J. B. Campbell, of beyond North Plains, was in the city Monday.

Herman G. Luck, of above Mountaintdale, was in the county Monday afternoon. He says that all crops are looking fine up his way.

Edw. Boge and wife were up from Farmington, Saturday. From the far away look in Ed's eyes one could see that he was contemplating another trip to Wilson after trout.

The Saturday afternoon-Sunday-return train to Tillamook was well patronized, the first of the week, and five coaches were used on the return trip Sunday evening. Within a year or so the Tillamook coast will be one of the big drawing cards for reporters.

Judge Campbell and Court Reporter Runyon were out the first of the week, attending circuit court. Mr. Runyon is one of the boosters for Washington County, and remarked that he had never seen finer prospects along the auto road between Hillsboro and Portland.

J. Soper, farming 300 hundred acres, in company with his sons, out in the West Union section, was in the city Monday morning. He says the rains of last week were of vast benefit to the grain and vegetable crop, although they did some damage to hay. He had but about 25 loads exposed to the weather.

You and your children are safe if you wear Dr. Lowe's superior glasses. They cost you no more than the inferior kinds usually sold, and you have the benefit of his skill, professional guidance and more than 20 years experience. He does not go from house to house. Consult him at the Hotel Washington, July 2. Scores of Hillsboro references.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Oldfield, of Los Angeles, are here for the Summer season, dividing their time between Hillsboro and Portland, while Mr. Oldfield makes the Northwest for his company. He has the Pacific coast for a well-known varnish manufacturer, and in the Winter handles California and then makes Portland his rendezvous for the Summer season.

Frank Pauli Sr. came over from Tillamook the last of the week, after walking up the beach from Newport. He left Summit, where his son-in-law, Grant Downing resides, making Newport by train and boat, and then consumed several days making the trip along the ocean line, for exercise and experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stewart, of Mabton, Wash., were in the city over Sunday, guests of Mrs. L. A. Rood and other relatives. Mr. Stewart is postmaster at Mabton, a growing little place in the famous Yakima Valley. He says that his brother Frank, well-known here, is now practicing law in Los Angeles. Mr. Stewart hardly knew Hillsboro, so numerous were the improvements since he last visited the place of his boyhood, two years ago.

Great improvement has been effected in the city park, and a set of tie-posts and chains will be installed on the east line of the property. All the underbrush has been cut, the grounds cleaned, and this has very much improved the appearance of the city property. The trees are growing nicely and it is but a question of a few years more when no public property in the county will excel the tract bought by the city before the big raise came in property values.

Portland sends out word that they are to have a repetition of the big apple show this Fall, late, and Washington County growers should begin seriously to think about putting the local product into exhibit. Last year there was but one exhibitor from Washington County who was in the race, and he brought home six first premiums. This man, B. Leis, of Beaverton, says that anyone can do what he has done if they will just give their orchards care. Get busy, you people who grow fruit, and see what can be done, and if old Washington County can't give Hood River a hustle it is because there will not be a proper attempt. In another column in this issue you will find directions to preparations of exhibits.

BEECHER

Beecher, Black Registered Jack, will stand at my barn, 1st avenue north, Forest Grove, from March 15 to July 1. I am permanently located here and expect to remain with you thru fortune or failure. I am making a special study of foal production, and will be glad to answer any and all questions pertaining to the breeding business. I hope to have your support in improving the mule flesh of this district. Your loss is my loss, and it is my business to see that my customers get their mares in foal. I have learned much in years of experience pertaining to this subject which would interest you. You will see bills of Beecher posted, giving terms, or call and see me. Yours truly,
W. H. French.
