

FRANK ALLEN, CRAZY, DEPORTED TO IDAHO

Formerly Taught School in the Chas. Holcomb District

INSANE KIDNAPER WELL KNOWN HERE

Had Been in Asylum at Medical Lake, Wash., and in Idaho

J. Frank Allen, one-time school teacher, well educated, a good talker, and a man of some means, has been deported from the asylum at Salem, and taken to the Idaho authorities. Allen has property in Idaho, and he was therefore taken to that state for care.

Allen taught school in the C. E. Holcomb district, near Bethany, a few years ago, and was well known in that section of the county. From here he went back to Idaho, and then moved down to Umatilla County, Ore., where he taught near Echo and Pilot Rock. He was committed to the asylum from Umatilla, his wife moving to Salem so as to be near him.

Allen was one of the escapists a few weeks ago, and came to Hillsboro with a livery rig, putting up a plausible story to J. M. Berry, who left Hillsboro with the lunatic and went to Portland. Allen telling Mr. Berry that he would go with him to Salem and get Joe Fryear, Berry's nephew, out of the state hospital. Allen represented that he was an alienist with influence at the asylum, and said that he had been there with a patient, and had noticed that the nephew was mentally all right. Berry went unsuspectingly, and left Allen at the Jefferson street depot. Through C. E. Holcomb, Allen was turned over to the authorities, while Berry went on to Salem in ignorance of the fact that Allen was an escapee. The two were to have met in Salem the next day.

Allen will never be cured of his mental malady, and will doubtless end his days at the Idaho asylum.

DON'T OVERLOOK IT

Did you ever see a baby elephant running a race around the hippodrome track of a circus with a pony?

The chances are you have never seen an act of this kind, because it is one of the new ones introduced by the Sells-Floto circus this year and was imported from Europe especially for this season at no small expense. Now when the circus arrives here on June 2nd you must certainly come over and see this laughable performance even if otherwise you have that tired feeling regarding them of the tinsel and sawdust.

"Muggsy" is the elephant's name. He is a cunning little chap 17 months old, who was brought from India last winter and trained in the big hippodrome at Hamburg. He is said to be the most apt pupil which has ever graduated from that great institution of animal learning. And he can show speed that would make the ordinary race horse ashamed of himself. His opponent in this event is little "Sunday" the smallest horse in the world, and to see these two straining every nerve for supremacy is really one of the most entertaining and at the same time the most ridiculous features ever introduced under a "big top."

On the morning the circus arrives here the usual parade will be given at 10:30 o'clock. It should be especially noted that the Sells-Floto people still adhere to their policy of popular prices, and that the general admission fee of 25 cents admits to the menagerie and the performance in its entirety. The regular ticket wagons will be opened on the grounds as early as 9:00 o'clock.

Coffee Club Cook Books are on sale at the following places—The Rest Room, Mrs. Bath's Millinery, Vaught's Grocery.

A. W. Scott, of below Newton, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Leon Vial, who with her husband owned four lots in Hyde Park, below Beaverton, has sued her husband for divorce. They lived on their place a year or so ago, and raised chickens, just to enjoy the simple life. There they were happy, but Vial wanted to go back to the city to the call of business, as he is well-to-do. When they returned to Portland, Vial became cold and distant and the wife saw her dream of bliss turn to a nightmare. She asks for big alimony.

Notice—The prices for various kinds of work done at Hillie's repair shop are as follows: Lawn mowers $1. I grind any old mower so that it will cut perfect if not worn out; saws 25c if not too bad; knives 10 to 15c; two for 25c; scissors 10, 15, 25c, according to size; keys the usual price 25c. Razors honed. Spray pumps repaired. Umbrella ribs 25c, covers $1.50 to $2.00; phonographs, sewing machines and washing machines. Next door to Dolan's tin shop, Main and Fourth Streets. 11

W. P. Freeman, well known here years ago, now of North Yakima, is in the county with three associates, handling a county right for a "Lifter." Freeman left Hillsboro 13 years ago, and says that he hardly knew the old town when he arrived the first of the week. His father formerly lived near Glencoe, and was well known to the early pioneers.

Closing out sale of plants.—Will sell at sacrifice to those wishing to fix up their yards—and they will do well to call and see what we have—house plants, roses, shrubbery, blues, ponies, bleeding hearts, and other things too numerous to mention. Cabbage and tomato plants in their season. We also have some fine comestible plants and shrubbery.—Mrs. Agnes Campbell, Corner of Seventh & Fir Streets. Phone City 153. 52f

Forest Grove is furnishing the brick for the walls of the court house annex, and the material is being hauled by team, this being cheaper than loading on the car and then unloading at the county seat for the haul uptown.

Slabwood for sale, 75 cents per cord, at the Four-Point mill, near Groveland. This is cheaper than you can cut your own timber.—Four Point Mill. 11-2

At the recent state grange meeting at Roseburg, B. G. Leedy, well known in this county, was elected a member of the executive board, and Chas. Hays, of Sherwood, was elected assistant steward.

Miss Mary E. Wilcox, specialist, manicuring and shampooing. In Hillsboro every Thursday and Friday. Leave orders Main 323. Goes to residences. 11-4

John Ironside, of below Bethany, was a county seat visitor Friday. This is John's first trip to the county seat since the town assumed metropolitan airs, and he says that Hillsboro is getting to the front much more rapidly than he anticipated.

John Hughes, of below Newton, was an Argus caller the last of the week.

R. Tschanz, of Helvetia, was down to the city Saturday morning.

Henry Harms, of near Centerville, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Chas. L. Crocker, of below Newton, was in the county seat Friday.

Ira Watson, of Gaston, was in the city Friday.

Jos. Cawsey, the North Tualatin Plains hopgrower, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

ED. B. WINTERS KILLED

Man Survived Three Days After Being Kicked in Throat

LARYNX WAS VERY BADLY BROKEN

Arteries Were Broken So That Five Physicians Could Not Save

Ed. B. Winters, residing on the "Mountain Buck" place, several miles southwest of Cornelius, was kicked by a horse last Tuesday afternoon, and notwithstanding five physicians were called the injured man expired Friday afternoon, about three o'clock. The blow from the horse's feet struck Winters in the larynx, crushing it to a pulp. Several arteries were so badly pulped that the unfortunate man bled inwardly, some of the blood getting into the lungs, causing strangulation. Winters was married to a daughter of Mountain Buck, and the widow and one son, aged 10 years, survive. Dr. Linklater was called to the scene Friday afternoon, and found the man practically in the throes of death.

Winters belonged to the Fraternal Brotherhood, and carried $3,000 life insurance, which goes to the widow and son.

The Mountain Buck place where the tragedy took place, is joined to the Ledrick place, and the locality was of much interest in the early nineties, when Gus Wachline killed John D. Ledrick, hiding the remains in a huge pile of compost, back of the barn. Wachline then robbed the house and took Ledrick's team to Portland and sold them. Wachline expiated the crime on the gallows at Hillsboro in 1898, after hiding several years up in the Gilliam county. At the time there was some suspicion on Mountain Buck, but the jury had no difficulty in finding a verdict of guilty against Wachline.

BACK TO THE FARM

"Back to the farm"—I have 130 acres of land; 40 acres clear, the rest good saw timber; good house, barn and orchard; 2 wells; 2 springs; large creek; good mill site; timber can be floated down Tualatin river. Six miles south of Hillsboro; one mile north of Laurel; on main county road; mail and milk route; phone in house; will sell all or in small tracts, at $150 per acre. Part cash. Come and see me.—A. L. Grebe, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2, Box 18. 6-1f

SURPRISE

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schulmerich, Wednesday evening, May 15, in honor of their son Frank's twenty-second birthday. The evening was spent in music and games. Light refreshments were served at midnight. The guests departed at an early morning hour and all reported a good time. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schulmerich, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Burkhalter, Marie Johansen, Tena Kamma, Jennie McCallen, Marguerite and Elma Schulmerich, Marguerite Stuart, Lizzie, Nellie and Mabel Smith, Josephine Edwards, Eva Ingram, Hazel Murphy; Riley Ingram, Bruce and Roy Schulmerich, Edwin Burkhalter, Herbert Schulmerich, Arthur McCallen, Alfred Miller, Winifred Snider, Chester Stuart, Freese Lillegard, Oscar Johansen, Horace Robinson, Frank Schulmerich, John Smith, Herbert Jordan.

BITULITHIC IN 1912 INCREASES

Development of Improved Paving Industry Revealed in Year's Figures

There had been adopted in the year 1901, only 16,400 yards of Bitulithic pavement and only seven cities in the United States recommended its use at that time. In the year following the demand had shown a great increase and in 1911 there were 99 cities whose record showed laid, and under contract, over 4,000,000 yards of Bitulithic pavement. The year 1912 shows an increase of 48 per cent over the year 1911.

Dr. Lowe's new outfit for testing eyes is one of the finest and most expensive ever made by the largest maker of eye testing instruments in the world. He is naturally proud of it.

Dr. Lowe's glasses are death to headaches. Ask your neighbors.

Frank Stewart, of Centerville, was in the city Monday.

Perry Leisy, of Portland, was out Saturday, visiting relatives. Mads Neilsen, of above Banks, was down to the county seat, Saturday afternoon.

W. G. Hesse, of Scholls, was up to the city Monday.

John Klink, of Virginia Place, was a city visitor Monday morning.

Judge J. U. Campbell held an adjourned session of circuit court, Monday.

Fred Berger, of Bethany, was up to the city the last of the week.

A few years ago and it was difficult to find a mule in Washington County—but the "woods are full of them" at present.

R. H. Greer the other day sold the First and Washington residence, with four lots, to Mr. McFarland, of Frenzel & McFarland.

Gus Steves, of near Orenco, was in town Monday. Gus is rigging up an irrigation plant to water his crop when the dry spell arrives.

T. W. Sain, of near Gaston, was down to the city Saturday, greeting his scores of county seat friends. Tom says that "Hard-scrabble" is getting along all right with crop prospects.

Dr. Lowe, the well-known eye specialist who has been coming to Hillsboro for so many years, will be here again Friday, May 31. If you want the best eye-tests, best glasses, and at reasonable prices, don't fail to consult him.

W. F. Frenzel and wife depart this week for an extended stay in the Southern Oregon timber district. Mr. Frenzel, who has been in the lumber business here for several years, will not dispose of his interests here, but will leave his holdings.

For sale or trade for cash, or on easy terms—house on First and Washington Streets and house on First and Fir, and two houses in Highland Park. Also three vacant lots on Washington Street.—See R. H. Greer, Hillsboro, Ore. 8-12

Kingsley Lytle, Ward Wilkes, Roy Schroeder, Arthur Connell and Clifford Long went to the big meeting at Corvallis the last of the week. While the boys failed to qualify for the finals they report a good time. Last week Fulton Magill, Hurley and Fisher went to Eugene to a like meeting.

If you have a farm for sale, or want to trade your farm for city property, see Hatch & Oakerman, real estate dealers, 819 Union Avenue N., Portland, Oregon. Old established office. Prospective farm buyers in their office nearly every day. Mr. Oakerman formerly lived in this county, and is well able to represent local property. 9-11

H. B. Dauchy, of Banks, and Roy Lynn, the tinner of that thriving burg, were in town Saturday, enroute to Reedville, where the Modern Woodmen had a big entertainment. They report Banks as going to the front rapidly, and Mr. Dauchy, who is in charge of the Davies' lumber yard, states that the April sales of lumber eclipsed all former Aprils in volume.

The better your eyes see—the better and quicker decisions your brain will make. Your eyes plus your brain equal you. If you have defective sight Dr. Lowe's, glasses fitted by his new method, will strengthen your eyes and brain. He will analyze your case and demonstrate this indisputable fact for anyone gratis. Consult him about your eyes and glasses at the Hotel Washington, Friday, May 31, to 5 o'clock. Scores of Hillsboro references.

LeRoy Armstrong, well known to several Hillsboro people through association with him at the Portland Press Club, has bought Goodwin's Weekly, at Salt Lake, and has taken up the publication of that admirable magazine. Armstrong is "some writer," and has contributed some very lively fiction with Northwest coloring. He is there with the bells, all the time, and will give Salt Lake a high-class magazine—and one that will always be appreciative of the wonderful resources of the great state in the Salt Lake Basin. Armstrong is a man with the optimistic bent and he never sees Col. Pessimism without taking a crack at the cocoa. "Here's to you, LeRoy."

HILLSBORO BEAT BANKS BY TWELVE TO ONE

Klein, of N. W., Pitched for the Cardinals, Sunday, Athletic Park

STRUCK OUT FOURTEEN MEN

Hillsboro Annexed Fourteen Hits off of Martin; Banks Got Four

The Cardinals were loaded Sunday for the game with Banks, and the result was a score of 12 to 1 in favor of the county seat team. Klein, of the N. W.'s pitched for Hillsboro, and whiffed fourteen men, while Martin, always a reliable whirler, struck out but eight.

Hillsboro smashed out eleven hits, while Klein held Banks down to four smashes. The game was ragged at times, Freeman, the regular first baseman, not being in the game, and at his old position.

The game was more free from alterations than the last one, although Banks complained considerable of the judgment of the umpire on balls and strikes.

The positions of the two teams:
Bacheler.....1 f.....C Dooley
Brown.....3 b.....C Wilson
Briggs.....c f.....Schlegel
Clark.....1 b.....Parrott
Yett.....s.....Shea
Blue-Kruger.....r f.....Carstens
Sigbee.....2 b.....E. Wilson
Klein.....p.....Martin
Phelps.....c.....Longasser
Summary—3-base hits, Sigbee; 1st base on balls, Martin 3; Klein 0; left on bases, Banks 4; Hillsboro 5; 2-base hits, Briggs, (2); Bacheler, Shea; struck out, Klein, 14; Martin, 8; passed balls, Longasser; hit by pitcher, Bacheler, Brown; sacrifice hits, Klein; stolen bases, Bacheler, Yett, 3; C. Wilson, E. Wilson.

Hillsboro scored 1 in the 2nd; 2 in the 4th; 3 in the 7th; 6 in the 8th. Banks made the lone score in the fourth.

MASON HILL LADIES

The ladies of Mason Hill had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Adamsen, May 16, and organized a Sewing and Social Club. Officers were elected: Mrs. Anton Persinger, president; Mrs. C. Johnson, secretary and treasurer. The club will meet monthly, and the next session will convene at the home of Mrs. Persinger. Mrs. Adamsen proved a charming hostess, and all were pleased with the initial meeting.

Those present were: Mrs. Anton Persinger, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mrs. Adamsen, Mrs. Nitschman, Mrs. M. Ryan, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. Solberger, Mrs. H. Christensen, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. R. Cox, Mrs. Danielson, Mrs. P. Christensen. The June meeting will be dated for June 12.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Hillsboro is to institute an order of the Knights of Columbus in this city on the evening of Sunday, May 26. A large class will be initiated, and Father Lappen, who has worked hard to get the charter, is well pleased with results. A big banquet will be served by the ladies of St. Matthews church, and there will be a big delegation present from Portland and other Oregon cities. At the banquet the toastmaster will be J. P. Kelleher, district deputy.

The secret session will be held in the court room, and the dinner will be served in one of the large halls of the city.

A. E. Dailey, carrier on Route 2, out of Laurel, was in the city Sunday.

REMEMBER GRADUATION DAY

Look back to the day when you were stirred with the pleasure and enthusiasm of Graduation Day. Think what it meant to you. Remember how you treasured and cherished Mother's Graduation Gift. Think what it means, or might mean, to your daughter or son. The graduation gift should be something distinctly "personal." It may be serviceable, if you like. But above everything else, it should be of really lasting quality. I shall be glad to help you in the selection of a worthy and appropriate gift for Graduation Day.
