

CRESCENT THEATRE TOMORROW NIGHT

"My Friend From India." Staged by Local Talent. Said to be best local play yet. Proceeds will go to the benefit of the Coffee Club fund.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Various real estate transfer notices including property sales and mortgages in Hillsboro and surrounding areas.

MRS. ALFRED EMMOTT

Obituary notice for Mrs. Alfred Emmott, wife of Fred Emmott, who passed away in Hillsboro.

For Sale at a Sacrifice

Advertisement for a large eight-room house for sale at a sacrifice price.

The school board and the Council have agreed on a price for the new school house site, and it is said that $5,000 has been determined as the compensation.

For sale: White Orpington eggs, 13 for $1.50; per hundred, for incubator lots $10; will take orders for chicks, one day old, at $20 per hundred.

John Leland Henderson, of Tillamook, formerly of Hillsboro, is being sued by wife No. 2, who says that Henderson is altogether too fond of a divorced wife.

Do not forget that Dave Corwin will do your plumbing and give you estimates. Satisfactory work always, and prices that can't be given by others.

Bring the little ones to Koerber's for their ice cream. We have a little table and chairs, installed especially for them.

Lineman Scott, formerly with the Washington-Oregon Corporation, now has a position with the Oregon Electric out of Portland.

County Commissioner Nyberg, of Tualatin, was in town Tuesday, on a trip around the county, inspecting the rock-road and other work.

PARADE FOR FOURTH TO BE BIG AFFAIR

B. P. Cornelius is to be the Grand Marshal of Inspiring Cortez.

FINE CHANCES TO WIN PRIZES

Opportunity for Fattest Man in the County—and Leanest Boy

Hon. E. P. Cornelius is to be grand marshal over a parade that promises to be unique in the history of county seat celebrations on the coming Fourth of July.

Floats—first prize, $7; and second, $5. Automobile division—same awards. Best decorated bicycle, $2; second, $1.

Largest family in parade—$5—here is a chance for some big family to win two prizes—one for the best decorated farm wagon, as well as for the largest family.

Fattest man in parade, $5. Leanest boy in parade, $5.

The committee on amusements have decided on the following contests and prizes: Hose Co., 1st prize, $15; 2nd, $7.50.

NORTH PLAINS JULY 4

North Plains is to have a big celebration July 4. There will be a big program, fine speaking, games and contests, and a fine grove for the exercises.

ALEXANDER E. OSMUND

Alexander E. Osmund, of 233 North 18th Street, died at the family home, June 24, 1922, aged 74 years, 5 months and 24 days.

Cabbage plants for sale.—Morlon's Greenhouse.

Chas. Matthes, of Laurel, was in town the first of the week.

Wanted—Three dining room girls, at the National Restaurant.

Mrs. Clara Copeland departed Tuesday for Blue Mound, Ia., over the Hill line.

Seven-room house, modern, for sale on easy terms. Or will rent.—C. Rhoades, Hillsboro.

Druggist Foster has closed his drug store on Third Street, and will move his stock elsewhere.

Mrs. J. L. Kerr has been very ill this week, but is now on the way to recovery.

Born to Philip Schneider and wife, of near Cornelius, June 26, 1912, a son.

See C. R. Hodgdon for 16-inch and 4-foot wood, and for wood sawing. Orders promptly delivered. Phone City 86, 15-6.

J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, was in town yesterday. He reports that during the storm of yesterday hail as large as robin's eggs fell in his neighborhood.

Forsale: Equity in two Ocean View beach lots, Tillamook coast. Or will trade for cow, light wagon, or buggy.—Box 107, Hillsboro, Route 4, 15-7.

Mrs. C. Cavanaugh, and little daughter, Edith, of North Bend, Ore., who have been visiting the past fortnight in Portland, were guests at the home of E. L. Abbott and family, Tuesday.

For sale—About 200 well-bred Angora goats, mixed. Thos. Simms, near Farmington, P. O. Address, Sherwood, Ore., Route 4, Box 38, 16-8.

Clarence Hoyt came in from Reehar, on the Wilson, Monday evening. He says that Julius Sorenson, Thos. Williams, and party, made some fine catches of trout, one of the beauties weighing over two and one-half pounds.

Our home-made candies are going like hot cakes. We know the quality is there. Let us convince you.—Koerber's Confectionery, one door south of Hillsboro Mercantile Co.

Ralph Wann has been acting as Mine Host at the Hotel Washington the past week, during the absence of Landlord Gifford and wife, at the Tillamook beaches.

Now is the time to open a savings account with the Hillsboro National Bank, which has a savings department; under government supervision: 4 per cent—interest paid—4 per cent—on savings. $1—opens an account—$1.

A. C. Shute was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Oregon State Bankers' Association at Gearhart, the other day. In line for promotion he will be president of the organization two years hence.

Going out of Business Sale—Now is the time to get your Summer millinery. Everything in trimmed hats, shapes and trimmings of all kinds, including feathers, ribbons, flowers, etc., at your own price.—Perrine Sisters.

The report published last week that A. C. Donelson had sold his furniture store to W. O. and Earl Donelson is not the fact. A. C. is still conducting the business, ready to sell furniture cheaper than ever—in the new Donelson brick, Third Street.

Buy your merchandise at home and help build your town. You can get dry goods, suits; in fact, everything you need at the People's Store, at prices cheaper than you can possibly find in Portland. Read their display in another column.

Team for sale: Black geldings, 7 years, about 2700. Will guarantee them to be sound and true. Also have two brood sows, each with nine of litter at side; six shoats.—Fred Rood, Hillsboro, Route 5, 3 miles southeast of town, 14-16.

City Recorder Benton Bowman is one of the officials who has all he can do all the time. Since last July Benton has had ordinances galore to draw and transcribe, and proposals and declarations to print, and so many things to take up his time, that he is now beginning to look pained every time a new measure is proposed.

Mrs. Frank Imbrie and Mrs. Emma McKinney will entertain the Coffee Club, Saturday afternoon, June 29, at the home of Mrs. Imbrie, near Oreno. The ladies going on the 1:25 car to Oreno, will be met there and conveyed to the Imbrie home, and returned to Oreno in time for the car arriving here at 5:20.

Lightning yesterday played a game of tag at Mountdendale. Sam Rafferty's house was struck and an incipient blaze started, which was extinguished before much damage ensued. Big fires in front of Jacob Rafferty's house were shattered like pipstems. Happily no person was in the path of the bolt. Quite a number of trees were struck in the hills.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC GETS FOURTH ST. FRANCHISE

D. W. Campbell Says Hillsboro Will be Invaded in two Weeks

DOUBLE TRACK DOWN MAIN & 6TH

Portland and S. P. Agree on Terms of Electric Line Grant

The council of Portland and the officials of the Southern Pacific have at last reached common ground and a franchise down Fourth Street, in that city, will follow. The Southern Pacific is to withdraw its suit in the Supreme Court of the United States, and accept the common user clause on portions of the thoroughfare.

Double track will be laid on Main and Sixth Streets in some portions, and where there are two tracks the company will pave nineteen feet and three inches of the street.

Overhead men are now at work all along the line, and bonding is in progress. The officials say that three or four weeks will see the track built into Forest Grove and Hillsboro. A large crew will be put at the work all along the entire loop.

WEDDING BELLS

R. B. Denny and Miss Margaret M. Asbahr were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Asbahr, three miles south of Hillsboro, June 26, 1922, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Evan P. Hughes officiating.

The groom was born and raised in the Beaverton section, where the Denny family are pioneers and hold the esteem of the entire community. The bride is well known in Hillsboro, and at Corvallis, where she attended school. After three years at Corvallis, Mrs. Denny entered the school room, and last winter taught at Blooming. The many friends of the young couple throughout Washington county wish them every happiness.

FUN IN A FEW DAYS

First time in Hillsboro. Nice, clean respectable establishment. Universal game for men, women, boys and girls. Doctors, bankers, merchants, ministers, lawyers, farmers, clerks, teachers—everybody plays Ten-Pinnet.

The balls are just the right weight for men and women. The game is intensely fascinating. Come and take a few shots free. See for yourself the fun in Ten-Pinnet, 71 cents each person for a full game of thirty balls.

OAK PARK PARTY

A very pleasant party was enjoyed at the J. S. Loring home, Oak Park, Sunday, June 23. A big dinner was served in the afternoon, and music and games were the features. Those present: Host and hostess and family, Rev. Mark Lappen, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Delsman, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Loring Jr., Misses Florence and Cecil Waibel, Inez Reanson, Violet Webb, Mamie Delsman, Alvina Mohr, Mary Overroeder, Frances Delsman, Messrs. Frank Overroeder, John Ryan, Arthur and Elmer Wohler, Carl McCurrie, Jos. Fesler, Thos. Doohar, Ralph Deaville, Matt Engeldinger.

MCCORMICK—BIERLY

On Sunday, June 23, 1922, at High Noon, Miss Ethel Bierly, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bierly, of Kinton, was united in marriage to J. W. McCormick, of Laurel, Rev. T. J. Hazelton, of Scholls, officiating. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, and the house was beautifully decorated for the happy occasion.

Marshall Baker, the Chehalum Mountain thresherman, was in town yesterday. Marshall will be out with his machine again this year, and says he still has a taste for that chicken that also goes along with threshing time.

For Sale—Bain wagon, 3 1/2 inch wide tire, new; also set of double work harness, Boston back, all complete, used 3 weeks. Will sell cheap.—Address John Spies, Beaverton R. 2. Phone Farmer's 15 Keeln Division. Near R. H. Walker place, 16-8.

J. A. Vandehey, of above Dille, on the Spring Hill Farm, was down to the city yesterday. J. A. says that there is not a large percentage of clover down up his way. Crops looking good, too.

"Everybody's doing it, doing it." Doing what? Getting tickets at McCormick's for "My Friend From India," at the Crescent Theatre, tomorrow night, Friday.

Contractor Loring went to Buxton yesterday to look at a bridge for the county. He and his crew finished a small bridge at the Withycombe place yesterday.

Miss Pearl Smith, of this city, and Miss Martha Allen, of Forest Grove, departed Wednesday for Thorp, Wash., where they will be the guests of Mrs. K. E. McDonald and Miss Juanita McDonald.

W. E. Smith, who has raised some of the finest colts in the draft horse class ever bred in the county, was in from South Tualatin, yesterday.

Andrew Westberg, the Farmington orchardist, was in the city yesterday. Westberg will be in with some of his product at the street fair this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rood were in Portland this week, attending the obsequies of the late Alex Osmund, father of Mrs. Rood.

O. G. Barlow, of Portland, was out mid-week, accompanied by Mrs. Barlow. They drove out in their machine.

Do not forget that there is local reading on every one of the eight pages in the Argus.

Misses Madge and Letitia Imbrie returned Saturday from a week's visit at Independence.

Will Joos, of beyond North Plains, was in town yesterday afternoon.

Horse-power hay baler for sale cheap for cash.—Zina Wood.

REPORT

Of the condition of the Hillsboro Commercial Bank, at Hillsboro, in the State of Oregon, at the close of business June 14, 1922.

Table with 2 columns: Resources and Liabilities. Resources include Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, Bonds and warrants, etc. Liabilities include Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, etc.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of June, 1922. F. J. Sewell, Notary Public.

REPORT

Of the condition of the Bank of Beaverton, at Beaverton, in the State of Oregon, at the close of business June 14, 1922.

Table with 2 columns: Resources and Liabilities. Resources include Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, Bonds and warrants, etc. Liabilities include Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, etc.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of June, 1922. George Thynng, Notary Public.

CORRECT—Attest: J. A. Mott, W. E. Pegg.

PROFESSIONAL

F. A. BAILEY, M. D. Physician and Surgeon. Office—Upstairs in Schulerich Block.

S. T. LINKLATER, M. B. C. M., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office—Upstairs over The Delta Drug Store.

JAMES PHOENIX TAMMISIE, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Surgeon Southern Pacific Railroad Co.

ELMER H. SMITH M. D. D. O. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. OSTEOPATH. Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 5 p. m.

Dr. W. B. CUNINGHAM PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Calls Answered Day or Night.

J. O. ROBB, M. D. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. OFFICE—Upstairs in Schulerich Bldg.

DR. B. L. SEARS Physician and Surgeon. Office hours—9 to 11 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m.

BAGLEY & HARE ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Rooms 1 and 2 Shute Building.

E. B. TONGUE ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Offices upstairs in Schulerich Block.

JOHN M. WALL ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Upstairs, A. C. Shute Bldg., Main & 2nd.

W. N. BARRETT ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office: Main Street, opp. Court House.

THOS. H. TONGUE, JR. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Office, upstairs in Schulerich Block.

SCHNABEL & LaROCHE. General Real Estate, Abstracting, etc.

DR. W. E. PITTENGER Dentist. Office up-stairs over Hillsboro National Bank.

DR. J. R. MARSHALL, DENTIST. Temmie Bldg. Rooms 5 and 6.

—WILL YOU BUILD— You Contemplate Building this spring or summer, see us and get our figures.

J. S. Loring and Sons. Oak Park, one mile west of city.

DR. S. M. REAGAN VETERINARY PHYSICIAN & SURGEON & DENTIST.

Graduate Kansas City Veterinary College. 20 years practical experience.

Office, Hillsboro Livery Co. Stable, No. 1. Office, Main 505; Residence, City 133.

Water Dalley, of Laurel, was in the city this morning.