HILLSBORO BAND LED BREMERTON ELK LODGE

Boys Wore Naval Uniforms for First Time in Their Lives

WERE IN BIG ELKS PARADE TODAY

County Seat Musical Organization With the "Hello, Babs"

Hillsboro Elks—and there are several of them—were this morning proud of the Hillsboro band, which led the Bremerton Lodge of Elks in the big parade in the Rose City this morning. Bremerton is over in Washington state, where the big U. S. Navy yard is located. The Oregon came over post haste, and the band was taken elsewhere, under the impression that the musicians were not needed. The Excelsior of Bremerton, Tuesday, telegraphed S. C. Parker, manager and director of the Hillsboro band, that he wanted him to come with the boys and lead the lodge representing the navy yard city.

The boys wore the suits belonging to the musicians of the old fighting Oregon, and the way they can play with the uniform frames isn't slow. Every once in a while some fair Portland maiden would say: "Aren't those Battleship Oregon boys just the finest of the fine?" Just then some fellow would yell: "Hurrah for Hillsboro!"

Twenty pieces were in uniform.

Well Known Men With Well Known Society

The selection of several new members of the Advisory Board of the American Sunday School Union in the Pacific Northwest is of no little interest to the friends of the Society and to the general Sunday School world.

This Society is the oldest Sunday School missionary society and the only inter-denominational Sunday School missionary society in America, and from the standpoint of regularly employed workers, the largest in the world. It is an incorporate body of Christian individuals, its affairs directed by business men, acting as a supplemental agency to the denominations in caring for the outlying and mixed neighborhoods. During the eighty-eight years this society has been in the field it has established 124,613 Sunday Schools with 668,639 teachers and 4,891,997 scholars. During the past ten years alone 21,962 schools have been established from which 1,113 church organizations and 218,083 conversions have gone to various denominations.

For many years the Society has maintained a limited force in the Pacific Northwest but a survey of the field showing many countries with from one-half to three-fourths of the rural school districts without Sunday school or other religious services and from 50 per cent. to 75 per cent. of the children of school age uneducated for, and a rapidly increasing number of communities wholly without services brought forcibly to the Society the necessity for an enlarged force in this section. Action was taken setting aside the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho as the Upper Coast District and Mr. E. R. Martin, for some years superintendent of the Dakotas, was made superintendent with headquarters at Portland, Oregon.

A campaign for home support was made with the result of an increase to twelve in the force of Union missionaries in the District. During the past three months some sixty schools with more than two thousand members have been established, twenty-five hundred homes have received pastoral visitation and more than four hundred copies of Scripture have been distributed.

While much of the success of this work is due to the inter-denominational character of the society, all homes being opened gladly to its missionaries and all elements uniting in supporting its services, no little credit is due to the expert management of its managers and vice presidents who act as Advisory Board, of the various districts. For the Upper Coast District this year the Advisory Board is as follows:

Mr. G. F. Johnson, Pres. Provident Trust Co., Portland, Oregon, Sec. Portland Commercial Club.
 Mr. F. C. Knapp, Secy. Treasurer, Brewer Knapp Co., Portland, Oregon, Treas. Portland Chamber of Commerce.
 Mr. L. E. Hamilton, Hamilton Dept. Store, Albany, Oregon.
 Mr. Geo. B. Ogden, Vice Pres. Wheeler Oregon Co., Tacoma, Wash.
 Mr. W. P. Winans, Farmers' Savings Bank, Walla Walla, Wash.
 Mr. Wm. H. Shields, New York Mutual Life, Spokane, Wash.
 Mr. C. C. McEachran, Washington Water Power Co., Spokane, Wash.
 Mr. F. S. Dietrich, Judge, Federal Court, Boise, Idaho.
 Mr. D. Worth Clark, Atty., Director Y. M. C. A., Pocatello, Idaho.
 Mr. G. E. Bowerman, Pres. First National Bank, St. Anthony, Idaho.
 Mr. W. E. Smith, of Hillsboro, is in charge of the missionary work of the society locally and has done a most efficient work in the outlying districts of this section.

The report from the first of March, 1912 is as follows:

Schools organized, 6, with 26 teachers and 400 scholars. Schools visited and helped, 12, with 106 teachers and 1293 scholars. With $2275 worth of religious books, Bibles and tracts sold to schools and individuals. With 1295 miles traveled and 216 pastoral calls.

THE FRAGRANCE OF THE ROAST

as it comes steaming hot from the kitchen is only a foretaste of the bigger enjoyment of tasting it. That is if it has come from this market. For our meats are the choicest and tenderest to be had. A taste of them means a desire for more, especially as our prices are as low as any.
