often happens That you fall in tech the spot, But don't worry; jest remember, When you're dead, it's all forgot.

You've got your load of trouble, An' your plans have gone astray, Tell you worry from the mornin' Thro' the whole darned livelong day; But keep in cheer, ol' feller, An' you'll get there like as not, But if you don't—jest bear in mind, When you're dead, it's all forgot.

Old life is full of jungles, An' the trail has lots of turns; Still, you allus find the biggest elk, Where the forest never burns; But if you never stalk your game, Or get to fire a shot, Don't you worry; jest remember, When you're dead, it's all forgot.

Life has sorrows; life has vic'tries, Tho' the last come not your way; Still you've had your hours that's joyous, An' you've had your bills to pay— So if your life's a failure, An' you worry 'bout your lot, Stop it now; an' jest remember, When you're dead, it's all forgot.

A COMMON ERROR OF HOME BUILDERS

and one that does a great injustice to lumber as a building material is carelessness in specifying grades. All lumber is graded by a set of rules compiled by the manufacturers for your protection, but of course they protect those only who are painstaking enough to familiarize themselves with the different technical terms.
