COULTER — PERRINE

Miss Elma Perrine and J. C. Coulter, of South Bend, Wash., were quietly married at the home of the bride, Seventh and Oak, Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, Rev. Hawkins, of the M. E. Church, officiating. The bride is one of Hillsboro's accomplished young ladies, and was formerly connected with the "Perrine Sisters." She has been one of the successful workers in the M. E. Church and she will be missed in church circles. The groom is one of the popular young men of Pacific County, Wash., and is interested in the Coulter Tug Boat Co., operating in the Willapa Harbor. He is the son of one of South Bend's pioneer steamboat men, and will operate along the Columbia River, the Grays Harbor and other points. They will make their home at South Bend.

Travelers say that never in the history of the residence in Oregon has there been so much business in the past month. The Argus and Nebrascans had several big sales several years ago, and the Tennesseeans are going into the business. In East Oregon, the week passed under storm clouds, but the sun began to appear one day.

Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott writes the Argus that completed petitions for the Blue Sky Law should at once be sent in to his office as it takes time to check up the petitions. He states that the names on each petition must be accurately copied by the circulator, with his affidavit attached. Circulators of petitions should take notice of this provision, and get their petitions to Salem as soon as possible.

TO THE PUBLIC
Owing to circumstances over which we have no control the committee on program for the Washington County Veteran Association make this announcement—that at the annual reunion to be held at Cornelius on July 1, 2 and 3, 1912, there will be no "Forest Grove Day."

By Order of Committee.

Mrs. C. E. Deichman, is visiting this week at Tillamook. T. H. Littlehales, of Forest Grove, was down to the court, Tuesday, hearing the case in the injunction case had brought against the city of Forest Grove, to stop paving streets being let for Second Street.

Thos. Simms, of Farmington, was in town Tuesday, and on the Argus. Mr. Simms has 200 goats for sale, mentioning which will be found elsewhere.
